

to the hymeneal altar,
of Colonel the Hon.
armarthenshire. Samuel
to London to be present
ious to the assizes.
ound, for one year, is to
x in Ireland, and when it al rate in aid of 6d in the rate of 2s 6d in the pound
rate the remedy is worse

law Inspector of Nenagh
, leaving a wife and large

Guardians met to-day,
ir, for the examination of
s. The applications for ek were enormous. Mr.
ng officer for the City
in the discharge of his
y and Michael Moylan, during his illness. The ving taken the extensive ately occupied by Thos.
y Workhouse, capable of
The number in receipt

day, informations were
, victualler, for buying en from Mr. Hannan, of omas Quinlan, for steal-property of Mr. John rested by Serjeant Riedy.
ganist John Curtin, for Hickey, arrested by Con-
wn-tickets, and releasing
the property of Nancy arrested by Constable
pocket in George's-street
ichael Lillis, for stealing with stealing £18 from

Commissioners at the en last night, and the Fortunately, Mr. W. F.
small sum of money in £1 0s. 6d., also a large
of the press.
e Square this afternoon.
hed of £15 yesterday at
Hon. Mr. Harbord, 7th
-Suir.

NESS.

any years experience in
time on the Continent,

ESS

t in the usual routine of
ic, Singing, Drawing,

n.

Office, Limerick.
Feb. 21.

DEATHS.

On the 17th inst. at Mount Dillon, near Dublin, Lieut. Col. the Hon. Arthur Francis Southwell, H.P., brother of the Rt. Hon. Lord Southwell. He served during the Peninsular war in 14th Light Dragoons. He has left six children; his eldest son, Thomas, born 1836.

On Monday morning, the 19th inst. at his house in Thomas-street, John Unthank, Esq. aged 54 years. During life he proved himself a fond husband, a good and affectionate father, and, in a long and successful course of trade, he was remarkable for honor and integrity. His remains were interred in John's Church this morning.

On the 18th inst. at her residence, Woodfort, near Fermoy, Anne, wife of George Massy, Esq. aged 49 years.

At Greenhill, the seat of Francis L. Dames, Esq. Hannah, relict of the late Ralph Smyth, Esq. Gaybrook, in her 80th year.

On the 13th, at Castle Hewson, the residence of his brother, George Hewson, Esq. Attorney, third son of the late John Hewson, of Castle Hewson, in this County, Esq.

At Loughrea, after a few days illness, of fever, caught in the discharge of his duties as Vice Guardian of the Loughrea union, Stephen Barry, Esq. late of Fermoy, aged 49 years.

In Bruff, Richard Francis Lang, second son of the late Mr. John Lang, of this City, Jeweller, aged seven years.

At Kilmalooda House, Bandon, Miss Elizabeth Poole Beamish.

Mr. Robert Johnston, many years Sheriff's Bailiff in Limerick, and of the original Police force. He was an intelligent, active officer, and a faithful subject.

At Nenagh, Mr. James Goggin, and the wife of Mr. John Delany, baker

Of spotted fever, Miss Mary Anne M'Elwee, assistant matron of the Sligo workhouse.

In Cavan, of fever, John, son of the late Peter Madden, Esq. of Simonscourt, county Dublin.

Mrs. Catherine Peile, of Grafton street.

At his residence, Nelson street, Isabella, wife of Thomas Henry Christian, Esq.

At Murlog, near Lifford, Jane, wife of James Houston, Esq.

At Low Rock House, Coleraine, the Rev. R. M'Naghten.

At Plymouth, the wife of Henry Smith, Esq. Harcourt st.

At his residence, Great Queen street, Westminster, at an advanced age, Charles Addes, Esq. father-in-law of William Fagan, Esq. M.P. for Cork.

The Hon. Mrs. Cavendish Bradshaw, at the age of 91.

At the residence of her son, Captain Howard Ormsby, South Hays, Bath, Mrs. Mary Teresa Ormsby, in her 78th year.

At Loughton, Essex, John Chamberlain Keefe, son of Mr. Sergeant Storks.

L'Estrange Southgate Austin, Esq. of Wotton under Edge, a magistrate for the counties of Gloucester and Wilts.

At her residence in Bruton street, Lady Elizabeth Palk, widow of the late Sir Lawrence Palk, Bart.

Mary Anne, wife of Mr. Wm. Pickering, of Piccadilly.

Emma, daughter of Francis Skurray, Esq. of Brighton.

At Hamilton Terrace, St. John's Wood, Colonel G. E. Jones late of the 57th Regt.

At Gower street, Wm. Gwinnell, Esq. formerly of Dean's Court, Doctors' Commons, aged 82.

At Connaught Terrace, Jane, wife of W. Lonergan, Esq.

Dr. Alfred Day, well known in the musical circles.

At Ditton House, Maidenhead, Esther Maria, widow of Edward Lee, Esq.

At Uley, the wife of O. Williams, Esq.

At Cheltenham, the wife of Doctor Bagnell.

At Weymouth, Prince Clarence, aged 14, son of the late and brother to the present King of the Mosquito territory.

At Basle, Switzerland, Thomas Lovell Beddoes, Esq. author of the Bride's Tragedy.

At Keytsville, Charlton county, Missouri, Charles Scott, Surgeon, brother of the late William Scott, Esq. Fisherstown, Queen's County.

At Malta, Lieut. William G. Herbert, of H.M.S. Rodney, eldest son of Lieut. General Herbert.

At Falmouth, Jamaica, Mr. Edward Knibb, of the Baptist Society.

At Madras, Delancy Butler Johnstone, elder son of the late Colonel Johnstone, formerly of the 8th Light Dragoons, and cousin-german to the late John Douglas Johnstone, of Snow Hill, county of Fermanagh, Esq. Lieut. Johnstone was grand nephew of the late Sir Richard Butler, Bart. of Garryhinden and Ballintemple, county of Carlow.

At Nenagh, Mr. William Byron, and Mr. Edward Talbot.

The Rev. John O'Reilly, R. C. Priest, Dublin.