

The Rev. Standish O'Grady, P. P. of Adare, has been reported by Capt. the Hon. G. Yelverton, 64th Major-General Napier, of this district, for alleged denunciation of the Adare detachment at Chapel December, on complaint of six privates of that office company, then attending mass, the letter was forwarded to the Lord Lieutenant, and from his Excellency to the Rt. Rev. Dr. Ryan, who called upon the Rev. Mr. O'Grady for an explanation, which this clergyman has given in a long letter, declaring the charge to be "altogether false and slanderous," as he only warned the females of his flock against familiarities with soldiers. The correspondence shall appear in our next.

Captain Butler, of the Grenadiers of the 41st, commands the division now in St. John's barracks, in this City, comprising his own company and the two companies of Captains Wells and Hicks.

Lieut. Dixon, 41st, is gone on leave to Chester for a month.

Thursday morning, Captain Sutherland's company 92d, with Lieut. Duff, marched hence to Castletown, Palliskenry, to be stationed.

The company of the 68th Light Infantry left Elphin for Mullingar to join head quarters, yesterday, being relieved by one of same corps.

The dead body of a pensioner, named Maher, from the "Hurlers" was found in a field near Clonmonee, yesterday morning, with a handkerchief tied over his face. He was seen on his way home the night before.

The Chaplaincy of the Royal Military Asylum, Chelsea, vacant by the death of the Rev. George Clarke, is the gift of Field Marshal the Duke of Cambridge.

Col. Chatterton, C.B., 4th Dragoon Guards, Lord Cosmo Russell, 93d, Hon. R. Lawley, 2d Life Guards, Sir Edward Poore, Scots Fusilier Guards, Capt. Pack, Royal Artillery, Capt. Allen, King's Dragoon Guards, and Capt. Peel, 11th Hussars, are stewards for the grand military steeple chase meeting at Leamington on the 21st March.

Charles Vaughan Foss, Brevet Captain, is appointed Adjutant of the Royal North Cork Militia.