

D. Adams, Esq. of Great Yarmouth, to Marianne, daughter of Mr. C. M'Dowell, late of the Imperial, Cork.

DEATHS.

Monday evening last, at his residence, Athlaccá Glebe, near Bruff, the Rev. Robert Croker, Rector of Dromin and Athlaccá, and sixth son of the late Edward Croker, of Ballinacard, Esq. The demise of this excellent resident gentleman and good pastor has spread affliction throughout the union where he administered; for to all classes of people he was endeared to by his acts of liberality, kindness, and charity, upon every occasion where friend or neighbour required his advice or assistance.

Last night, William Hamo de Massy, Esq., of Glenwilliam, in this county, a young gentleman sincerely regretted by his friends and tenantry.

At Kilmallock, on Monday, the 23d inst. Daniel Harnett, Esq.—sincerely and deservedly regretted by all who knew him, leaving a widow and daughter to deplore his loss.

On Sunday evening, at his father's house, Thomas-street, to the lasting sorrow of his bereaved family, William, third son of William Bradshaw, Esq. His years were few, but in them he had acquired the knowledge and wisdom of maturity. He was ardently devoted to the medical profession, which he would have adorned, had it not pleased the Almighty to take to himself the noble and generous spirit whose removal will long be mourned by his many friends.

On the 2d inst. at the residence of his uncle, Daniel Blair, of Omagh, after a long illness, which he bore with Christian patience, Daniel, second son of the late John Blair, Esq. Pro-Collector of Excise, Limerick, aged 23 years.

On Friday night last, at Newcastle, in this County, James Canter, Esq. late of this City. A kind and sincere friend—an affectionate and fond husband—and a “truly honest man, the noblest work of God.” He departed this life after a short illness, with the deepest regret of all his friends and acquaintance. He conducted the Newcastle Mont-de-Piete, since its establishment in 1840, with zeal, ability, and integrity, to the utmost satisfaction of the shareholders; and his loss will be severely felt by the poor of that locality. His remains were interred in the family vault at Castle-Connell on Sunday last.

Yesterday morning, at his residence in Bridge-street, Mr. Thomas Ebriel, Sergeant-at-Mace, the duties of which office he discharged with integrity for nearly 20 years under the late Corporation, and six under the Town Council. In '93 he served under the late Lord Muskerry in the County Limerick Militia, and in '97 joined the City Militia, as non-commissioned officer, under the late Lord Gort. He was actively engaged in that corps during the disastrous disturbances of '98, and distinguished himself at the battle of Colony, for which he obtained a large silver medal, struck for that particular occasion, and a gift of the Corporation to the veterans engaged. His death is much regretted by all who knew him, and will be a severe loss to his relatives.

In Ennis, Miss Anne Kean, daughter of the late Pat Kean, Esq. of Nutfield.

At his residence, Rockville, Cork, Thomas Barry, Esq.

At Sunday's Well, Philip Rubie, Esq. late of Ardrum View.
