

DEATHS.

At his residence, Kilbeg, in this County, on the 23d inst. aged 41 years, Hugh Wheeler Scanlan, Esq. to the deep affliction of his widow and a numerous circle of relatives and friends. In his transactions in this life he won the good wishes of all, and has been removed from this transitory scene for a better world, in the sure and certain hope of a blessed immortality thro' CHRIST, our Redeemer.

Yesterday, after a short illness, at his house in William street, James P. Evans, of the Society of Friends—a gentleman unaffectedly regretted by his fellow citizens.

At Ballinacarriga, in this County, of fever, Mary Anne, daughter of James Enright, Esq.

On Tuesday, the 23d inst. of typhus fever, William Hamo de Massy, Esq. of Glenwilliam Castle, in this County, to the inexpressible grief of his wife and large circle of sorrowing friends.

At Newcastle, after a long illness, Mrs. Ellen Leahy.

At Bordeaux, aged 21, Harry, second son of Nathaniel Barton, and grandson of Hugh Barton, of Straffan, county Kildare, Esqrs.

At Drumming Park, Longford, the Rev. Dr. Wilkinson, Curate of Kilglass, diocese of Ardagh.

Mrs. Finn, wife of Mr. Anthony Finn, miller at Curragower Mills.

At Beaumont, county Meath, of fever, Joseph M'Can, Esq. Euphemia, daughter of the late Thomas Peyton Jones, Esq. High Park, county Sligo.

Maria Catherine, daughter of Falconer Miles, Esq. Lower Pembroke street.

At Clontarf, Dorothea, wife of William Adams-Trenor, Esq. M.D.

At Merrion, Francis Pickering.

John De Renzy, son of Abraham B. Manifold, Esq.

At her son's residence, Kilbeggan, aged 76, Mary, relict of the late Anthony Fallon, of Boyle, Esq.

At his residence, Sabina Fields, Rathfarnham, John Thos. Moran, Esq.

At his residence, Mount D'Alton, C. D. Begg, Esq. Mount D'Alton, county Westmeath, and Birch Abbey, Roscommon.

At Camden Town, Anna, widow of Francis Wheeler, Esq. of Ballywire, and niece to the late General Sir John Doyle.

At Bath, Mr. H. Field, the eminent pianist.

Richard Aylmer Haly, Esq. late Captain in the 18th Royal Irish Regiment, eldest son of Aylmer Haly, Esq. of Plumpton, Place, Essex.

At Grange Villas, Queen's road, Dalston, J. Bright, Esq. late cashier in the Bank of England.

At Torquay, Ellen, wife of Lewis P. Madden, Esq. M.D.

Amelia, daughter of the late B. Anstie, Esq. of Devizes.

At St. Helier's, Jersey, W. Cuming, Esq. Purser and Paymaster, Royal Navy.

At Inverness, of typhus fever, Mr. Andrew Fraser, better known by the soubriquet of Andrew Grogan, the poet.

At the Convent of Mercy, Nottingham, Sister Mary Gertrude Willson, niece of the Right Rev. Dr. Willson, Bishop of Hobart Town.

At St. Thomas in the Vale, Jamaica, George Price, Esq. formerly of Bennett's bridge, Kilkenny.

At Pisa, Italy, Fanny Cunningham, wife of Charles Cunningham, Esq. of Robertland, N.B. and daughter of the late Sir John Call, Bart. of Whiteford, Cornwall.

At Rome, of brain fever, Robert Eyre Todd, of Alpha road, Regent's Park, and of Datchet, Bucks, Esq. one of her Majesty's justices of the peace for Middlesex.

At St. John's, Upper Canada, Mr. Wm. Fitzgibbon, only son of Mr. John Fitzgibbon, aged 27 years.

At Kitley, Canada, John Brennan, Esq. J.P. of Brennanville.

In Montreal, James Kennedy, carpenter, aged 70, a native of King's County, Ireland.

At Sydney, N. S. Wales, Edward Hancock, Esq. formerly of the Stock Exchange.

At Hobart Town, Van Dieman's Land, aged 75, Cornelius Driscoll, Esq.

At Francis street, Catherine, widow of Mr. James Eyres Cabinet-maker.

DOW BLIND

I REQUEST Property of Limerick, at COUNTY COURT
propriety of P Parliament for Liberty to the Tax our Lands

May 27.

24
To be s ON

Several articles things distr

NEW

THE Vice Gu
assistant M
DAY, the 27th U
will receive applic
that day. Salary and rations.

Workhouse Of

450

FROM T

such

DRU

CONTAINING parish of In County Clare,

To be Let, from
NAGOTH, conta
½ a mile of the to
Also, to be Let,
of RUE, containi
parish of Kilmaco
Galway.

These are all G
quality, and are r
they have been
May, 1848.

Apply to Mic
Crusheen, County