

Society, held in acknowledges £1 damore, for the rphan Society to Maude, Esq. for This donaiont is nevolent English
total amount of
riod, to one inte-
usly does Divine
ers in every time
nd act upon the
ty 1. Mr. Massy
rant of 6 cwt. of
for his suffering
Friends.

Croom, is pro-
his County, vice
a mass before the s stolen off the ny.
y, struck a new
pound. Nenagh
a new rate 1s 3d
families, receiv-
on, are required
ay next, for inuardians.
asloe union for list employed at will be turned to Galway sold by pork.
Cork at 6s. per f whisky. The allon!
n in Castlebar,
gone on leave of Captain Far-

At St. Pancras Church, by the Rev. George Pocock, Stewart son of the late Major James Gibson, formerly on the Irish Staff, to Eliza, daughter of John Barnes, Esq. of Tavistock Place.

Godschall Frederick Johnson, Esq. son of Godschall Johnson, Esq. British Consul at Antwerp, to Frances Beckford, daughter of the late Major General Yeates.

DEATHS.

On Thursday morning, at the house of her son-in-law, R. W. Brereton, Esq. Lower Mallow-street, Mary Barry, relict of the late James Barry, Esq. of Rockstown, in this County—a lady who, in the several relations of life, as wife, a fond mother, and friend, was deservedly esteemed and beloved. She died in full assurance upon the merits of her Redeemer, and sincerely lamented by a large circle of friends.

On Wednesday, at Monkstown, county Cork, deeply lamented by his family, Captain John Willington Shelton, J.P. of Rossmore, in this County, formerly of the 28th Regt.; in which he served through the Peninsular campaign and at Waterloo.

July 19th, at High Park, county Tipperary, Margaret, only surviving sister of the late Rev. John Hunt, Rector of Toem, and daughter of the late Vere Hunt, Esq. of Friarstown, in this County.

In Dublin, Thomas Henry Lloyd, Esq. in the 63d year of his age.

At Clontarf, Isabella, only daughter of Wm. Adams Trenor, Esq. M.D.

At his residence, Kill Abbey, county Dublin, Wm. Espinasse Esq. in the 80th year of his age.

At Parsonstown, Janet, wife of Mr. George Meikle.
Eliza, relict of the late Wm. O'Regan, Esq. of Cork.

At Larkvale, county Galway, in her 87th year, Mrs. Staunton, relict of Richard Staunton, Esq. formerly of Newhall, in that county.

At Harrymount, county Down, aged 82 years, Henry Courtenay, Esq.

At the Parsonage, Portaferry, George, second son of the Rev. J. L. M. Scott, Chancellor of Down.

In London, aged 78 years, Catherine, widow of General Henry Williams.

At Beaufoy Terrace, Maida Vale, Lieut. John Rhodes, 19th Regt.

At Woolwich, Amelia, wife of Mr. T. W. Miller, of Devonport dockyard.

At Leamington Spa, Court Granville, Esq. Deputy Lieutenant of the counties of Warwick and Stafford.

At Montague square, Alexander William Stewart Knox Lawrence, only son of Lieut. Colonel Lawrence, 5th Madras Cavalry, aged 19 years.

At Kennington, Frances, wife of W. Leacock, Esq. formerly of Madeira.

At Greenwich, Captain Christopher Kymer, H.C.S. aged 81.

At East Bergholt Lodge, Suffolk, Sarah Perring, relict of the Rev. Sir Richard Hughes, Bart.

At the Rectory, Enborne, the Rev. Charles Thos. Johnson,

At Croom's Hill, Greenwich, Margaret, relict of the late Mathew Isacke, Esq. aged 75 years.

At Vichy, in France, after a short illness, Sir Joseph De Courcy Laffan, Bart. of Otham, Kent.

At Lismore, Master Walter Bible, aged 12 years.