

Dixon, Esq. of Knells, county Cumberland.

DEATHS.

At George's-quay, on Wednesday evening, much regretted, Mary, the beloved wife of Mr. Charles Donnelly, formerly of Castlebank. Her life was a most useful one—a great portion of which was spent alleviating the sufferings of the poor. Her death was peaceful, her reliance being in the great atonement.

On 7th, Bessie, daughter of Wm. H. White, George-street.

In George-street, John, the infant son of Mr. Wm. Colgan.

At John-street, Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. Odell Upton.

This day, of cholera, Peter Hastings, a very intelligent and obliging youth, Clerk in Mr. Costello's office, Bank Place.

In Thomond-gate, last night, of cholera, Mr. Wm. Graham, Engineer at the Distillery, and Mrs. Macnamara.

This morning, in hospital, of cholera, William Barnes, mate of the "Hannah Grayson," of Workington.

Yesterday, at Bird Hill, Mrs. Carey, of the inn and posting-house there.

Mr. John O'Connor, jun. Mary-street.

On Thursday night, in Ellen-street, after a few hours illness, Miss Mary Ryan, Dress-maker.

Of cholera, aged 23 years, Mr. John Murphy, of Boston, U.S. mate of the American brig, "Shawmut," in this port.

At Mountshannon, county Galway, Zachariah Holland, Esq.

In Waterford, James Edward O'Brien, Esq.

At Castlebar, Mr. Stephen Donnelly, and Mr. Clanchy, revisor of the workhouse accounts.

At the residence of her son, Andrew F. Roche. Esq. Johanna, relict of Francis Roche, Esq. of Cork.

At Clonmeen, Mr. Timothy Sheehan.

At Belfast, Mark Sheridan, Esq. late of the 13th Light Infantry.

At Rock View, Waterford, George Roberts, Esq. in the 83rd year of his age, a respected member of the Society of Friends.

At Castlemary, William S. Hugo, in his 70th year.

At Clonakilty, in his 87th year, John Townsend, Esq.

At Mallem, William Thomas Gibson and Robert Gibson, children of the Rev. C. B. Gibson, by scarletina.

At his residence, Court Hall, near Sidburg, in the 85th year of his age, Robert Hunt, Esq.

At Cork, Mr. James Fennessy, aged 80 years.

At South Lambeth, London, Mr. Thomas Lyddy, brother to the Rev. D. Lyddy, P.P. of Abbeyfeale.

At Parsonstown, Mr. Wm. Murphy.

At Whiteford, John, son of Mr. Wm. Mason.

At Booterstown, on the 6th inst. at an advanced age, Miss Mary Kell.

At Armagh, in her 87th year, Lucy, widow of Captain Henry Perry, formerly of the 4th Regiment.

In Kildare, James, son of Captain Charles Moore Higgins.

At Cook-street, Abigail, wife of John Marks, Solicitor.

At Kingstown, Anne, relict of Mr. Charles Eves, Edenderry.

At Rutland House, Rathgar, Bartholomew Lloyd, Esq. late of York-street.

At his residence, St. Andrew-street, Mr. John Wood.

At Bath, (at the residence of her son, Capt. Howard Ormsby) Mary Teresa, relict of the late Henry Michael Ormsby, Esq. and daughter of the late John Howard Kyan, Leeson-street, Esq.

At Mattock, Bath, Edward Beaumont, Esq. brother of the late Geo. Beaumont, of Dublin, Esq.

Mr. James Fitzpatrick, father to the Rev. J. Fitzpatrick, of St. Kyran's College.

At Cheltenham, Lieut.-Colonel Edward Knox, son of the late Arthur and Lady Mary Knox, of Woodstock, county Wicklow, and nephew of the Earl of Meath.

At Richmond Terrace, Whitehall, the Right Hon. Lady Edward Thynne, wife of Lord Edward Thynne, formerly of the 60th Rifles, and sister of the Countess of Glengall.

At Edinburgh, David Scott, Esq. R.S.A.

At St. Mary's Priory, Princethorpe, Anne, relict of William Jerningham, Esq. son of the late Sir William Jerningham, Bart. and brother to Lord Stafford.

At Whitehaven, John, son of John Robert Byrne, Esq.

Jane, relict of the late Major Dunbar, 21st Fusiliers.

In Edinburgh, William Henry Dowbiggin, Esq.

In Camberwell Grove, Col. Daniel Robinson, in his 58th year.

At Westerham, Kent, James Hansard, Esq.

At Brisbane House, Ayrshire, Isabella, eldest daughter of General Sir Thomas Macdougall Brisbane, Bart.

At the Royal Naval Hospital, Haslar, Commander Thomas B. Brown, Royal Navy, eldest son of Rear Admiral Thos. Brown.

At Troy, State of New York, Mr. William Martin, coach painter, a native of Dublin.

In Montreal, Mr. Stephen Scanlan, a native of Ross, county Wexford; and Mr. Henry Pilson, painter, a native of Downpatrick. At Sorel, Mr. Arthur Starkey, aged 93 years, a native of the county Down.

At Tours, Albert Stephen, son of Lieut.-Col. Stroker.

In Dublin, Daniel Kelly, Esq., of Cargins, Roscommon.

Gortnashure, Clondoty, Cur the County of shoneen, or B moy, and C of Mitchelsto leagh, Reag Clincarry, all s of Limerick, th Goold, Barone bers, on the In before the 20th mands, otherw benefit under t Dated this 2

ROBERT W Rutland-square

Lessee Mrs. MARIA a. The Casual I

Same a. Sa of Limerick, la also, that part Irish measure, Application Galway; Mich place, Dublin; farm, Hospital

Not EMIGRAT Will leave Lo Plymouth fir 25th March.

PO Port M A.I., 562 Tons J. M LYING I THIS fine V of 7 feet 1 be fitted up ex taken at the un provisions of th mess utensils n Surgeon will p ing will have a For further THERS, 2, MALLETT, 4, 3, East Will be succ Tons, sailing th