

Esq. M.D. to Sarah Maria, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Stack, Esq. merchant, of that town.

DEATHS.

On Thursday evening in Thomas-street, Jane, the beloved daughter of John Raymond, Esq.

On Thursday last, at his residence in Barrington's Hospital and City Limerick Infirmary, after a protracted and severely trying illness, which he bore with all the resignation and piety of a true Christian, John Allen, Esq. Apothecary and Registrar of the above-named institution for the period of 17 years. During which time he discharged the varied and very onerous duties in either capacity with untiring zeal, for the advantage of the institution and the benefit of the sick poor, whose wants and ills he at all times assuaged with the most charitable sympathy, and who invariably experienced at his hands all that he had to bestow—cheerfulness, humanity, and skill—to the full extent of his unpretending capabilities. The loss of this lamented gentleman will, indeed, be much felt, as a faithful and a deserving public officer: nor could any greater calamity have befallen a young family of five children, who, but 15 months since, had to mourn for, and experienced the sad want and tender care and protection of their mother, Mrs. Allen, who unhappily fell a victim to malignant typhus fever, caught while in the discharge of her duties, as Matron of Barrington's, then the district fever hospital in this City.

At Killaloe, esteemed and regretted by all who knew her, Mary, eldest daughter of the late Mr. John Walton, of this City, Saddler and Harness-maker.
