

relieving ception of egan) who r life. Of ay and the
for lodg-ception of two weeks
four-pence
as thought allowance pounds of ived to sell
red a little band, who eral weeks.
e poor, ex-
d to die on osthumous ey died on or the best ends this ht inquests think that ould have less fright-
mixture of omy which ed, and will se wretches
e weary are
. I do not
al. I know r he would hich he was
his I know,
e been most ing the last
d that there
ly inhuman
aid would,
upply those necessaries of even the

LD, P.P.

pression :
£50,000 for
on Monday, dment, but e Quit and Poor Law
ed, and the 245 to 125.
a majority of
to Cork.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday, at Westport, John Ball, Esq. Inspector of Revenue Police, son of Mrs. Furnell, of this City, a young gentleman whose death has occasioned inexpressible grief to his family and friends.

On Thursday, in Clare street, Eliza, wife of Mr. Michael Sutherwood—very much lamented.

At Cordangan, county Tipperary, Joseph Cooke, Esq. D.L. in his 62d year.

At the residence of her son in-law, John Power, Esq. Waterford, Mrs. Galwey, relict of the late Patrick Galwey, Esq. of that city.

At Strand Hill, Cong, Elizabeth, relict of George Ormsby, Esq. of Moat House, county Mayo.

At Merrion square, Anne, relict of the late William Ruxton, Esq. Ardee House, county Louth, aged 83.

In Upper Baggot street, Sally, wife of Stephen William Creaghe, President of the Money Order office, General Post-office, Dublin, leaving her husband and eleven children to deplore her loss.

At his residence, Haddington road, James FitzGerald, Esq.

At Leixlip Castle, of apoplexy, in the 83rd year of his age, the Hon. George Cavendish.

James A. Knox, Esq. Crosspatrick, Tyrrawly.

At his residence, Rumley Avenue, Kingstown, Mr. Alexander Gray, aged 72 years.

At Letterkenny, of consumption, Henry, eldest son of Henry E. Peoples, Esq. aged 22 years.

At Blessington street, Maryanne, daughter of James Daly, Esq. Solicitor.

At Garran James, William Hall, Esq.

At Templemore, Mr. Richard Whealley.

At Cavan, John Brady, Esq. the most extensive tobacco manufacturer in the North.

Aged 17 years, Jacob, son of Mr. Robert Wilson.

Mrs. Purcell, Matron of the Gowran Fever Hospital.

At Mabbot street, Mr. Timothy Bowes.

Mr. Jackson Clarke, of Lurgan, linen merchant.

Mr. William Henderson, surveyor, of Bellaghy.

William H. Lyons, Esq. of Old Park.

William, son of the Rev. W. H. Doherty, of Comber, Down.

At Tunbridge Wells, Elizabeth, daughter of the late George Warburton, Esq. of Aughrim.

At her brother's house, Sir Henry Roper, in Salisbury, Jane Anne FitzGerald, wife of Thomas FitzGerald, Esq.

At York Place, Clifton, of scarlet fever, Arthur Weston, third son of the Rev. H. G. Walsh.

Mary, daughter of Isaac Sisson Cooper, Esq. of Finchley.

At Bloomsbury square, Mrs. Appleyard, widow of R. S. Appleyard, Esq. in her 78th year.

In Thurloe Place, Hackney road, Miss Mariana Norman, daughter of the late Abraham Norman, Esq.

Harriet, wife of Thomas B. Bosville, Esq. of Ravenfield Park, Yorkshire.

At Clifton, Mary Isabella, widow of William Lynch, Esq.

Francis Boyle Shannon Wilder, Esq. of Busbridge Hall, in the county of Surrey.

At Cheltenham, Sarah, wife of George Bagnall, M.D.

At South street, Finsbury square, aged 86, Michael Joseph, Esq. His eminence as an Hebraist placed him foremost in Jewish literature.

At Clapham Common, Edmund Bellamy, Esq. of the House of Commons.

At Montrose, David Burnes, Esq. M.D. formerly of London.

At Torquay, Lieut. Colonel James Smith, H.E.I.C. Services.

Herbert Seaton, Esq. of Hull.

The wife of Crucifix Canton, Esq. of St. Martin's Lane.

At Greenwich, John Alexander, Esq. in his 86th year.

At Charles square, City road, Samuel Austin Fuller, Esq.

In Eaton square, Georgiana, daughter of J. W. Childers, Esq. M.P.

At St. Andrew's, N.B. the Hon. Thomas Wyer, Lieut. Col. of the Second Battalion of the Charlotte County Militia, and Judge of the Common Pleas.

In Waterford, Benjamin Graham, Esq.

In London, the wife of James Bland, Esq.

Mr. Walter Grady.

notices of a like per inflicted upon other
and for the venial
explain.

I have the hon
Your

Henry-street, 17th

SIR—Not having
by you to the Earl
former communicati
to us on to-morrow,
on the premises fort
"Y

"To Mr. P. J. Co

This direful intima Lord of the Soil was vent the execution o
I, this day, paid "fo ship's agents, Half a or required of me, a which I now hold!
sion I have never
the landlord; and from the simple cas
offence warranted
part of the abse
bly, mine is not a
but if the Noble Lor
the County with th Borough, under the times, and the mi
population, hopeless
good men to amelior
It was the late Mr. S enunciated officially saying that "Prope
rights"—an admirab
gations it implies w ponding degree. Th
title and estate, his Limerick, is obvious
strictly the rights
evidence: how grate
Lord of the soil disp more amiable part"

A sense of private obtrude on your no
and Tenant, did I n
which on public g
others, beside myse
my fellow-citizens.

I have the