

DEATHS.

At the residence of her son, Francis Blake Knox, Esq. of Bartra, near Dalkey, Sarah Knox, aged 76 years, wife of the late John Knox, Esq. of Summer Hill, Dublin.

At Colombkill, county Kilkenny, Charles Flood, Esq. of the Society of Lincoln's Inn, and brother to William Flood, Esq. J.P. of Paulstown Castle.

In Cork, of gastric fever, Robert Henry, eldest son of John Watson Robinson, Esq. late Captain 9th Foot.

On Sunday last, at Amigan, in this County, the Rev. Maurice Hogan, P.P. of Croagh, of which he was the zealous and exemplary pastor for 42 years. This esteemed and much regretted Clergyman was 47 years on the mission, and was beloved by his parishioners.

In Ennis, Mr. Michael Daly, corn merchant.

In Ballinasloe, Maria, eldest daughter of the late Michael Brookes, Esq.

At Smarmore, county Louth, Randal, eldest son of George Taaffe, Esq.

At Lismore, Master Walter Bible, aged 13 years.

William Henry, fourth son of James M'Kenny, Esq. of Beresford Place.

At Williamstown, Richard M'Intosh, Solicitor, Charlemont Mall.

At Donoughmore, county Tyrone, Anna, eldest daughter of the Rev. Archibald Hamilton.

Mr. Charles Reilly, of the firm of Reilly and Sons, Westmorland street.

At his residence, Abbey street, Moses Kenny, Esq. merchant.

At his residence, Dolphin's barn, Mr. John Brophy.

At Torquay, the Dowager Viscountess Bolingbroke.

At Gillingham, Kent, Georgina Eliza, daughter of the late Captain Harry Gough Ord, Royal Artillery, of Bexley, Kent.

Thomas Tracy, Esq. of Bridgetown, Totnes.

At Waye House, Ashburton, Harriet Jane, daughter of Sir Mathew Blackiston, aged 24 years.

At Morden Rectory, Salop, Mary Anne Sophia, only daughter of the late Captain W. Flint, R.N. aged 25.

At Tilford House, Farnham, Surrey, Major Francklyn, of the Madras Army.

At Swansea, Martin Bevan, Esq.

At Jersey, the Rev. Horace Lewis Knight Bruce, Rector of Abbotsham, Devonshire, eldest son of the Vice Chancellor Knight Bruce.

At Hampstead, Harriet Isabella Katherine, wife of Major Duncan Montgomerie, of Hamilton Terrace, St. John's Wood.

In London, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Mathew Strang, Parliamentary Reporter.

At Hutton House, near Hounslow, John Petto, Esq. in his 77th year.

At Warnham Court, near Horsham, William Fuller, Esq. of Upper Tooting, of the firm of Messrs. Child & Co. in his 92d year.

In Guernsey, Frederick Price, Esq.

Saturday, at his house, Thomas-street, after a short illness, Godfrey Bevan, Esq. a gentleman deservedly beloved and regretted. His life was formed upon principles of the strictest integrity and feelings of expansive benevolence, and to those he devoted himself conscientiously and faithfully. In the family and social circle Mr. Bevan will be long and sincerely deplored by relatives and friends.

At Coole Abbey, Elizabeth, wife of H. Peard, Esq.

M'AULIFFE
HAS received instructions
of Newcastle, to sell
Auction, at the

CITY SALES

120, GEORGE'S-STREET

On FRIDAY, the

AT 12 O'CLOCK

His select and valuable Lib
all the best and latest editions,
tion. Catalogues may be ha
LEDGER, Bookseller, George's

M'AULIFFE,

Aucti

120,

This well selected collection
no recommendation, the w
scientific acquirements of Mr.
guarantee to purchasers.

Waterford and Railway

NOTICE

BOHER STATION

ON and after Monday the Station at Boher Bridge Traffic.

The Week Day Trains will

For Limerick at 10 0

" " " 2 0

" " " 7 40

ON SUNDAY

For Limerick at 10 A.M., &

FARE

1st. class 1s. 4d., 2d. class

Tipperary, Clonmel Kilkenny

8 15 A.M., Train for

Passengers can proceed by Train from Limerick, changin
tion, for Tipperary, where th

By Or

WILLIAM

Limerick 15th July, 1848.