

panies at low water.
Complaint having been made of bad light on the Wellesley Bridge, and North Strand, the Secretary was directed to notice the Agent of the United General Gas Company.

The Harbour Master was ordered to exercise full controul over the Quays at the North Strand side of the river, same as at Wellesley Bridge, and Quays at this side of the water, and to remove all ballast deposited thereon.

The weekly disbursements were laid before the meeting and fiated by the Chairman.

Plans and specifications for removing the obstructions in the river above and below Thomond Bridge, as agreed upon by resolution of the board last month, were submitted by Mr. Owen. A discussion ensued and it was ordered that the same be forthwith forwarded to the Board of Works, accompanied by a report on the subject, prepared by Mr. Owen in January last, and a second of more recent date.

After transacting the usual routine business, and directing broken stones to be placed on Wellesley bridge and quays, the board adjourned.

Colonel Chatterton, K.H., Grand Inspector General, was entertained at dinner on the 24th inst. by the members of the High Masonic order of Princes Grand Rose Croix, No. 1, Cork, at the Rooms, Tuckey-st.

The next appearance of Miss Hayes at the Italian Opera, London, will be with Reeves in William Tell. Robert Fetherstone, Esq., of Bruree, a magistrate of this county, has identified the prisoner, Maurice Gleeson, in Kirkdale gaol, arrested for the brutal murders in a lodging-house at Liverpool.

Committed to the County Gaol by J. N. Barron, Esq., Michael Lynch, Thomas Irwin, Michael Irwin. cow stealing; Michael O'Brien, Patt O'Brien, John Kearney, Michl. M'Inerney, Michl. Hall, do. By W. Oliver, Esq. John M'Grath, do; by E. Lloyd, Esq. Thos. Curtin, sheep stealing; by H. Considine, Esq. Andrew M'Carthy, Honora M'Carthy, Andrew M'Farthy, Denis M'Carthy, do.

Within the last ten days, 100 families, comprising 496 persons, have been turned out on a property (under the Court of Chancery,) in the vicinity of properties belonging to Lord Lansdowne and Maurice O'Connell, Esq. near Cahirciveen.

Mr. Martin's herd at Tullyra, county Galway, caught a woman of the name of Donohue killing a lamb on Thursday, and he locked the offender up in a stable while he went for the Police, but when the police arrived the unfortunate woman had hung herself with her apron! Mr. Martin having heard of the occurrence at once turned off the herd.

LIMERICK CATTLE MARKET.—Prime beef rated yesterday at £2; coarse do., at 30s per cwt., sinking offal. Mr. J. Ryan sold 2 cows at £10 each; Mr. O'Donnell 1 do. at £10; Mr. Cosgrave 2 do. £9 10s; Mr. Deighan 16 sheep at 33s each; Mr. M'Inerney, 15 do. at 36s; Mr. Quinlivan 10 do. at 26s; Mr. Frost 10 do. at 35s; several small £5 to £7 each.

The attention of the Market Jury is called to the quantity of Lamb now in market, inflated with a nauseous process, to deceive buyers.

There was no bidder on Thursday, at Master Litton's office for the estate of defendant in the King's County, rental £800 a year, in the suit of Seale v. Maganlay, and for which property £15,000 had been refused.

Prussia, to Olympia Charlotte, daughter of the late Major-General Sir John Malcolm, of Warfield Hall, Berks.
At Fort Beaufort, Cape of Good Hope, Mr. Michael Fitzpatrick, to Miss Ann Corbet, a native of Ireland.

DEATHS.

At his residence, Castlefarm, in this County, on the 25th inst. Standish O'Grady, Esq. of consecutive fever, from cholera. He was a gentleman universally esteemed and regretted by all ranks and classes for genial benevolence, liberality, and social manners.

On the 24th inst. at his residence, Dumville, near Dublin, William Massy, Esq. in the 62d year of his age.

At the Presentation Convent, Galway, Sister Regius, Rev. Mother of the Institution, and daughter of the late Charles Blake, Esq.

