

ND COALS.

for Sale the undermentioned Arguing ex Ship from New-

At the New Quay,
 At Honan's Quay.

IN YARD,
 House Coal.
 port House, do.

the Tallyman, on Board the er's Office.

Stores, Honan's-quay.

JAC J. JONES,
 Coal Importer.

XCHEQUER.

T to an Order made in these bearing date the 20th day of
 , I will on MONDAY, the ebruary next, at the hour of n the afternoon, at my Chamns Quay, Dublin, Set up and ghest and fairest bidder, for Seven Years pending these
 , the Dwelling House and nond Place, in the City of in the possession of Madame in these causes, and in said
 Day of January, 1848.

W. T. HAMILTON.

situate in the best part of the sist of the spacious Dwelling nond-Place, with background the accommodation of any out Leases and enter into se-or payment of rent, by two unt of the yearly rent.

l be let for such shorter term be agreed on in case a desiraame.

apply to Robert Bevan, Esq., Glentworth-street, Limerick ;
 the Receiver of Ennismore,
 White, his Attorney, 60,

January 22.

TO ll Reeves, Esq.

l, being resident tenants on rane, in the county of Clare, er our humble but grateful onsideration of us during the ed calamity, in the history of 1845 you supplied means to ur large families, and that at rge amount was due on your ent season not less calamitous with the generosity of a land-r wants, set a noble example andlords in this county, by a
 , in our rents; therefore, we nd to offer our heart-felt graon we have received, and also thanks to your worthy Agent, or carrying out your orders.—
 of pleasure manifested by a rds us which bespoke a dispolf and worthy of your repree of health and happiness be be the fervent prayer of your

6 tenants on your estate at f Clare.

PATT HASSETT,
 EDWARD BROWNE, DENIS MADIGAN.

DEATHS.

At Kingstown, Mrs. Lloyd, widow of the late Rev. Edward Lloyd, of Abington.

Yesterday, aged two years, Geraldine, daughter of Daniel Griffin, Esq. M.D. George street.

Of influenza, Marmaduke Thompson, of Ballingarry Castle, county Tipperary, Esq. in the 76th year of his age.

On the 19th inst. James William, the beloved son of the late Michael Beary, of Bilboe, Esq.

On the morning of Tuesday, the 18th instant, at his seat, Barna, near Newport, county Tipperary, in the 69th year of his age, Henry Lee, Esq. sincerely regretted by his family and friends; for many years a Magistrate of that County.

At Ballingarry, deservedly regretted, Mr. Thomas O'Grady, Pawnbroker.

At her residence in Catherine street, Miss Gayer, only sister of the late Edward Gayer, of this City.

At Upper William street, Miss Laurent, formerly well known in this City as a teacher of music and singing.

At his residence, Ahanboy, county Waterford, Samuel Paoli Drew, Esq. son of the late Dr. Drew, of Rockville, Fermoy.

Ellen, daughter of the late Denis O'Callaghan, of Glinn, county Cork, Esq. in the 90th year of her age.

George, eldest son of Thomas Roberts, Esq. of Cassino, county Cork, aged 26 years.

At Coolbagh House, county Waterford, William Crotty, Esq. Commander in Royal Navy, aged 75 years.

At Listowel, Clifford, wife of J. R. Rice, Esq. M.D.

At Park, near Kanturk, on Monday, James Moore, Esq. C.E. Bridget, wife of Stephen Bourke, Esq. Castlebar.

At the Presentation Convent, Douglas street, Cork, Brother Michael Augustine Riordan.

Jeremiah Coghlan, Esq. Chief Officer of Coast Guards at Ballycotton.

At Oxmantown place, Birr, Mary, relict of the late Richard Julian, Esq. at the age of 76.

At Baggot street, Lewis Wynne, of Stackcumnie, county Kildare, and formerly of the 19th Foot.

At Clonmel, Mrs. Catherine Guison.

Suddenly, at Piltown, Ready Anthony, Esq.

