DEATHS.

On Thursday last, at the residence of his father, Robert Twiss, of Cannon Lodge, near Castle-Connell, in the 28th year of his age, Rev. Arthur Ormsby Twiss, late senior Curate of St. John's Church, Cork, to the deep and lasting regret of his relatives and friends. This young clergyman fell a victim to the pious zeal with which he devoted himself to the arduous duties of his sacred office; and the incessant labours of the mission in a great populous city, wore down his physical strength, which at length sunk under the premature blow. No pastor could be more esteemed and beloved in the walk of his ministry; yet it may be consolation to his family that he has been called even thus early "to the bosom of his FATHER and his God."

This morning, in Mary street, after a short illness, Mary, wife of Mr. Samuel Brahan, tide waiter.
At Churchtown, on the 8th inst. to the deep regret of his family and friends, aged 16 years, Matthew Tierney, second son of the late Doctor Barry.
At Mallow, of consumption, Mary, daughter of the late James Ellis Knight, Esq. of Cork.
At the residence of her son, Wm. Power, Esq. Chairman of the Town Commissioners, Carrick-on-Suir, aged 84 years, Margaret, relict of the late Mr. Robert Power, and mother of John Power, Esq. of Mount Richard, and Edmund Power, of Tramore, Esq. J.P.
In Tuam, Margaret, wife of James French, Esq. of Frenchgrove.

Suddenly, in Cork, James Griott, Esq.
At Birr, Mr. Pat Navin.
Mr. Daniel Ryan, Halfway House, Tipperary.
Captain Allen, of the schooner Royal Eagle, at Waterford.
In Kilkenny, Elizabeth Mary, wife of B. M. Prentice, Esq. Bank of Ireland office.
At Cardistown, Kate, daughter of James Caraher, Esq. J.P.
At Peter street, Mr. Henry Brien, member of the Vintners' Society.

At Hampton Court Palace, the Hon. Mrs. Heneage Legge.
At Sladnar, Devonshire, the Rev. Elias Webb, Perpetual Curate of Sherborne, Warwickshire, aged 75.
Colonel William Sorell, formerly of the 43d Regiment, and late Lieut. Governor of Van Dieman's Land, aged 74.
Drowned, whilst bathing in the River Colne, Walter Scott, Esq. of Langley, Bucks, aged 23.
At Leamington, Mary Maria, only daughter of Captain Thursty, aged 17.
Suddenly, at Park street, Islington, Captain J. Marlow, half pay Royal Artillery.

At the College of Arms, P. Martin, Esq. F.S.A. Clarenceux King of Arms, aged 82.
At Lansdowne place, Leamington, Miss Anna Maria Manners Sutton, daughter of the late Archbishop of Canterbury. Beatumot, third son of the Hon. Captain Hotham, R.N. and the Lady Susan Hotham, in the 15th year of his age.
At Titchfield Terrace, Regent's Park, Lieut. General Jackson, R.A. sixth son of the late William Ward Jackson, of Normanby Hall, North Riding of Yorkshire, Esq.
At his residence, Plumstead, Captain William Frederick Burgoyne, R.N. only son of the late Lieut. General Sir John Burgoyne, Bart. of Sutton Park, Bedfordshire.
At Montreal, Benjamin Ansell, Esq.

At sea, on board the Penelope, steam frigate, Commander Reginald T. J. Levinge, son of Sir Richard and the Hon. Lady Levinge, of Knockdrin Castle, county Westmeath.
Lost, in August last, at the mouth of the Canton River, Captain James Peirse, of the ship Cusejee Cowasjee; Augustus Henry Peirse, Esq. first officer of the ship; also, at Omer, Douglas Hamilton Peirse, Esq.

of gratitude which I feel, and which was with great reluctance I parted from amongst so many friends and supporters, to practice my profession, I trust, in a wider field; but allow me to assure you that wherever placed I shall fondly look back upon this testimonial of your friendship, and reciprocate your kind wishes for my welfare, hoping that happiness and prosperity shall await upon you.
I am, gentlemen,
Your much obliged friend,
P. MURRAY, V.S.