At Ballinamote House, Cork, Harriette, wife of James Hewson, Esq.

At Heathfield, near Youghal, Joseph Dickinson, Esq. Collector of Customs, Ballyshannon.

At Bruree, Miss Ellen Cleary, daughter of Mr. Michael Cleary, Ballingaddy.

At Laurel Lodge, Nenagh, Geraldine, daughter of O'Brien Dillon, Esq. Solicitor.

John Maher O'Ryan, Esq. of Ballycurkeen, co. Tipperary.

At Kilkee, Lucy, daughter of the late Mr. John Barton, of Millview, county Clare.

At Highland Cottage, Youghal, Jonathan Lovett, Esq.

At Grenville Place, Cork, of hooping cough, Elizabeth, child of Charles J. Hicks, Esq.

Mr. James Burke, Thurles.

At Youghal, Thomas Lewis John, Esq.

At Tralce, at his son-in-law's, Richard West, Esq. of Weston Cottage, Newtown, in his 80th year.

At Mallow, Maurice Jones O'Connell, Esq.

At the Wood-quay, Galway, Mrs. Killeen, wife of Mr. Thos. Killeen, one of the Professors of Erasmus Smyth's College.

Benjamin Grant, Esq. of Richmond Hill, Monkstown.

In Lower Charlemont-street, J. Edmonds, Esq. solicitor.

Mrs. Kennedy, wife of Mr. Michael Kennedy, office-sergeant of Henry-street Police-office.

At Galway, Mr. Patrick O'Malley and Mr. Redmond Comins.

In Galway, Richard D. Cruise, Esq. late of Camla, county of Roscommon.

At Ballina, Mayo, Mr. Richard Little, in his 90th year.

Wednesday last, in Upper Cecil-street, Ellen M'Carthy, a faithful servant to Mrs. George Langford for 32 years.

At North Great George's-street, Dublin, James Tracy, Esq. the claimant to the Tracy peerage; he has left two sons and a daughter.

William Barrington, aged 77 years, a member of the Society of Friends.

In Castlebar, at the age of 75 years, Owen O'Malley, Esq. of Strokestown, county Roscommon.

In Kilkenny, Michael Murphy, Esq. M.D.

At Kent Terrace, Dalkey, James Barry, Esq. late of the Royal Marines.

Mr. Henry Robinson, of Bloomfield Avenue, South Circular-road.

At Bath, on Sunday, the Dowager Lady Carington, widow of the Rev. Walter Trevelyan.

At Kew, Edward Seard, Esq. household surgeon to the Duke of Cambridge, and magistrate for the counties of Middlesex and Surrey.

In the 82d year of her age, Lady Gurney, relict of Sir John Gurney, one of the Barons of the Exchequer.

At Bathford House, near Bath, James H. Bannatyne, Esq. eldest son of the late Major-General Bannatyne, of the Bombay Service.

W. Warden, M.D. surgeon of her Majesty's Dock-yard, Chatham.

At Knightsbridge, of paralysis, the Hon. Frances Eden, sister of Lord Auckland.

At Bristol, Mrs. Samuel Parsons.

Lieut. W. A. Usher, R.N. of Seaham-harbour.

At Glasgow, the Rev. J. Noble, A.M. Minister of Free Duke-street Gaelic Church.

At Birkenhead, Olivia, daughter of Capt. E. Groves, Dolgeog House, Machynlleth, aged 18.

The Rev. Dr. M'Donald, of Ferrintosh, Ross-shire, father of the late Mr. M'Donald, Free Church minister at Calcutta. Dr. M'Donald's death was caused by mortification, by an injury sustained in the foot, from a tight boot.

At Glasgow, James Henderson, late Serjeant in the 52d Light Infantry. He served in all the Peninsular battles and at Waterloo.

At Cape-town, C. S. Pillans, Esq.

At Rome, Mr. Timbrell, a young sculptor, sent out by the Royal Irish Academy.

At Ceylon, Dr. George Gardner, Superintendent of the Royal Botanic Gardens.