

you have not only
 our Eastern de-
 In forwarding this respect, we pray
 s, who has shielded
 ay still crown your ess," that you may ciousness of having
 of your country;
 of all shall have re-
 eration, your name
 ght of honor, intreand gentlemen—I g the Address so Dean, and to add
 d achievements of
 as so triumphantly
 a series of victories
 We can know here
 e noble Lord had
 y overcame, and it
 over his brilliant
 l where the noble
 ars resided—it reigh encomiums so Lord, but to express
 unity of seconding
 hat the Mayor do
 y High Sheriff be he proposition, eu-lary conduct upon re his services were e would have con-
 a paper been handed ce of Lord Gough's
 in the Peninsula.
 forth that Lord
 career in the City
 ded here before he l this meeting be-authorities of the ratulation to Lord
 ld not fail in ad-
 ich he belongs.—
 e of pride, to call ls of chivalry have he Indus and the l yet adorn (cheers.)
 ord Gough may be gton." (hear.)
 been passed una-
 g separated.
 he Mayor on behalf attached thereto be-

ET,
 SUBJECT to redemption, for Six Months
 on the 22d day of
 y, 1849, the Lands
 Premises of RATH-
 NE, in the Parish
 of Limerick.
 harleville.
 ondgate, will shew
 May 23.

ET,
 SUBJECT to redemption, for Six Months
 on the 22d day of
 y, 1849, the Lands
 Premises of INCH-ORE, in the Parish
 of Limerick.
 harleville.
 ondgate, Limerick,
 May 23.

L A R E .
T, ANDS OF
e,
 ING DIVISIONS :—
 EAST OF ROAD,, s; TIERYGLASS CLOGHERHILL,
 reabouts; PROM-
 ONG MEADOW,
 Fattening, and Mea-
 Walk. It is well
 EBEG, lately held
 ing about 94 Acres, eadow Land, which
 rvisions.
 is Office, Ennis.
 ill shew the Lands,
 May 23.

Rev. Edward Bireh, M.A. John, second son of Wm. Millar, Esq. of Kildrum House, Antrim, to Madelene, second daughter of the late James Frazer, Esq. M. D. of this City.

At Templemartin Church, Thomas Biggs, Esq. Lieutenant 97th Regt. to Caroline, eldest daughter of H. Baldwin, Esq. of Mountpleasant.

DEATHS.

This morning, at Townville, North Strand, in the 87th year of her age, Mrs. Mary Synan, mother of the Rev. D. Synan, P.P. Thomondgate.

At Belgrave-place, Cork, on the 21st inst. of hooping cough, after measles, Ellie Fuller M'Donald, the only and beloved daughter of Robert O'Callaghan, Esq. aged 4 years and 9 months.

In Dungarvan, of fever, the Rev. Morgan Crofton, Curate of that Parish, and nephew of the Lord Bishop of Cashel.

At Listowel, on the 18th inst. Walter Hussey Hill Griffith, aged 12 years, the beloved child of William Downes Griffith, Esq. Poor Law Inspector, Listowel Union.

Of cholera, Robert Devere Hunt, Esq. M.D. of Tuam, during his attendance at the hospital.

At his residence in Nicholas-street, Mr. Malachy Curry, late Clerk to the Limerick Gas Consumers' Company—a truly honest, civil, and friendly man.

Sunday last, of cholera, the Rev. Malachi Duggan, P.P. of Carrigaholt and Moyarta. Long beloved by his flock for his active zeal, charity, benevolence, and hospitality.

In Athenry, of cholera, the Rev. Mr. Healy, R.C.C. of that town.

At Newcastle, after a long and patient illness, in the 27th year of her age, Margaret, the beloved wife of Constable George Peacocke, of the Glenquin station.

In Nenagh, at the residence of her son, Dr. Kittson, Mary, wife of John Blakeney Kittson, Esq. of Listowel, co. Kerry.

At Athlone, of cholera, Isabella, second daughter of William Rathborne, Esq. of Scripplestown House, and wife of Major Longworth, 31st Regt.

At Mallow, Isabella, daughter of the Rev. C. B. Gibson.

In Ballinasloe, Mrs. Pilkington, aged 99 years; Mrs. Canavan, aged 104.

At his residence, Beach Cove, Cork, John Kinnears, Esq. aged 79.

William Henry Joseph, son of William J. Coppinger, Esq. of Glenmore Cottage, county Cork.

At his lodgings, Mallow Lane, Cork, Mr. Thomas White.

At Galway, Mary, relict of the late Richard Hooper, Esq. Chief Officer of Coast Guards.

At his residence, South Terrace, Cork, Roger Adams, Esq.

At Cove, Mr. Joseph John O'Connor, son of Mr. Denis O'Connor, North Main-street.

At Clonmore Glebe, Arthur Hannibal, son of the Rev. Wm. A. Dobbyn.

At Cork Barracks, of hooping cough, George, son of Mr. Geo. Single, Royal Engineer Department.

