

chaplain to Admiral the Marquis of Thomond, on resigning the curacy of that parish.

The late Bishop Mants' library is to be sold in Dublin early next month.

The Rt. Rev. Dr. Ryan, and Rt. Rev. Dr. Kennedy, have left for Cove, to attend the election of successor to Cloyne diocese, in room of the late Rt. Rev. Dr. Walsh.

The Rev. Dr. O'Brien, of this city, is to preach a sermon in Ennis chapel, on Sunday next, in aid of the fund to complete the interior of that splendid edifice.

The Very Rev. Theobald Mathew returned to Cork yesterday from a Temperance meeting at Croom, where he was the guest of James D. Lyons, Esq., D.L.

Father Mathews' Committee, Cork, are receiving tenders for completing his Chapel in that City, dedicated to the Holy Trinity.

Dr. Hughes, the R.C. Bishop of New York, has denounced Mr. Darcy M'Ghee, one of the Irish runaway confederates, whose talent as a public man, he says, is uniformly destructive of any cause.

James Fagan, Esq. M. P. has given the Rev. P. Fleming £50 towards building a Roman Catholic female poor school at Malahide.

The Clergymen of the Dominican Convent, in this city, gratefully acknowledge £1 from the Mayor, towards the improvements of the chapel.

The Lottery Bazaar, in support of the St. Vincent de Paul Society at Cork, realised £250 for the charity.

The Conference of St. Senanus, Kilrush, thankfully acknowledge £1 from Very Rev. T. Kelly, P.P., in aid of their funds.

A poor man named Stritch was found dead on the lands of Donoman, near Croom, on Friday. C. Bennett, Esq. held an inquest on the body, and a post mortem examination made of the contents of the stomach by Dr. R. Fitzgerald, of Croom, in which there was found a small portion of indigested Indian meal. Verdict—Died from want of sufficient food.

Michael and Honora Devitt, father and daughter, died of starvation at Kilmastulla on Saturday.

BIRTHS.

On Monday last, at Prospect Hill, the Lady of George Christie, Esq. of a daughter.