responded to by me clearly taff, with the worthy ex-Mayor, f the Town Council, were present. most unfavourable, and not more ersons attended the ceremonial; Ryan, having sprinkled the ground masilver vase, addressed the people, ends, we have been given asite in this ial of the dead, and I think we should to the Corporation of this city, who round for that sacred purpose.the most anxious wish of the poor that of the Irish, to have a decent ment of the dead. There is no spot ople look upon with greater venerare the ashes of their forefathers are ain return our thanks to those men tably given this piece of land for a hope soon to see it fenced in, and scecration whatever. I trust that no will be permitted here, that is, that not be allowed to bury their dead but that a spot shall be set apart for nent of individuals, or of families. pray for those to whom the public his burial ground, for their temporal ness; and may the souls of all who e the eternal light of God's glory!" dressing the Rt. Rev. Dr. Ryan, allow me to make a few observations. e too grateful to the Bishop for exemplary virtues upon all occasions, s the spiritual or temporal interests er his charge. Dr. Ryan has been blic charities. We should pray that ng and happy life, and the eternal y and virtue. On the part of the g to return his lordship thanks, and ed that while I am in office, nothing one for the benefit and comfort of hen suggested, that the site chosen or. Ryan officiated at mass at St. yesterday, for the removal of the and exhorted the large congregation. vis in Dublin making preparations merica. He intends to sail from ship, New World in April. es O'Regan has resigned the chap-he burial ground of St. Laurence, as sh of St. Laurence, which proposal the Bishop, and the meeting then county gaol, on his translation to 00 collected for the Pope by the Proents of Maynooth College.

who gave £100 towards the Pope's et of the late Colonel Bryan, of Jen-Kilkenny, and sister to the Countes atholic curates of Castlebar from some to them, issued 4000 stone of potatoes quantity of seed oats and barley to hn Egan, P.P. of Dunkerrin, was igh assizes this week, himself in £100, es in £50 each, to stand his trial next g celebrated marriage between a Pronan Catholic. While attending court an was arrested under a civil bill ge Jackson ordered his discharge. le Paul Charitable Bazaar, at the Phiings, on Monday, will, it is expected, and numerously attended. By the of Lieut.-Col. Fordyee, the band of rform some splendid pieces, including

t-Mater, arranged by their talented land at the Cape is rising fast in the At D'Urban, building lots sell at from er acre. Cotton plantations are extendl D'Urban. Mr. James O'Reilly lerk of the Peace at Somerset. The emigrant passage to the Cape, provided 8 Colonial emigration Commissioners an adult.

DEATHS.

of Major J. G. Jameson, Deputy Military Auditor General.

At her mother's house, in Henry-street, on Thursday morning, in her 15th year, after a very short illness, Eliza Rochfort, only daughter of the late Captain Warburton Grey, 56th Regt. to the inconsolable grief of her widowed and truly bereaved survi-

On the 28th instant, at Tarbert, of fever, caught in the discharge of his duty as Relieving Officer of that district, Edward, minth son of Richard Parsons, Esq. late of Cragbeg, in this County. His many and truly amiable qualities endeared him to a large circle of sorrowing relatives and friends. At Tullow, of fever, the Rev. William Gerard, late Curate of Buaratty, and formerly of the Episcopal Asylum, in this

On Wednesday, at Rathbane Cottage, Mary, second daughter of H. N. Seymour, aged 10 years.

At Newtown Butler, on Monday, 25th, in the 17th year of her age, of pulmonary consumption, Mary Jane, eldest daughter of Mr. Samuel Evans, and sister of Mr. R. Evans, late of this City. At Brunswick street, on Thursday night, Mary, widow of the late Mr. John Joynt, of this City, Pawnbroker.

At Coloony-street, Mr. Michael Brady, late Serjeant of the Limerick County Militia, and the oldest Non-commissioned Officer of the Regiment, which he entered in 1803.

At her residence, in Francis-street, on Wednesday night, Mary, widow of the late Mr. George Daly, of this City, Boot and Shoe-maker.

In Anne-street, Mr. Richard Butler, foreman Carpenter Mr. Thomas Hanrahan, of Nelson-street, pig buyer. Mr. Ruttle, Sexton of Kilmurry Church. At Adare, Mary, widow of the late Mr. Manus Sheehy.

At his residence, Newcastle, after 24 hours illness, of cholera, Mr. Patrick Minahan, Land Surveyor, in his 37th year. In Mary-street, Mrs. M'Carthy.

Wednesday night, at Howley's Quay, after a short illness, which he bore with resignation to the Divine will, Mr. Daniel Black, of this City-leaving his disconsolate widow and sister to mourn the loss of the fondest of husbands and brothers. His most useful life fully realized the proverb "that an honest man is the noblest work of GoD;" and it will be very long ere his remembrance will fade from the bosoms of those orphans and dependants whom his life most especially benefitted.

Of apoplexy, on Wednesday night, James Blake Butler, of Stamer Park, Ennis, Esq. J.P.

In Ennis, of cholera, Mr. Samuel Vickers and Miss Margaret At Maryboro', Jessy, wife of the Rev. H. Torrens, Independent Minister. In Tralee, Mr. John Tuomy, Corn Merehant. At his sister's residence, Killarney, Mr. James Goggin.

