

house since the 1st of January last was 2,288, in a population of 5,742, making the mortality amount to two in every five, for twenty weeks—forty per cent.

The hospital sergeant appointed recently to Galway gaol has lost his wife from fever, and two children by cholera.

The lives of Vice-Guardians of Irish unions are not insurable!

Mr. Coffey, house-painter and decorator, George's-street, has contracted for the painting work requisite at the Lunatic Asylum, for £38, nearly half the amount of other proposals.

There is only one steam-packet on the Lower Shannon, plying with goods and passengers. Heretofore two were placed on between Limerick and Kilrush during summer.

The Central Relief Committee determined upon applying a portion of their funds towards supplying green crop seeds in the poor and remote districts of the South and West, have sent £20 worth of turnip seeds, respectively, to Ennistymon, county of Clare; Cahirciveen, county of Kerry; Scariff, county of Clare; and Dingle, county of Kerry.

The Shannon Commissioners are again attempting the drainage of that part of the river Shannon which adjoins Athlone, for the purpose of completing the evacuations necessary to continue the works so long deterred, and five hundred persons will be employed as soon as the dams are completed. These works will be conducted under the resident engineer, Lionel Gisborne, Esq.

There are ten registry notices for Ennis, to be entertained at Six-Mile-Bridge sessions on the 16th inst.

At Croom Petty Sessions, on Monday, before James Lyons, Esq., and Robert Maxwell, Esq., at the prosecution of Richard Costelloe, relieving officer, informations were ordered against Honora Carthy, nursetender in Croom fever hospital, for stealing clothing and bed linen therefrom; and against Catherine Dea, for receiving same, knowing them to be stolen.

On Thursday, before James Molony and John O'Brien, Esqrs., at the Petty Sessions, Tulla, John Markahan, of Scariff, was fined £25, for holding a sale by auction at Tulla, unlicensed.

An attorney, at one time of some eminence in Waterford, is getting a living by working as a day labourer on a railroad in America.

The barque, Ruth, of Ipswich, Taylor, from Ipswich to St. John's, in ballast, foundered at sea 26th inst., off Skellig's light. The master and crew saved their lives by taking to the long boat—they reached Canlagh bay, river Kenmare, on Sunday morning.

At Drummin fair, on Monday, beef rated at £2 2s. per cwt. A few cows had been sold. Prime beef, a bad supply. Mutton rated at 5d. per lb. Strippers, from £5 to £7 each, and in much better demand, from the late rains. Lambs, from 10s. to 12s. each.

Foreign butter declined 4s. per cwt. on Monday last in the London market, and the home made article 4s. to 6s. The Irish butter trade was never, at any time, so depressed as at present. There has been no export of Butter from Limerick for the last four months.

The Commissioners of Public Works will decide on the 26th inst., at the Custom-house, Dublin, upon the application of Sir W. Beecher for £150; Sir R. A. Donel for £1,500; Lord Rossmore for £1,377; Thos. S. Dennis, Esq., Iraghticonorr, for £3,678; Marquis of Thomond for £1,214; and Sir John Carden £1,764; to improve their lands under the recent act.

Mr. M. B. Meredith, of Dicksgrrove, is a candidate for the Grand Jury cess collectorship of Trughenacmy, Kerry, vacant by Mr. R. Nash's death.

The Irish Bank returns for the last month show a contraction in the circulation of £89,000.

Mr. John Kelly, of Woodmount, agent to the Hon. Colonel Sewell, levelled fifty-six houses at Creggs, near Ballygar, county Galway, last week, and so many families turned out, were left by the way-side, without a penny to provide a meal.

THE POTATO—The following gratifying communication is from Mr. Allman Professor of Botany, Trinity College:—"The more careful examination which I have just given to the case of suspected potato disease, fully bears out the opinion I formed at first sight—namely, that it is not an example of the disease. The plants are certainly injured, and I feel convinced will never bring their tubers to perfection; but I have no hesitation in considering the specimens examined as free from the peculiar specific affection which has for many years laid waste our potato crops—and whose repeated recurrence must convince the most sanguine that no reliance ought any longer to be placed on a vegetable so eminently precarious."

Bateman, the comic vocalist, of "the Shades" notoriety, when last on his rounds through this province, used as theatre tickets, papers very similar to Bank of Ireland notes, except that niggers playing the banjo, and cutting

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at his house in Charleville, after eight days illness, of fever, the Rev. William Hall, Rector of Killshannick, in the Diocese of Cloyne, and lately Rector of Charleville. But a very few weeks have elapsed since his late flock learned with sorrow the separation about to take place between them and a beloved pastor, who had ministered to them for several years, and was now about to remove to another field of labor, through the approbation of his Diocesan. Little did they think that so very soon they would "sorrow most of all because they should see his face no more."

On Friday last, at Churchtown, county Cork, to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends, Sarah, relict of the late Patrick Barry, Esq. M.D. and niece of Sir Edward Tierney, Bart. She was a fond and devoted mother, and her loss will long be deplored by her sorrowing children.

At Cooper Hill, John Francis, youngest son of James Barry, Esq.

At Clarina, aged 101 years, Mrs. Bridgeman.

At his son's house, in William-street, Mr. Stephen O'Donnell, of Rathkeale, Leather Merchant, aged 72 years.

In Dingle, of cholera, in the prime of life, Ventry De Moleyns, Esq. son of the Hon. Captain De Moleyns, and cousin to Lord Ventry.

At the family residence, Dicksgrrove, near Castleisland, after a lingering illness, in the 78th year of his age, William Meredith, Esq. J.P. Captain Meredith raised the Castleisland Yeomanry corps, which he continued to command till it was disembodied; and he filled the duties of Grand Juror and Justice of the Peace for the County.

