

The deficiency in the last quarter of the Dublin port revenue is £22,265.

The half-yearly meeting of the Mining company of Ireland was held on Wednesday, but as double rent is imposed for the Knockmahon royalty no dividend was made to the shareholders.

The crew of the Pembroke Castle, Williams, from Cardiff to Limerick, which was dismasted the 23d ult, off the Skelligs, and afterwards abandoned, has been found at Falmouth, by the Syren, Lawson, from Alexandria, having been transferred from Joanna, from Swansea, for Valparaiso, by which vessel they were saved.

William Henry Ellis, Esq., late Assistant Barrister for Westmeath, bequeathed £500 for the Relief of poor Protestants in Galway: and £500 to uphold and maintain the becoming worship in the Collegiate Church.

A poor man of the name of Power a millwright, from Listowel, dropped dead yesterday in the streets, it is feared from cold and exhaustion. His body awaits an inquest at Barrington's hospital.

Committed to the County gaol by J. N. Barron, Esq., Patrick Molony, James Molony, Patrick M'Auliffe, and John Barry, charged with being of an armed party who forcibly broke open the door of Maurice Kenny's house on the night of the 28th December last, and presented a gun at him; also Thomas Gearon, charged with being of an armed party who forcibly drove cattle, the property of Robert Fetherstone, Esq., at Bruree, in October last; and also John Leahy, charged with being accessory to the murder of Thomas Murphy, on 16th December last. By John Waller O'Grady, Esq., Denis Noonan, charged with being armed, presented a gun at, and threatened to shoot James Flahooan. By Thomas Wallnutt, Esq., Anne Condon, charged with larceny; and James Noonan, charged with rescue.

The temporary fever hospital at Galway was blown down by the storm on Saturday, and one hundred human beings, in a high state of fever, huddled together, contused and lacerated.

The following appeared in part of last impression:

SPECIAL COMMISSION—WEDNESDAY.

TRIAL OF WILLIAM RYAN "PUCK."

At the appointed hour the Lord Chief Justice and Lord Chief Baron entered Court, and having taken their seats on the bench,

Dr. Riordan the night of the wounds—there the appearance his chest; the b

The case for

Mr. O'Hea, i said he rose un them on beha whose life dep After the arra place the day b black catalogue itself to view, to admit, could the propriety o mission; but f for it at so ala Chief Justice h he trusted it w restoration of c Prisoner's Cou evidence adduc

Mr. Bennett

The Chief Ju and the Jury VERDICT of culprit with ca

Both the lea at which a mo countenance, a nouncing the a

The Attorne to the fact, th chap. 26, sec soner to gaol b

The Judges and remanded should be brou morrow morni

A second Ju

Patrick Bou

that attacked Coolabrown, o

Verdict—G

The court re

Last night,

lians met ne