

48 years, for £131 and for £110.

Limerick.

and Unreserved Auction Young Stock, Implements,

O'BRIEN, ESQ.
BLSTOWN.

to completely change his Dromin, and to break up tructed

MARSHALL

RESERVED AUCTION on February,

min Farm.

ilmallock, and two miles and highly bred herd of

ADDED

WS AND HEIFERS,

and half year old Heifers

ed Short-horned BULL,

Sultan,

ing to the Dairy.

calling particular atten- m his great experience he t for a long time seen a Dairy Farmer. They are

Dutch or first crosses of ality ; in good condition e of the right stamp ; and ingredients so requisite r which this Herd was the Cows are in Calf to ort-horned Bull, "Tippo

rs are nearly all got by equally handsome beast,

. The Yearling Heifers breeding ; they are very undoubted judgment of ared labour or expense in this truly valuable herd their value.

o'clock sharp with, the one day,

mission of five per cent.

ith Stamp and Interest sum over £20, but they e days prior to sale, by

Marshall,

Auctioneer.

96, George's-street.

l-coaches and Bianconi's

by which persons from leaving the morning of

Jan. 15.

ND Investments.

MARSHALL

ays to offer for Public ion,

COMMERCIAL MART,

regularly paid

10s. PER ANNUM,

unstanted property in

F ENNIS.

CHARGEABLE ON THE

E, NEAR ENNIS,

le to

DURING HIS LIFE.

ected on the life of

w only 28 years of age,

will be named for the

ll and clear particulars,

relative to both invest-

lication to FREDERICK

Mallow-street, Limerick ;

MARSHALL,

Auctioneer,

96, George's-street.

DEATHS.

On the 18th inst. at his residence, Barna, county Tipperary, Henry Lee, Esq. J.P.

On Sunday last, at Clonmackin, near this City, to the inexpressible grief of her afflicted husband and family, and deep regret of every one who knew her, Maria, the beloved wife of John Browne Finch, Esq. and daughter of the late Edward Singleton, Esq. of Quinville, county Clare.

At Cove, on the 14th inst. Anne, the beloved daughter of William B. Smyth, Esq. Castle Fergus, county Clare, to the inexpressible grief of her afflicted parents and friends.

At Roscrea, on the 15th instant, of consumption, on his way home from Dublin, Robert O'Sullivan, Esq. of Clare street, Solicitor, aged 25 years—a young gentleman deservedly lamented by his family and numerous friends.

At Dromeliy House, county Clare, at an advanced age, James O'Brien, Esq. He died as he lived, in peace with the world.

Mr. John Fitzgerald, of Mungret-street, shopkeeper. At her house in Kinsale, in the 86th year of her age, Mrs. Catherine Furzer Elliot, relict of the late Captain Henry Elliot, R.N.

William, son of Mr. Thomas Trousdell, Patrick street. At Gort, yesterday, Miss Bessie Rosingrave.

In Fethard, in her 77th year, Mrs. Mary Ryves, relict of the late Hazard Ryves, of Cashel, and sister to George Grace, Esq. Barrister at Law, late of Clonmel.

Yesterday, at Tullybracky, near Bruff, Mr. Patrick Molony. At Coolehane, Macroom, Henry John, son of Richard Ashe, Esq.

Elizabeth, wife of Wm. Bourne Warren, Esq. of Rose lodge and daughter of the late Rev. Alex. Kennedy, of Cork. At Gurtaclogna, Margaret, wife of Mr. Michael Barry.

At Carrigaline, aged 73, Elizabeth, daughter of the late Michael Roberts, Esq. of Kilmoney Abbey, county Cork. At Passage West, aged 16 years, Mary, daughter of the late Captain J. Macklin.

In Tralee, Dora, daughter of the late Thomas Eagar, Esq. of Rathpook, Kerry.

At Barry's Cove, Coast Guard Station, county Cork, Lieut. Alexander B. Davies, B.N. late of her Majesty's brig During.