At Moonrudi, county of Waterford, aged 72 years, the Rev. Stephen Dickson, Vicar of Dungarvan, and Prebendary of Cairn Castle, diocese of Connor.

At his residence at Ashton-place, near Cork, Henry Hardy, Esq. Coroner for said city, in the 77th year of his age.

At Skibbereen, Michael Doyle, Esq. Comptroller of Customs.

At Belleville, Cork, of typhus fever, the residence of his father, Charles Daniel Murphy, youngest son of Daniel Murphy Esq. in his 23rd year.

At Cove, Mary, wife of Lieut. Robinson, R.N. and daughter of the late C. Owens, Esq. who died on the 2d inst. aged 84.

Elizabeth, wife of Gilbert Lloyd, Esq. Millview, Kanturk.

Of cholera, at her sister's house, Staughton's Row, Tralee, Avise, relict of the late Doctor Kennedy, of Milltown, and daughter of the late James Eagar, Esq. J.P. of Cottage.

Of cholera, in Tralee, Margaret, wife of Mr. James Stack, saddler, and sister of the late Major Stack, of the 45th Regt.

Mr. Daniel Casey, sen. of Market-street, Cork, aged 75.

Of cholera, at Air-hill, the residence of her son-in-law, Dr. Sweetman, Elizabeth, relict of the late Jas. Long, Esq.

At Templemore, of cholera, E. Badcliffe, Esq. of the military engineering department.

At Glasheen Nursery, Cork, Mr. Thomas Jones, aged 89.

In Carrick-on-Suir, of cholera, Mr. M. Russell, upholsterer.

At Tuam, of cholera, Constable Pat M'Hale.

At Youghal, Capt. Maurice Gibbons, of the schooner "Peter and Mary;" also Mr. George Farmer, cabinet-maker.

At Rosstrevor, Davis George Croghan, Esq. M.D. son of the late Rev. D. Croghan, of Mohill, county Leitrim.

At Sibyl Hill, John Barlow, son of the Rev. William Barlow, Vicar of Carlingford.

In Dublin, of cholera, Mr. C. Dunlop, late of Belfast, brass founder.

In Tuam, of cholera, Miss Newcomen.

Mr. Perry, master of one of the auxiliary workhouses of Ballinasloe, of cholera.

At Dungarvan, Mr. Philip.

At Naas, Henry Harrington, Esq.

At Rosstrevor, in her 87th year, Mrs. Wray, relict of the late Lieut.-Colonel Wray.

At Heytesbury-street, Dominick P. Ronayne, Esq. late of Youghal.

At Belleview, county Kildare, Jonas Duckett, Esq.

At Athlone, of fever, Samuel, eldest son of William Sproule.

At Lower Gardiner-street, David, son of the late James Gausson, Esq. of Lake Lodge, county of Londonderry.

At his residence, Anglesea-street, Mr. S. Newman, Book-seller.

At Lower Gloucester-street, Maria, relict of Richard White, Esq. of White Hall, Drumcondra.

Catherine, wife of Mr. John M'Donnell, of Holly-Ville, Rathmines.

At Swansea, Lucy Hurly, wife of Charles Newburgh Tisdall, Esq. and daughter of Alexander Elliott, Esq. late of Tralee.

At Hull, on the 3rd inst. after a protracted illness, Robert Keddey, Esq.

At Harrow School, the Hon. Francis Ashley, aged 17, second son of Lord Ashley.

In Berners-street, Lieut.-Colonel John Crosdill, C.B. formerly of the Madras Artillery.

At Grove-house, Upper Holloway, Mr. James Gurney, sen.

In Portland-place, Frances Ellen Jeannette, second daughter of John Bentley, Esq.

Thomas Hawes, Esq. of Lavender Hill, Wandsworth, in his 84th year.

At Haslar, Capt. John Compton, R.N., Lieut. Chas. Atkins, R.N., Lieut. John Compton, H.M.S. Victory, Lieut. Troughton, R.N.

At Winchester, aged 84, Dr. Chard, organist of Winchester Cathedral and the College, which office he held 50 years.

At Dover, Captain Charles Close, h.p. R.A.

John Fielden, Esq. for several years the representative of Oldham in the House of Commons.

At Rye-lane, Peckham, Mr. Nathaniel Stock, aged 75, for 52 years clerk of the Bank of England.

At Wilmslow, Cheshire, Emma Rebecca, eldest daughter of R. C. Macdonald, Esq. of Castle Tioram, Prince Edward's Island, Paymaster 30th Regiment.

At Rochester, Miss Sarah M'Lean, sister of the late Lachlan M'Lean, Esq. Paymaster of Pensions, Greenwich Hospital.

Elizabeth, wife of John Williams, Esq. late of the 12th Lancers, and daughter of Michael Williams, Esq. of Trevince.

At Bath, aged 94, General T. R. Charlton, late of the Royal Artillery.

In Mulvern-place, Bedminster, Jennett, relict of Ensign Henry Bowen, 3rd Royal Veteran Battalion.

R. M'Gregor, Esq. of Glasgow.

At Kirk Ella, near Hull, Anne, relict of the late J. Sykes, Esq. aged 81.

At Brussels, Catherine, wife of Major Willems, and daughter of the late Captain Olabon, 58th Regiment.

At the residence of her father, North King-street, Miss Teresa O'Farrell.

At Paris, Madame Dorval, the great tragic actress.

At Barbadoes, Mary Sarah Lake, wife of Lt.-Col. Anton.

At Longford, of cholera, Jane, wife of Mr. Richard Robinson, Wesleyan Preacher.

MONTHLY MILITARY OBITUARY.

Generals—Hon. Sir Edward Paget, G.C.B. Col. 28 F. Gov. of