DEATHS.

At Croome House, on Monday last, of malignant fever, in the bloom of youth and health, John, eldest son of James D. Lyons, Esq. D.L. The premature demise of this most excellent young gentleman will leave a blank in a large and highly respectable circle of friends and acquaintances, which will be long and deeply felt. To his afflicted parents and sorrowing relatives his loss is irreparable, and their only consolation now is, that, while in life, he discharged perfectly the duties of a Christian, a son, and a brother—leaving them thereby a well grounded hope that he will now, through the merits of his SAVIOUR, receive his reward. Gifted with high intellect and the most amiable temper and disposition, he acquired the respect and esteem of all who knew him, and in their hearts will his eulogy be found engraved.
