

At Secunderabad, Captain Gardner, 50th Madras Native Infantry, to Magdalena, daughter of the late Colonel Mein 74th Regiment.

At Calcutta, Mr. J. M'Carthy, to Harriet, eldest daughter of the late Major Martin.

DEATHS.

At Castlevew, in this county, on the 25th inst. Thomas Locke, Esq. J. P., eldest son of the late Rev. Thomas Locke, after a short and painful illness, which he bore with Christian fortitude and patience. His loss will be severely felt in this county, and, especially, in that neighbourhood, which witnessed his daily labours in the cause of the suffering poor. His friends sorrow not, as those without hope—being assured that he is now "Resting in Jesus," his own oft repeated expression during his illness.

On Saturday, at his residence in William-street, after a long illness, aged seven years, Louisa, youngest daughter of George Jackson, Esq.—an interesting and engaging child.

On Monday, at Upper Glentworth-street, at an advanced age, Miss Ann Nash—sincerely and deservedly regretted.

At Buttevant, on the 27th instant, after a few days illness, deeply regretted by the officers and non-commissioned officers of the corps, Quarter-master Serjeant Thomas Newton, 41st Regiment. He has left a wife and two infant children to deplore his loss.

Richard Woods, Esq. of Parsonstown, King's County.

At Kilrush, the wife of Mr. David Comyn.

At Spring Hill, county Mayo, Jane Anne, eldest daughter of Thomas Goodwin, Esq.

At Miltown Malbay, of fever, Mr. James Hill, Apothecary.

At Valentia, Catherine, daughter of John Spottiswood, Esq. Saturday last, at Rossbeigh, Stephen O'Reardon, Esq.

Gortree, Killarney, one of the coroners for Kerry.

Mary, wife of Mr. Peter Kennedy, Clerk of the Dingle Union.

At Galway, aged 80 years, Mr. Theobald Burke.

At Castlereagh, Edward Dillon Fitzgibbon, Esq.

At Maryborough, Mrs. Crook, wife of the Rev. W. Crook, Wesleyan Minister.

In Enniscorthy, Mary, wife of Mr. J. O'Meagher, proprietor of Edenyne House Academy, Enniscorthy.

Mr. Joseph Madden, for many years a respectable merchant of Dublin.

Thomas Potter, son of the late Jephson Potter, Esq. M. D.

At his residence, North Great George's street, John White, Esq. Solicitor.

Parke, son of Parke Neville, Esq. C. E. York street.

At her residence, at Birkenhead, after her confinement, the beloved wife of William Crowe, Esq.

At North Great George's street, John White, Esq. solicitor.

Robert Henry Church, Esq. for many years an inhabitant of the island of Grenada, and a native of Maghera, county Londonderry.

In Normandy, the Very Joseph Killian, late Vicar Provincial of the Order of St. Francis, in Ireland.

In London, Capt. R. L. Cornelius, R. A.

At Downton, Radnorshire, Mary Sarfield, daughter of Sir William Cockburn, in the 17th year of her age.

At Cheltenham, in her 86th year, Lady Pepys, relict of the late Sir Lucas Pepys, Bart.

Suddenly, Maria, wife of Captain George Hillier, R. N. of Cheltenham.

At Glasgow, T. Adam, Esq. late merchant, Glasgow.

At Pinchbeck, L. Browne, Esq. deputy lieutenant.

At Bryanston square, Sophia Frances, wife of P. D. P. Duncombe, Esq. of Brickhill Manor, Bucks.

At Glasgow, Percy Foster, Paymaster of Northern District.

At the house of her father, in Eaton place, Gertrude Catherine, daughter of the Hon. C. E. Law, M. P. Recorder of London, aged 19.

George Norwich, eldest son of Norwich Duff, Esq. Captain Royal Navy.

At the Cavalry Depot, Maidstone, Fanny, wife of Colonel Charles Middleton.

At Highfield, near Southampton, Harriet Louise, the wife of Lieut. Colonel Eyre John Crabbe, K. H. late 74th Regiment, daughter of the late James Crabbe, Esq. of Shidfield, Hants.

At Stonely, Kimbleton, Capt. F. Welstead, R. N.

At Devonport, Harriet, wife of Captain Rinnington, R. E.

At Stonehouse, Thomas Leopold Belcher, M. D. late of the 51st King's Own Light Infantry.

Suddenly, the Rev. G. Payne, LL. D. for 20 years principal of the Western College at Exeter and Plymouth. He preached on the Sunday evening previous at Mount street Chapel, Devonport, and next morning was found dead in his bed.

At Portobello, near Edinburgh, Lieut. Colonel C. H. Bell, late of the Bengal Artillery.

At Portsea, of consumption, Lieut. Arthur Doyle.

Anna Matilda Distin, wife of Mr. John Distin, the celebrated Sax horn performer

Lost at sea, Captain William Norris D'Arcy, eldest son of P. J. D'Arcy, Esq. of Dublin.

Friday, of fever, Denis O'Connor, a pensioner at 1s 4d per day from the 48th Regiment, and of the Limerick Enrolled Veteran Companies.

[A cotemporary erroneously premised the death of Dr. O'Grady, Kildysart, who is recovering from his recent illness]

(TO CLOSE AN ADMIN

ON SATURDAY NEXT

AT

LIMERICK HORSE

Precisely at

A BAUTIFULLY finished Dublin, in thoro' repair Patent axles, Lamps, &c., requiring such 120 guineas, the least reserve. Also a compass, Brass Mounted, quite

Who is authorised to account any reasonable time for security.

96, George-st

Limerick Horse

ON SATURDAY

THE 1ST

Will be worth the attendant

HORSES, VEHICLE

As the Entries are very n

Superior De

Catalogues will be out on at Mr. Hartigan's Office, Ce

96, George's-street.

GRE

Southern and

RAILWAY

Open to Limerick

THE Public are informed next, a Further Extension Opened to the Junction with LIMERICK RAILWAY, which way communication between TIPPERARY.

By Order,
WILLIAM

Dublin, 3, College green,
June 28, 1848.

TO BE

John Horan, lessee of Hugh Palliser Hickman, Esq. also lessee of several others
Plaintiff.
John Canny, Esq.
Defendant.

common estimation, 13 Acres, be the same more or less demised by LUKE HICKMAN, CANNY, also deceased, and of the Defendant, John Canny, or assigns, which Lands are in Bunratty and County of Clare. Proposals to be addressed to HICKMAN, Esq. Tenby, South thereof to CHARLES STUDDER, Newmarket-on-Fergus.

JAMES HOGAN, of Smithston

The Tenant or Tenants v security for the giving up of the expiration of the six months, redemption of the land.