

TAYLOR,
Secretary.

June 17.

ance
A R M E R S . ell

ne surrounding g on a principle
One and Two-of which he has
d in England.
ring strength of ution, enables rms, as well as rest satisfaction has never given

SE MACHINE, nd satisfactory
red Machines at of their perfeccription of Ma-asing power.

M SOUTHWELL, e promptly atrous Gentlemen onage.

June 10.

EL,

ED for the Seathe Steamers at

OOORE'S HOTEL,

men tattached to

June 3.

OO,

T,

T THE RATE OF M,

be called in for nctually paid.
itor, 29 Roche's-
d-quay, Dublin, being satisfied as borrower.

June 10.

DEATHS.

Suddenly, at his house in Castlemartyr, James Pratt Rose, Esq. late Captain 66th Regiment, aged 56 years.

Of typhus fever, in Waterford, William Denis, Esq. eldest son of the late Colonel Denis, formerly of the 9th and 13th Dragoons.

At the residence of her uncle, in Thomond-gate, after a lingering illness, Miss Anne Hodge.

Mr. Patrick Hanly, John-street, grocer.

On Sunday last, Eliza, the beloved wife of Mr. Jonathan Switzer, New Clarina.

At the King's Island, Ann, aged seven years, daughter of Mr. Thomas Nolan.

In Rathkerry, county Clare, Bridget, wife of Mr. Maurice Harvey.

At O'Brien's Castle, Miss Maria Silver, daughter of the late Mr. Martin Silver.

On her way from London, at her brother's residence, near Limerick, Catherine, wife of Charles Staunton Cahill, Esq.

At Sunville, Kilgarvan, in the 22d year of his age, John O'Connell M'Carthy, Esq. only son of Florence M'Carthy.

At North Great George street, Dublin, Fanny Trophus, daughter of Owen Mansfield, Esq.

At Ballyrahine, aged 24 years, Catherine, daughter of the late Henry Chamney, Esq.

In the seventh year of her age, Elizabeth Agnes, eldest child of John Herbert Orpen, of South Frederick street, Barrister at Law.

At his residence, Greenmount, near Belfast, Hill Charley, Esq.

At Crofton Terrace, Kingstown, Grizell Maria, daughter of the late Thomas Bradshaw, Esq. of Milecross, county Down.

On the City quay, aged 23 years, Miss Margaret Hannay, late of Ayr.

At her residence, Suffolk square, Cheltenham, Miss B. Blakeney, sister of the Rt. Hon. Sir Edward Blakeney, commanding the forces in Ireland.

At his residence, Kenwood Cottage, Norwood, Richard Burges, Esq. son of the late John Henry Burges, Esq. of Parkanour, county Tyrone.

At Antermony House, near Glasgow, G. Macintosh, Esq. of Campsie and Dunchattan, eldest son of the late C. Macintosh, Esq. F.R.S.

In Clifford street, Lady Mary Montgomerie, daughter of Archibald, eleventh Earl of Eglintoun, and wife of Sir Charles Lamb, Bart.

At the residence of Major Slade Gully, in Cornwall, Captain James Hutchinson, on the half pay of the 87th Fusiliers.

At Hackney, Lydia, relict of the Rev. H. C. O'Donoghue.

In Brunswick place, Anne, w. fe of Ennis Chambers, Esq.

At his residence at Charing cross, Thomas Oliver, Esq.

At Edinburgh, Eleanor, relict of Lieut. Colonel J. J. M'Nair, K.H. formerly of the 52d, and afterwards of the 73d Foot, and daughter of the late Dr. Stansen, Bishop of Nova Scotia.

William Capel Clayton, Esq. late of the Coldstream Guards.

At Witham, Essex, Eliza, wife of Thomas Butler, Esq.

At Merton College, Oxford, Humphrey Ashley Sturt, aged 21 years, son of Mr. and Lady Charlotte Sturt.

At Aston Hall, Warwickshire, aged 80 years, James, last surviving son of the celebrated James Watt.

At George street, Euston square, Simon Saunders, Esq.

At Basle, in Switzerland, Anne, eldest daughter of the late John Helsham, Esq. of Kilkenny, and relict of Major Cane, 5th Dragoon Guards.

On his passage from New Orleans, in his 21st year, Edward Sarsfield, son of the late Thomas J. Kelly, Esq. of Hainstown, county Louth.

At Cape Town, Clerke Burton, Esq. Registrar of the Supreme Court.

At Isle-aux-Noix, Staff Assistant Surgeon Matthew, in medical charge of that post.

At Quebec, Amelia Harriet, daughter of Jas. Prendergast, Esq. of H.M. Customs, aged 22 years.