At Spring Hill, Cork, Maskelyne Alcock, Esq. of Ballinres. At Castletownsend, Skibbereen, Lieut. Testock F. Boileau, R.N. Inspecting Commander of the Coast Guard Station there. At Monasterevan, Mary Jane, daughter of John Yeates, Esq. County Surveyor,

At Goodlands Cottage School, Miltown, of consumption, Biddy Doherty, one of the Clare Protestant Orphans, at the age of 15. At Galway, Mr. Michael Ryder, brother of the Rev. Patrick Ryder, P.P. of Glentford. At Cork, Jessie, wife of H. B. M'Kenzie, Esq. Paymaster

70th Regiment. At Athlone, Mr. Denis Kelly, Licentiate Apothecary. Mrs. Sarah Busby, relict of the late James Busby, Esq. of Dublin, and daughter of the late Enoch Welch, Esq. of Ballycrossel, Queen's County. In Upper Baggot-street, of typhus fever, aged twenty-three Years, Surgeon Henry Kamptee Keating, A.B., T.C.D., second book of Captain Henry Keating, Madras Army, (M.N.I.) of Millbrook, Oldcastle.

In Blackhall-street, Henry Fisher, only son of the Rev. R. B. Gibson. At Leinster-road, Rathmines, Mary, wife of John W. Delany.

At Queen-street, John Gaspard Maeder, one of the most eminent public accountants of Dublin. Mr. Thomas Christie, of Castlebar.

At Glenbrook, county Antrim, William Moore, son of the late Rev. Marshal Moore, of Faughanvale. In Kilkenny, Mr. John Maher, grocer. Suddenly, at Cabinteely, Miss Lydia Carr.

At Warrenpoint, Anne, wife of Mr. D. Blair, Tide Surveyor, At his residence, Little Britain-street, Mr. Peter Kelly. Jeremiah Kavanagh, late of Stafford-street.

At his residence, Grove Place, Lee, Arthur Willis, Esq. George Roebuck, Esq. in his 77th year. At Broadstone, of measles, Sarah Frances, youngest child of Edmund R. Nugent, Esq.

At Lynn, Norfolk, Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the Rev. see Allen, who was in good health a few moments before the erful event. At Southampton, the Rev. Joseph Hamilton, D.D. aged 83.

At Robert-street, Adelphi, Charles Dalton, Esq. Adam Longmore, Esq. 35 years an officer in the Court of

At Brighton, Miss Edith Musgrave, daughter of the late Sir Constopher Musgrave, Bart. of Eden Hall, Cumberland. At his residence, the Rhyd, county of Worcester, aged 82, on Ribbony Lechmere, Bart. He is succeeded by his eldest Philip Skind Hungerford, the father of the lady of Evelyn Philip Shirley, Esq. late M.P. for Monaghan.

At Beddington House, Surrey, William Henry, eldest son of on Henry Bridges. At East Hill, Wandswerth, Mr. William Bellamy, of the House of Commons.

Wednesday, in Catherine-street, after a short illness, Robert Powell, Esq. Acting Secretary to the Limerick and

Wednesday, at Farranshonebeg, North Liberty, Penelope, ridow of the late James O'Connor, Esq. of this City, aged 72

M. George's Quay, Miss Williams. Mr. Saintel Purdon, of Charlotte's-quay, Silver-smith. At Skeham Col., Mr. John Bronwell, jun. Master Slater. At Skehana, Clare Castle, John M'Mahon, Esq., aged 72. At Bergamo, Clare Castle, John M. Manon, Loq., Esq. son of bir f. G. Fowle, Bart, of Loweshy Hall, Leicestershire, have been 18 cases, of these o recovered, and 7 are under treating - The ship Jessy, of this por cleared for Quebec with 213 pa from the quays with this morning

Eight convicts escaped from Sunday last.

Kilkenny contributed £330 for Doctor Gore desires to acknow receipt for £2, for Barrington's I Croker, Esq., as foreman of the grand jury.

AUCTION OF O

OBE SOLD BY AUCTIO the 2d APRIL, at 12 o'Cl Oxonian, now lying at Honan's-

100 Tons Prime Fr Terms at Sale, and Deposit of 2 The Trade will do well to atte the Importer's intention to sell a

HORATIO Broker

Broker

March 28.

AUCTION C L Damaged Indi

O be Sold by AUCTION

I next, the 4th APRIL, a MERRICK'S Provision Store, of 25 TONS DAMAGED 11 Terms at Sale, and Deposits HORATI

Limerick March 31.

WANTED to borrow, the doubted security, by Joint Charge for the Interest agreed Landed Property within 14 mile ducing to the Tenant a conside Also, to be Sold, a Head Rent of out of said Lands, leased for ever

Apply (all communications pr Office of the LIMERICK CHRONIC

BILLOWV

O meet the probable wishes be desirous to leave the above comfortable Sea-side Resid as D'ESTERRE'S LODGE, ha will be Let for the next THREE present depression, at the followi

April and May, June, and for the Four Summer Mon for £50.

Apply to Francis Goold Mo Miltown-Malbay.

Hartigan's Morse

MICHAEL HARTIGAN b generally, That his next gre Hunters, Chargers, Carriage H SATURDAY, the 7th April.

Mr. H. requests that particula that parties who frequent his Sa chase inferior Horses, or Horse condition. He would, therefor having really good Horses to se as the English and Scotch buyer The entry closes with Fifty Hor could not do the public justice of The last day for taking entries v to allow sufficient time to send Edinburgh, and all parts of the

No Entrance Fee charged wh RICHARD

March 31.