Susanna, wife of Jacob Lemon, Turin house, Passage West. At Simon's Court House, county Dublin, Louisa Murray, eldest daughter of Nicholas Murray Mansfield, Esq.

At her residence, North Brunswick street, of malignant fever, Miss Catherine M. Esmond.

At the residence of his son, Dane's Fort, county Galway, Captain Thomas Richard Hemsworth, formerly of the 58th and 31st Regiments ; in the latter he distinguished himself at Alexandria, where he was severely wounded ; and subsequently served in the Peninsular war.

On the 29th of Dec. at Castle Harrison, to the inexpressible grief of his parents, aged 7, Standish Alexander, youngest son of Standish H. Harrison, Esq.

At Annmount, near Kinsale, Mr. Daniel Hurly. At Galway, Miss Bedelia Carr.

In Balbriggan, aged 16, Jane, relict of the late Richard Ternan, Esq.

At Harold's Cross, the Rev. Edward Lyons. At Bohermore, Galway, Mr. Michael Gorman.

Suddenly, at Fortland, near Killashee, county Longford, Richard C. Gouldsbury, Esq. Solicitor.

At Woodhill, Ardara, Richard Nesbitt, Esq. Deputy Lieutenant of the county Donegal. At Kinlough House, James Johnston, Esq. Deputy Lieutenant of the county Leitrim, and formerly Captain in the Carabineers.

Mark, son of the late Moses Ennis, Esq. of New row, West. Of fever, Mr. George Grubb, Usner's quay, woolfactor.

Suddenly, Captain R. Robinson, R.N. son of the late Rev. C. Robinson, Granard. Of fever, at Granny, Henry Irwin, Esq. Lieutenant in the Sligo Militia. At same place, Mrs. Irwin, widow of the late John Irwin, Esq. of Granny.

In Roscommon, Susan, wife of Mr. Francis Odum. In Upper Pembroke street, of fever, Caroline Jane, daughter of William M. Burke, of Ballydugan, county Galway, Esq.

At Talbot street, Edward Carolin, Esq. At Dundrum, Mr. Depoe, aged 21 years.

At Cheltenham, Henrietta, wife of the Rev. John La Touche, Rector of Mountrath, Queen's County.

At Spa Buildings, Cheltenham, James Corry, Esq. aged 77. At Southampton, Lady Frances Maria Stuart, relict of Sir Simeon Stuart, Bart. and eldest daughter of the late Earl of Carhampton.

At Stirling, Amelia Maitland, daughter of George Foss Westcott, Esq. late Major of the 77th Regiment.

At Cheltenham, Elizabeth, wife of Richard Pinder, Esq. In Park street, Florence Alexander, twin son of Lord and Lady R. Grosvenor.

Of influenza, at Leamington, Mrs. Byron, aged 74. At Blackroc, Lancashire, Anne, wife of Mr. Wm. Boake, of Dawson street.

At Gravesend, Mrs. Sarah Carden. At Brighton, Mrs. Dawson, wife of the Rt. Hon. George R. Dawson, and sister of Sir Robert Peel.

At Exmouth, Lieut. William Fitzmaurice (1802), the fifth in seniority on the list, and one of the Naval Knights of Windsor. At Cheltenham, Elizabeth, relict of Colonel John Watts, 13th Regiment Infantry.

At Dingwall, Captain Donald M'Lennan, aged 70. John Green, Esq. of Southampton row, Russell square, in his 83d year.

At Langham House, Frederica Georgiana, eldest daughter of Colonel and Lady Emily Seymour.

Dr. Finch, proprietor of Laverstock Asylum, Salisbury. At Brighton, John Morris, Esq. late of the Elders' Office, E. I. Co.'s warehouses, aged 71.

At Torquay, Sarah, eldest daughter of B. Tomkins, Esq. of Kingston on Thames, in her 17th year.

At Milford dockyard, Mr. George Budge, inspector of shipwrights. While in the transaction of his duty he fell into the hold of a ship and broke his back.

Emmeline, widow of the late Dr. King, formerly of Clifton, and recently of Bath. Mrs. King was the sister of Maria Edgeworth.