

ner serve the society by orders of plain work, and king of dresses. The branch meetings, always held a month, 'till the famine, are necessarily postponed. Some of the higher classes suffer intensely, and can give no help 'till harvest.

A memorial for the admission of the grand children of a Lieut.-Colonel, and the children of a gentleman connected with some of the first families in this county, to have been presented this year, was withheld in the forlorn hope that their necessity might in some other way be obviated. Hence, then, is the support of this widely-extended institution to be derived during the two ensuing months? Are the hearts of its friends to fail because they see not the springs of that admirable machine by which Divine Providence rules the world? No! Christians walk by faith not by sight; and assuredly one that trust in God, thro' Christ, and do His will, shall be disappointed. Abundant help will be sent in the way most conducive to His glory, and He who delivered thro' so many and great trials will not forsake His own work. Meanwhile all should "pray without ceasing" that our sore visitations may be sanctified to His kingdom, and that, if the Lord will, a good harvest may be granted to cheer the hearts and relieve the wants of His suffering people. The annual report is in the press, and will be shortly printed.

Gentlemen serving on grand and record juries are earnestly requested to remember the orphan and the widow. If they and other friends saw the orphans in the Training school this day, so cheerfully and gratefully eating their frugal fare, after hard and well regulated work, they would gladly help so valuable an institution.
