

days season.
the Lunatic Asylum at sons, at 15s. per week.
workmen of "good
force at this price.
et, on Thursday, 105
o 36s. a firkin.

(part of our last.)
Chamber of Commerce

N, oted subjects, the Prembers of the Chamber joyfully and humbly
occasion of your gra-
the assurance of our attachment to your

n of a Royal Charter, welfare of trade and
it our duty to abstain opinion on questions of ewith. But we claim
lege of greeting our essing our heartfelt
may long enjoy the
er virtuous and en-

sty as the harbinger afflicted country, and ates your royal inte-
followed by the earters to alleviate and
s pleased Providence
ial energies of Ireland.
be induced to repeat
subjects, we fondly
third in importance,
tion—the honor and
nce. Nor can we for-
of which our city is ilities and extent of
be deemed an object
vereign of this great

GHT, President.
VEY, Vice-President.
ROLL, Secretary.

the late Allan Macdowall, Esq. of Park Hill, St. Vincent.
Robert Remington, Esq. Fort Hill, Banbridge, to Catherine, daughter of the late John Cochrane, Esq, merchant, Coleraine.
Thomas, son of the late John Walpole, Esq. of Cavan, to Lydia Clibborn, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Greer, Esq.
Dungannon.
At Teston, Edward Leigh Pemberton, Esq. of Lincoln's Inn,
to Matilda, daughter of the Hon. and Rev. Francis J. Noel.
At Froyle, Win. Smith Nicholson, Captain, 28th or Camero-nians, to Charlotte, daughter of the Rev. Sir T. Miller, Bart.
At Easterhill, Lanarkshire, Francis R. Sandford, Esq. eldest son of the late Sir Daniel K. Sandford, to Margaret, daughter of Robert Findlay, Esq.

DEATHS.

On Tuesday, the 7th inst. at Rathkeale Cottage, in this County, Julius Dolmage, Esq. late Captain of the 4th Foot, aged 77.
Suddenly, Thomas Butler, Esq. son to the late Hon. Colonel Butler, M.P. and brother to P. Somerset Butler, Esq. M.P.
for the county Kilkenny.
At Clonakilty, county Cork, of cholera, James H. Owgan, Esq.
son of the late John Owgan, Esq.
At Blackrock, Cork, Mrs. O'Donnell, aged 87.
Of cholera, Robert Fisher Carroll, Esq. medical practitioner, late of Bandon, county Cork, aged 21 years.
At Kingstown, John Kelly, Esq. of Gort Kelly Castle, county
Tipperary.
In Mary-street, Mr. John Cantwell, house painter.
Of malignant fever, Miss Eliza Browne, aged 19 years, late assistant schoolmistress to the Parsonstown union.
At Castle View, Carberry, Thomas Grattan Holt, of Sallins Lodge, county Kildare, Esq.
Elizabeth Mary, wife of Michael Molony, Esq. M.D.
At his residence, Leinster-street, of cholera, Mr. Thomas Large.
Charlotte, daughter of Mr. Joseph Farrell, of Enniscorthy.
At Kingstown, James Henry, son of Michael Barry, Esq.
Cornelius Sullivan, Esq. of Upper Merrion-street.
At Elm Ville, Sandymount, Catherine, wife of Wm. Young, of Bachelor's Walk.
At Hull, on the 8th inst. the infant daughter of Mr. Thomas Colgan.
At Dedham, Essex, Mary Eleanor, daughter of the late Venerable Thomas Warburton, Archdeacon of Norfolk, aged 78.
Dr. John Reid, professor of anatomy and medicine in the College of St. Andrew's.
John Edward Bowater, Esq. of Woolwich.
At Winchester, Mary Anne, wife of Captain George Davis.
In Park-street, Grosvenor-square, Col. Broadhead, aged 77.
At Brompton, of apoplexy, Henry Wadlow, for thirty years
boxkeeper at her Majesty's theatre and the French plays.
At Falmouth, of cholera, Mr. George Hall, messenger of the House of Commons.
At Madeira, Dr. Gilham.
At Demerara, George Perrin Wallace, son of George Perrin
Wallace, Rochford House, Esq.
At Halifax, Nova Scotia, in the prime of life, on the 4th July, Hugh, eldest son of John Parks, Esq. Ballycastle, Carlingford.
At Trincomalee, Flora, wife of Captain H. W. Underwood, Ceylon Rifles.
At Genoa, Margaret Smyth, wife of Lieut.-Colonel Thomas Fothergill, of Kingthorp, Yorkshire.
At his residence, Royal Canal Terrace, of malignant cholera, the Rev. C. Murphy, D.D., chaplain to the North Union workhouse, Dublin.

T
Bar
Acr
Acr
T pert
Bar
ded
2,00
One
Ror
lot
HIN
scen T
of G
ted.
T
seco
Wec
Nov
T Hall
be s
the
A
situa
Cour
and
the
and T
men
D. S Lonc
upon
Pow
Lodg
of M
at M mers
T each
T Boek
G
ted a appl
Mr.