

DEATHS.

On Saturday last, at Spring House, county Tipperary, the seat of her brother, Simon Low, Esq. deeply and deservedly regretted by all who knew her. Anna, only surviving daughter of the late John Low, Esq. aged 21.

On the 1st inst. in the 62nd year of his age, Mr. Gerald O'Connor, of Knockardacallan and Cluencies, in this County. In him were united those qualities most estimable in man, of whatever station in society. Foremost in the sphere in which he was born, he would have occupied the same station in the highest one, had his lot in life been cast there. His integrity, loyalty, and honesty, were never impeached; and it is sorrowing to know that in him is now gone one of the few remaining links, alas! which bind together by ties, far dearer than those of self interest, the higher and middle classes of this distracted country.

On Wednesday last, Mr. Archibald Macintosh, mate of the schooner "Ann," of Limerick, from privations, in consequence of the wreck of said vessel.

At Mount William, near Cork, Letitia Eleanor, only child of Jasper E. Lucas, of Ring, in that county, Esq. and grand daughter of the late Henry Hamilton Cox, of Dunmanway, Esq.

In Cork, aged 74 years, Matthew Lamert, Esq. M.D. Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals, father of Capt, Lamert, 78th Highlanders.

At Carlton Terrace, Rathmines, the relict of John Reed, Esq. of Dame street, formerly High Sheriff of Dublin.

At his residence in Helles street, Ebenezer Hore Hatchell, Esq. Barrister at Law.

In Great Brunswick street, at the house of her son in law, Dr. Duke, Maria, wife of Robert Rawson, Esq. of Glassealy, county Kildare.

In Upper Leeson street, Joanna, wife of Edward Cooney, Esq.

At Killycolp, Dungannon, Mary, wife of H. A. Griffith, Esq.

At the residence of her niece, Mrs. Monserrat, Marlborough street, Miss Dickinson, at an advanced age.

At Lancaster House, Wexford, Wm. Redmond, Esq.

After a short illness, at her residence, Gardiner's Place, Mrs. Doctor Roche Jackson.

At Rockport, county Down, Jane Ross, relict of the late John Turnly, Esq. in her 78th year.

At Ballyrobert, Margaret, relict of the late Mr. Samuel M'Adam.

At Belmont Place, Mr. Patrick Parker, carpenter, aged 50.

At Durham Place, Liverpool, aged 54 years, Eliza Little, wife of Mr. Edward Geal, late of Ballyhay, near Donaghadee, county Down.

At his chambers, Essex Court, Temple, London, William Ford, Esq. Barrister at Law.

At Cheltenham, the Rev. Thomas Bower.

The Lady of Sir John Hall, K.C.H.

At Brighton, John Greatrex, Esq. of the Royal Crescent, Ramsgate, formerly of Titchfield House, Regent's Park.

At Croydon, aged 39, Harriott Sophia, wife of Mr. T. H. Mansfield, of Sire Lane, City.

On board the Mary Anne, on his passage to England, Sir Charles Wentworth Burdett, Bart. Captain 1st Madras Native Infantry, aged 42 years.
