

DEATHS.

This morning, at his residence in Cecil street, to the deep affliction of a fond and affectionate wife, and the sincere regret of a numerous circle of friends, by whom he was held in high esteem, William Smyth, Esq. Sub Sheriff of the County—the duties of which office he faithfully discharged with satisfaction to all classes for many years. In his official capacity he was humane and charitable, considerate and obliging to all with whom he had dealings. Through life this much lamented gentleman performed the duties of a good Christian, and he died rejoicing in his SAVIOUR.

At Rathkeale Cottage, in this County, on the night of Tuesday, the 8th inst. aged 70 years, Susanna, the beloved wife of Captain Dolmage—deeply regretted by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

On the 9th inst. at Lisheen, county Tipperary, the seat of her father in-law, Anna, wife of Charles Lloyd, Esq. aged 72 years.

At Ennis, Mrs. Stacpoole, relict of Richard Stacpoole, Esq. late Lieut. 54th Regt.

On Saturday last, at the age of 14 years, deeply regretted by her brother and friends, Bessie, sister of Constable Parry, of Kilmurry. This interesting girl was an apprentice in Mr. Goggin's confectionery establishment, George's street.

Thomas, son of the late Thomas Herrick, Esq. of Cork.

At Tuam, in her 83d year, Anuastatia, relict of John Francis Browne, Esq.

At Brookville, Carysfort Avenue, aged 18 years, Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Rev. Robert Trail, D.D. Rector of Schull, county Cork.

In the 72d year of his age, Joseph Acton, Esq. of Bridgemount, county Mayo.

At Bayview, of malignant fever, William Bingham, Esq. for many years a magistrate of the county Mayo.

At Strand Hill, Cong, Elizabeth Georgina, daughter of Watkin William Roberts, Esq.

At Dundalk, the Very Rev. Doctor Coyne, many years Parish Priest of Dundalk.

Of fever, the Rev. George Foy, Presbyterian Minister of Scottstown, county Monaghan.

At Wheatfield, near Beliaast, suddenly, James Blair, Esq.

Rose, wife of James Edmond Scott, of Anne Grove Abbey, Queen's County, Esq. J.P. and sister of Sir Wheeler Cuffe, Bart.

Mrs. Frances Forster, of Killarney, Bray, widow of the late Rev. Andrew Forster.

At Elm Lodge, Drumcondra, W. Tassie, Esq. Supervisor of Works, Paving Board, in which department he was engaged for forty one years.

At Mountjoy square, Hessy, relict of James Magill, Esq. of Lochacray, county Down.

Esther, relict of the late Thomas Richfort, Esq. aged 96.

At New Sydney place, Bath, Esther, second daughter of Mr. M'Grath, of Rutland square, Dublin.

At the house of her uncle, Admiral Beaufort, Frances Maria, wife of Westock Peach Wilson, Esq. and daughter of the late Richard Lovell Edgeworth, Esq. of Edgeworthstown, county Longford.

At Hyde Park square, Major General R. L. Evans, C.B. Col. of the 37th Madras N.I. aged 65.

George Henry Lewis, Esq. of the Middle Temple, Barrister at Law.

At the Albany road, Camberwell, Charles Gibbs, Esq.

At Richmond Cottage, Rohais, Durell Blake, Esq. aged 27.

At Guernsey, Sophia Guille, wife of Mr. John Renouf.

In London, Mr. Belcner, of the Bankrupt Court.

Captain Lawlall, 24th L. Dragoons.
Captain Sir Geo. Young, Bart.
At St. Helena, the wife of Serjeant Iqn, St. Helena Corps.