

5th Dragon Guards, to Selina Arabella, daughter of Joseph Moore Boulton, Esq. and Lady Elizabeth Boulton, of Springfield, Warwickshire, and niece to the Marquess of Townshend.

DEATHS. ✓

On Tuesday night last, at his residence, Gortroe Cottage, in this County, in the 54th year of his age, Henry Harte, Esq. Providence, which visited him with a protracted and painful illness, gave him also strength to say, "Thy will be done"—the greatest and only true consolation now left to his sorrowing family and friends.

At Mount Plummer, in this County, on the 13th inst. Frances, relict of the late Brudenell Plummer, Esq. and daughter of Thomas FitzGerald, late Knight of Glin.

Suddenly, Major Pierce Crosbie, J.P. of Ballyheigue Castle, Tralee. Major Crosbie went in his usual health to see his labourers, who were cutting turf, and, while on the bog, he fell in a fit, whence he was brought home in a state of insensibility, from which he did not recover. He has left a large family to mourn his loss. He will be succeeded in the family estates by his only son by his second wife, Miss Sandes, James Crosbie, now in his seventeenth year. By his third wife, Miss Wren, who survives him, he has left seven young children.