At Ballinasloe, of cholera, where she had been attending her son in fever, Charlotte, wife of Captain Lyttleton Lyster.

In Dingle, at an advanced age, Mr. Daniel M'Kenna.

At Bleunerville, of cholera, Captain Davis, of the schooner, "Harmony," of Cardigan.

In Waterford, Mr. Patrick Prendergast.

At Longford, on Friday, of cholera, Mr. Stephen Ahern, agent to Charles Bianconi, Esq. under whom he served for many years, with credit and satisfaction.

In Gardiner-street, Margaret Mary, relict of the late Francis Magan, of Emoe, Esq.

In Kilkenny, at the advanced age of 95, Margaret, relict of the late Richard Lower, Esq. and previously relict of the late George Reade, of Bawnavrona, county Tipperary, Esq.

At New-Ross, of fever, the Rev. George Chapman, R. C. Curate.

In Dublin, of cholera, Mary, daughter of William O'Shaughnessy, Esq. formerly of Ballingarry, county Galway.

At Dalkey, of fever, John Moore Hovenden, Esq. eldest son of the late Moore Hovenden, Ballilehane, Queen's County, Esq. Aged 84, Dorcas, relict of the late Joshua Holmes, Esq. Upper Dorset-street.

The Rev. John Cunningham, R. C. Curate of Lurgan, in Longford, of cholera, Mr. John Reynolds, Officer of Excise, and Mr. Richard Thomas, of Cork.

At Ashfield, near Longford, Andrew Gilhuly, Esq.

Mr. Patrick O'Connor, a hotel-keeper in Longford.

At Springfield, near Carrick-on-Shannon, George, son of Wynne Peyton, Esq.

At Belview, county Down, the mother of Alexander Stewart, Esq.

At Enniscorthy, Eliza, daughter of Philip M. Cooke, Esq.

In Enniskillen, John M'Elroy, Esq.

At Greenhithe, Kent, Henry George Shute, R.N. Inspecting Commander of the Coast Guard.

At Chapel-place, Cavendish-square, Major Thomas Maynor, late of the 26th Madras Native Infantry.

At Winchester, S. Deverell, Esq. aged 87.

Thomas Lloyd, Esq. Comptroller of Customs, Cardigan.

In Montagu-street, Portman-square, Sir Nesbit Josiah Wiloughby, C.B., K.C. Rear Admiral of the White, in the 72d year of his age.

Suddenly, at St. James's Palace, Miss Joanna S. Kollman, organist to the Royal German Chapel, St. James's Palace.

The Rev. Anthony Egerton Brydges, son of the late Sir Samuel Egerton Brydges, Bart.

At St. George's-place, Hyde-park-corner, Elizabeth, wife of Major-General W. Campbell, C.B.

Sir John Smyth, Bart. of Long Ashton Park, Bristol.

Anne, relict of John Fawcett, Esq. of the Theatre Royal, Covent-garden.

At Hillfield-house, Clifton, Captain Woolcombe, Royal Artillery.

At the house of his aunt, Carlton-terrace, Upper Parliament-street, Liverpool, the Rev. Henry Brewer, R. C. Clergyman of St. Anne's Chapel, Edge-hill.

At Morton House, Lincolnshire, in her 82d year, Jane, relict of the late Samuel Sandars, Esq. of Gainsborough, and mother of George Sandars, Esq. M.P. for Wakefield.

Thomas, only son of Lieut.-Colonel N. Norcliffe, Langton Hall, Yorkshire.

At Fulwood Barracks, Preston, Robert William, son of Capt. Robert Newport Tinley, 39th Regt.

At Glasgow, James Finlay, Esq. and John M'Gregor, Esq.

At Greenock, aged 80, Mr. Donald M'Laren, late of Customs, and feuar in Helensburgh.

At Hampton Manor, near London, Sir William Lowrie, Bart. of Barntham Park.

At Bath, Helen, only daughter of the late Captain James Donald, 94th Regt. and wife of William Somerset, Esq. son of Lord William Somerset.

At Brussels, Capt. William Staines Payne, late of the Royal Artillery, eldest son of the late Lieut.-Colonel Payne, of the same corps.

At Constance, in Normandy, Capt. Farrant, Royal Navy.

At Hobart Town, the lady of Captain J. Armstrong, of the 99th Regt.

At Brussels, Mary, daughter of Archdeacon Hodson.

At Hobart Town, Van Dieman's Land, Edward Paine Butler, Esq.

At the Loretto Convent, Toronto, Upper Canada, Marianne, daughter of Denis Phelan, Esq.

Saturday, in Denmark-street, Jane Sargent M'Namara, widow of Mr. T. D. M'Namara.

At Bath-view, near Mallow, Thomas Harris, Esq. J. P. late of Assolas.

On the 25th ult. at Funchal, Madeira, of consumption, aged 29 years, Robert Hugh Smith Barry, Esq. late Captain 10th Royal Hussars.