

Kenny.

It is in contemplation to publish some of the invaluable remains of the lamented Professor Butler, literary and theological, under the editorship of his intimate friend, the Rev. Thomas Woodward, curate of Fethard.

The Rev. Godfrey Massy gratefully acknowledges the receipt of £4 from the Rev. James R. Pears, and £1 from Mrs. Lillingston, for the Protestant Orphan Society also a generous contribution of work for the Ladies' Bazaar, to be held on the 24th and 25th inst.

Six hundred children made their first communion at St. Michael's chapel, on Saturday, out of 1,520 who received confirmation.

The Rev. Dr. Ryan held a confirmation at The Monigate-gate chapel on Monday, when 450 pauper children from the workhouse were admitted to that rite. The preparatory instruction of these children was highly to the credit of the late schoolmistress, Miss O'Brien, as appeared by the answering on this occasion.

The Priests of the Deanery of Listowel have presented an address to Capt. Spark, R.N., on his resignation of the office of Poor Law Inspector to the above union, and assuring him of their prayers and gratitude for his benevolent labours there.

Miss Martir, niece of the Rev. D. Mahony, P.P. took the veil at Listowel Nunnery, on Tuesday.

A man named Bolds, from Boher, who met with an accident while at work on the railway about a week since and was under treatment in the County Infirmary, died yesterday while being conveyed home by his friends, contrary to the wishes of Dr. Parker, medical attendant.

Committed to the county gaol by Michael Gallwey, Esq.—John Bourke, charged with being of an armed party who robbed her Majesty's mail on the 5th August last. By his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant—Garrett Carmody, charged with being concerned in treasonable practices. By the magistrates at Limerick petty sessions—Thomas Cantlea, charged with deserting from the 95th Regt.; Thomas Riordan, charged with burglary and robbery; Michael Murnane, charged with larceny; Patrick Cunneen, to pay 6s 6d or 14 days imprisonment; and Michael Cunneen to pay 11s 6d or two months imprisonment for obstructing a public officer in the execution of his duty. By Ballingarry petty sessions—Michael Quin, having a canvass bag, part of the property stolen from the mill of Patrick Carroll.

By the Askeaton petty sessions—Patrick Mulqueen and Michael Sheehy, charged with assaulting the dwelling of James Bridgeman on the night of the 29th Sept. and searching it for fire arms. By Kilmallock petty sessions—Patrick Kenny and Michael Keefe, charged with having four lambs and one sheep, stolen from David Leahy and John Gaffney. By the Charleville

and abound image of H walk in Hi hands of a respected Mausell, l Dragoons, of her daug
of Ashill To Massy. He John's Chur

Monday
years, to th
relict of th
rick Saving

At Bright
late Commi
At Dunm that town.

Mr. Thom
At Ballin
In Dublin
At Woodb

the late Pat Kilkenny.

At Wilso
of Waterfor
At White
T.C. brother foundland.

At Canal
Barrister.
At his res
Tate, Esq.

Suddenly Esq. son of
At Nn Lin
Matilda,

At Ports
late Collect At Knepp
Burrell, eld sister of the

At his ho Lieut. Gene and son of

At Cheite
At Monm
At Souths
At Dunde

N. M. Bu
At St. Ag
At Plymo
At Bright

Peel, in his
At Bright
At High V

W. White,
At Ipswic
In Fitzro
Lieutenant

At Bradw daughter of
At Malto
At Dacca,

Civil Servic
At Madric
for Columb
At Bomba
26th Regim