

to Agnes, daughter of the late Mr. F. Crozier, of Dulwich.

At the British Embassy, Paris, by the Very Rev. Archdeacon Keating, Henry, second son of Sir Robert Howe Bromley, Bart. to Charlotte Frances, youngest daughter of Colonel Rolleston, M.P.

DEATHS.

This morning, at his house, Glentworth street, Robert Bevan, Esq., Attorney-at-Law.

On Thursday last, at his seat, Newtown, county Clare, Mrs. Welsh, the beloved wife of the Rev. Richard Welsh—a most exemplary partner, devoted mother, and sincere friend.

In Patrick street, yesterday morning, Mr. John Hastings, having only survived his mother three days.

Mr. Nicholas Howley, of the Coast Guard Service, Killybegs.

At Killybegs, Dr. Carroll O'Grady, of fever.

At Belvidere Terrace, Cove, Mary Catherine, daughter of Richard Bourne, Esq.

At Port of Spain, Trinidad, on the 19th ulto. the Rev. Solomon Frost, Colonial Chaplain, and late a Roman Catholic Priest of this diocese.

At his father's residence, Sandymount Strand, Robert Salmon, Esq., aged 23 years.

At Gort, in the 72nd year of his age, James M. Burke, Esq.

In Cove, Miss Weekes.

At Clonmel, of fever, aged 17 years, Eliza, daughter of Mr. John Moore Mulcahy.

At the residence of her son, Captain Despard, Killybegs, co. Down, suddenly, Eliza, relict of the late Lieut. Col. William Despard, Royal Fusiliers.

In North Cumberland street, Miss Barber.

In Charlotte street, Ellie, daughter of James F. Carroll, Solicitor.

At Bishop street, Samuel Henry, son of Mr. G. S. Downes.

At her house, Great Britain street, Susanna, relict of the late Mr. Patrick Redmond.

In London, Mary, widow of the late Lt. Col. Bevan.

H. R. Rogers, of the Consol-office, Bank of England.

At his residence in Shirbeck quarter, Challis Sheath, Esq. in his 73d year.

Doctor Carruthers, Queen's Own Infantry Militia.

At Penzance, John Vigurs, Esq. in his 70th year.

At Richmond, Surrey, Major General Sir James Fullerton Dundas, Bart.

At Boxgrove Vicarage, Sussex, Archdeacon Webber, Canon Residentiary of Chichester.

At Epping, Mrs. Price, relict of Dr. John Price, Physician to her Majesty's forces.

At Paris, Martha, wife of Mr. James M'Evoy, late of Bermuda.

On his passage from Calcutta, C. F. H. Barlow, Esq. M.D. Assistant Surgeon 50th Regiment, son of the late John Barlow, Esq. Bushy Park, county Roscommon.

At Naples, the Rev. Wm. Barnes.

At Cape Coast Castle, of fever, Captain G. Losack, 1st West India Regiment.

On board the ship Selina, while proceeding to Calabar, on the coast of Africa, as surgeon of that vessel, John Mitchel, Esq. M.D. eldest son of the late Henry Mitchel, of Cootehill, Esq. formerly Lieutenant in the 8th Royal Irish Hussars.

Brew never contented terms, at least in terms. With regard to Mr. means resorted to not the slightest sort would be all creditable to my fr generally known the constitutional, save feelings of the people Mr. Brew's rushing geons, and led on by "ingenious fabrications the magistrates and g nion, I am sure they the election a perfect

With respect to I dearly purchased situation unlooked for act of state that whatever contemplated bringing the free and independent

I cannot but feel allusions, and so far "silent contempt," of returning my wa done more than ample

Mr. Brew has fallen that "any feeling" least on my part. I towards him or any o in the entire of his le dictiveness unpardon wish to come within tion. I can make a writhing under the in regard as the result of little personal allusion tured nonchalance ev lity of my election. that Mr. Brew should his "many mistakes without at least point public.

I am, Mr, E

Kilkee, June 23.