

the arrival of his illustrious successor. We are rejoiced to think that a long and heroic career has not been marred by untimely reverses, and that instead of returning with a venerable but tarnished reputation, Lord Gough will reach the shores of England enveloped in the renown of Goojerat.

Lieut. Graham, Horse Artillery, died at Moulton, of the wounds he received during the siege. The ransom for the city has not yet been realised, though our demands had dwindled to twenty lacs. Daily discoveries were being made in the fort, and the rize prospects were looking up, thanks to Major Wheeler and Capt. Hobson (of the Bombay division).

Michael Ryan, who belonged to the Ordnance Survey of Ireland, has fallen a victim to cholera in Ballylanders—he was a native of Pallasgrean.

On Sunday evening last, while the family of the Hon. the Attorney-General were at dinner, an alarm was given by one of the servants, that soldiers were in the house. Mr. Atthill hastened into the apartment whence proceeded the alarm, and was immediately assaulted by a soldier, who had effected an entry into the house, by leaping through the bedroom window. After a struggle, during which Mr. Atthill received severe blows from the audacious intruder, assistance came to his rescue, and the assailant fled. It is known that the soldier who committed the assault belongs to the Royal Artillery.—St. Lucia Palladium.

The Demerara Railway Company has been opened, and intermediate estates have readily availed themselves of the increased facilities for sending their produce to Georgetown, and it is becoming no novelty to see a line of trucks loaded with fifty hogsheads of sugar rushing into the city, at the rate of 20 miles an hour. The carriages for passengers are elegantly and substantially fitted up.

Capt. Wolfe, R.N., late of the surveying steamship Tartarus, has been ordered to survey Valentia Harbour and the adjacent coast, with a view of ascertaining the claim to a Transatlantic Packet station in that quarter.
