

DEATHS.

In John-street, Mr. Thomas Welsh, son of the late Thomas Welsh, Esq. proprietor of the Munster Journal.

At Gravesend, Helena, aged three years, the interesting daughter of Staff Surgeon Smith, and grand daughter of Major Maunsell, Plassy.

At Sunday's Well, Cork, of apoplexy, in his 58th year, George Sharp, Esq.

At his house, Bridge street, Cork, at an advanced age, Dr. Daly, an eminent medical practitioner.

At Harbour Hill, Cove, in her 16th year, Eliza Anne, eldest daughter of the late Mr. John Rice, of Cork.

In Bandon, of rapid consumption, Robert, third son of the late Mr. William Barry.

At Roscrea, Henry Powell, Esq. M.D. Assistant to Roscrea Fever Hospital, and Physician to the Workhouse and Dispensary.

At Westport, county Mayo, Maryann Adderley Bernard, wife of Clayton Love Hingston, Esq. Comptroller of Customs, and daughter of the late Rev. John Hingston, of Bandon.

At Parsonstown, Gertrude, second daughter of the late Richard Kearney, Esq. of Kearneyville, King's County.

At Waterford, Mr. Samuel Smith.

At Westport, Mary, wife of Robert Edwards, Esq. Officer of Excise, aged 42 years.

In Tralee, Mr. Maurice Collins.

At Parsonstown, Thomas Goodbody, in his 66th year.

At Waltham Terrace, Robert Essex, son of H. Burge, Esq. of Herbert Place.

At Virgemont, suddenly, William Stoker, Esq. M.D. formerly of York street.

At Newcastle, county Down, at the seat of his daughter, the Countess of Annesley, in his 86th year, Hugh Moore, Esq. formerly Captain in the 5th Dragoon Guards.

At the Glebe, Tashinny, co. Longford, the Rev. N Gosselin.

At Glasnevin, Henry Maxwell Purcell, Esq. of the Commissariat Department, second son of the late Wm. Purcell, Esq. of her Majesty's Customs.

Alexander Frederick, second son of Alexander Parker, Esq. of Rathmines.

In Blessington street, Howard Cooke, Esq.

At Great Britain street, of consumption, Mary, wife of F. B. Russell, Esq.

At Hollyport, county Wexford, Mr. James Bolton.

In Sackville street, Mr. Alexander Thompson, aged 69.

At Longford, Georgina, daughter of Alexander Dwyer, Esq.

At Speenhamland, near Newbury, aged 64, J. M. Bunny, Esq. M.D. formerly of the 76th Regt

At Tredegar square, Elizabeth, relict of Captain James Stranack.

At Palace gate, Exeter, Miss Elizabeth Lewis, sister of the late James Lewis, Esq. formerly Speaker of the House of Assembly of Jamaica, aged 63.

At Purneah, of fever, the Hon. Frederick Drummond, aged 26 years.

At Camberwell, John Hopkins Radford, District Surgeon, H. P. Medical Staff, aged 84.

At Albert street, Regent's Park, Benjamin West, Esq. son of the late Benjamin West, President of the Royal Academy.

In Upper Ebury street, Charles Swann, Esq. of the Inner Temple.

At Norland Terrace, Notting Hill, in his 42d year, the Rev. Edward Owen, late Curate of Gawsworth, Cheshire.

Mr. John Brunton, comedian, father of the well known actress, Mrs. Yates, and brother to the Dowager Countess of Craven, in his 74th year.

At Roslin Cottage, Counter Hill, New Cross, Capt. Joseph Short, formerly of the East India service.

At North Crescent, Bedford square, Mary Anne, daughter of the late Lieut. Col. James Boott, of Loughborough, Leicestershire.

At Bath, Charles Alexander, Esq. late of Littleton House, Wilts.

At Paris, Admiral Honeyman.

At Calais, Maine, Elizabeth, wife of Joshua Veasey, Esq.

At Montreal, Amelia Kingston, aged 66 years, relict of the late Edward Howell, Esq. of the county Cork.

In Montreal, Martha, third daughter of the late Mr. John Borbridge, hat manufacturer, recently of Gorey, Wexford.

At Montreal, Mrs. Elizabeth Greig, many years a resident of Quebec.

At Uitenhage, Cape of Good Hope, James Neil Rishton, Esq. late Captain in the Cape Mounted Rifles.

At Poona, William Jackson Young, Esq. fifth son of the late Sir Samuel Young, Bart. of Formosa, Berks, aged 39.

At Murzapore, Bengal, Captain Stewart, 61st Regt.

At Umballa, Bengal, Captain E. Cormick, Paymaster of the 3d Light Dragoons.

the proper tribunal (our misconduct of our highly p not intend to trouble myself gentleman.

That the Grand Jury m charge against their paid S very probable (the charge but the inference Mr. Kear decorous mode of proceed himself all powerful, and responsibility or control, a his situation under them therefore becomes the mo taxed Rate-payers should of one for whose impartial

The facts I charge Mr. I simple, relieved from all charge him with "gross p discharge of his duty as ou

After Mr. Kearney failed this ruinous new road, du of public works, he subse sought to obtain it at a Presentment, to "lay out a new road. Being there the job in June last, seek unfinished road, in the mo under a temporary Act wi being an Act merely for n which he and others left i state; thus trying to get any means. I should be a little of that "self re "he so highly values."

Had Mr. Kearney disch of selecting this one soli and he should have retur remained unfinished," wh old Ennis high road, clo get it made safe and pass in so dangerous a statu upset there, and, I belie would have been his leg besides the advantage of from partisanship and jo

Mr. Kearney asserts prepare materials necessi pation of the work bein be clearer, even from hi never was commenced, neighbourhood, tho' in to impose it on the Ma unfinished road, seekin useful Act to such gros injustice—conduct whic high minded and honor Limerick will sanction.

Mr. Kearney's silly a partisanship will do n entire of my charge aga fest partisanship. Wh "justice and impartial functionary, and shall sanship, pecculation, them, and shall not b fear of displeasing our

London, 2d August