

s. The meeting to have the out-ore another year. tted £1679 to the 0 was ordered to zzi's instruction. ricultural Society,

THE STATE

Jan 12, 1849.

newspapers two e first of which State Prisoners, eplying to your hich you profess eration, we can- gh perfectly con- e, we cannot ur affectation of recate any inter- penalties which endeavoured to t servants, O'BRIEN, S MEAGHER, W M'MANUS, OHOE.

CK CHRONICLE.

e present Govern- e is more deserving a Mr. S. O'Brien? -safely secured in his folly this long wn to all Europe , put down by a fully raised Great ics, and strength- ular. How diffe- premature attempt absurdity of the mercy, particularly Irish rebellion of quired to expatriate rtunate gentleman HUMANITY.

Esq. M. D. Deputy Inspector General. Lucy Campbell, widow of the late Duncan Forbes Sutherland, Esq. of St. Vincent.

At Umballagh, Charles Cowan, Esq. Surgeon, 98th Regt. to Amelia Harriet, daughter of the late Capt. Edward Cormick, Paymaster 3d Light Diagoons.

DEATHS.

At Corville, Roscrea, on the 11th instant, the Hon. Mrs. Elizabeth Prittie, aged 65 years, leaving a large and beloved family.

On yesterday, at Amigan Castle, in this County, to the inexpressible grief of his family and friends, Mr. Thomas Hogan, aged 60 years, brother of the Rev. William Hogan, formerly of this City. Through life he preserved the character of unbending honesty and unswerving truth.

At his house, King street, Thomas H. Deaves, Esq. for many years a respectable merchant in Cork.

In Mungret-street, after a protracted illness, deservedly regretted by her family and friends, Sarah, daughter of the late Mr. Richard Jackson, of this City.

At the residence of her brother, Wm. Large, Esq. 35, South Terrace, Cork, Mrs. Elizabeth Roche, aged 73.

At Killaloe, of malignant fever, Mr. John Hare. At his mother's residence, Strand-road, James, son of the late John O'Connell, Esq. of Cork.

At Kilcoleman Cottage, Margaret, wife of Mr. Michael Gleeson.

At Wellington Terrace, Sunday's Well, Mary Watts, youngest child of Rev. A. King, of Dublin, formerly of Cork.

In Dunmore, Rose, wife of Mr. John Kelly, merchant. In Kildare street, in the 75th year of her age, Eliza, relict of the Rev. Mathew Purcell, of Burton, Buttevant.

William, eldest son of Richard Sullivan, Esq. Kilkenny. Colonel Ker, of Mountain Lodge, at the advanced age of 93 years. He was for many years Lieut. Colonel of the Monaghan Militia, and the senior magistrate of the county. His estates in Meath and Monaghan devolve upon his nephew, William A. Williams Ker, Esq. of Mount Carmel.

On the 8th inst. at Tunbridge Wells, aged 80, Charlotte, Dowager Lady Gage.

At Cheltenham, Harriet, wife of Captain Coote, R.N. daughter of Lady Martha Saunders, and niece of the Earl of Aldborough.

At Conington House, near Cambridge, Annette, wife of W. Westwood Chafy, Esq. and second daughter of the late Lord Bishop of Cork.

At Leamington, Henry Hunter, Esq. late Captain in the 5th Dragoon Guards.

At St. Leonard's on Sea, Amy Mary, daughter of the Hon. Philip Stourton, aged 17 years.

At Old Dorset Place, Clapham road, Mr. T. Ming, many years of the Golden Cross, Charing Cross.

At Stapeley Cottage, near Nantwich, Cheshire, Mary Anne Elizabeth, wife of the Rev. James Follitt.

William Peto, Esq. of Cookham, Berks, in his 81st year.

At Ryde, Isle of Wight, Captain Joseph Wm. Bazalgette, R.N.

In his 81st year, at Bath, the Hon. John Saunderson, for 13 years Chief Justice of Granada.

At Clifton, Sir John Brooke Stonhouse, Bart. late of the Bengal Civil Service.

At Ayr, Colour Serjeant James Kennedy, late of 6th Foot. He was on the Staff of the Royal Ayrshire Militia.

At Greenwich, Mr. W. M. Huskisson, clerk in the Foreign Office, and nephew of the late celebrated statesman.

Sheets, Presses, Stands, Dressing G Bedsteads, Mahoga THE OUT-DOOR beautiful and choic drafts well, and Strong Working (built by Phayer), Mounted Harness, Cart, Watering Ca ments, 2 Ploughs, some Tons of Ma Hay, Manure, 2 Sh Terms Cash. Th paid by the purcha Thomas-street.

22

THE Undersign Credit to any of Portland, U.S., be accountable for

RYAN, E

Limerick, Jan.

3 TO G

Bran

BEG to inform consequence declared a Lunatic lishment in Smith his friends and carry on the bus FACTORS, and ho long experience afford every satisf Establishment, an with consignmen DUBLIN,