At Bushville, county Wexford, Miss Patty Jones.

In Wexford, Captain William Cousins.

In Kilkenny, of influenza, Mary, relict of the late Thomas H Egan, Esq. M.D.

At Altmore, Omagh, of disease of the heart, John Wilson, Esq. Solicitor, son of the late James Wilson, Esq. Clerk of the Crown for the county Tyrone.

At Park place, Island bridge, of typhus fever, the Rev. Richard Conolly, A.B. T.C.D. Curate of Saint James's parish.

At the residence of his sister, Upton, county Wexford, James Pearce, Esq.

At Keady, county Armagh, the Rev. Patrick Dugan, Roman Catholic Curate.

In Armagh, Matilda, relict of James Mulligan, Esq. Newry. At his father's residence, North Cumberland street, of consumption, the Rev. George Deery, Wesleyan Preacher.

At Portaferry, of consumption, Louisa, sister of the Rev. Thomas Leonard, Curate of Ardquin.

At Bath, at an advanced age, Miss Alice Ahmuty, niece of the late Right Hon. John Staples, and sister in law of John Swift, Esq. Upper Leeson street, Dublin.

In Cadogan Place, Elizabeth, wife of Lieut. Colonel Verner, and sister of the Dowager Marchioness of Donegal.

At Bonchurch, Isle of Wight, the Rev. William Adams, son of Mr. Serjeant Adams.

In Cavendish place, Brighton, Maria, daughter of the late Thomas Plaskett, Esq. of Clifford street.

At Powis Castle, the Right Hon. Edward Herbert, Earl of Powis, aged 63.

In Upper Seymour street, Connaught square, Henry Maddison Combe, only child of Sir Robert Hosford.

At Chesterton House, county of Gloucester, Devereux Bowly, Esq. aged 83.

At Sittingbourne, Kent, Helen, daughter of the late Sir Alexander Jardine, Bart.

At Stroud, Alice, wife of the Rev. T. Fletcher, and sister of the Rev. Dr. Bunting, for half a century a member of the Methodist Society.

At Southwell, Colonel Sherlock, late 4th D. G.

At Edinburgh, Major Neil Campbell, late of the 21st Bengal N. I.

At Guernsey, of influenza, Catherine, wife of Mr. George Hutton, pianoforte maker.

Lady Augusta Fielding, daughter of the Earl of Denbigh.

At Brecon, Thomas Batt, Esq. late surgeon of the Royal Fusiliers, and Coroner for the county of Brecon.

At Southampton, Julia Loveday, daughter of the late Lieut. Colonel Edward Mundy Wood.

At her house in Montague place, Bryanstone square, Elizabeth, relict of the late William Wheeler, Esq. aged 87.

William Humphris, Esq. late Governor of the Bristol gaol.

At Hermitage, Guernsey, Mr. Thomas Hunt, many years resident in the island. This gentleman had been blind 22 years.

At Hamilton, Upper Canada, George Perkins Bull, Esq. senior proprietor of the Hamilton Gazette, and one of the Coroners for the Gore district, aged 53.

At Quebec, Thomas Fargues, Esq. M.D. a distinguished scholar and eminent physician.

At St. Eustache, Canada, the Rev. Mr. Paquin.

At Toronto, James Chapman, Esq. aged 76 years, formerly of her Majesty's Customs, London.

At Montreal, on the 14th ult., Lieut. Colonel Selwyn, Royal Engineers, aged 54 years.

At Toronto, Fanny, wife of Major Muter, Royal Canadian Rifles, commanding the Garrison and Home District.

At Quebec, aged 78 years, the Hon. William Smith, formerly Clerk of the Legislative Council and member of the Executive Council, son of the late Chief Justice Smith, and brother in law of the late Chief Justice Sewell.

At Kingston, Richard Williams, Esq. M.D. late Surgeon 68th Light Infantry, in which he served twenty five years.

At Nassau, New Providence, Captain William Mark Campbell, 2d West India Regiment.