

"JOHN FREWEN."

ascended the platform, Frewen ially by the hand. Fogarty said ffold but recorded in his cell, in pre-Bourke, and John Fitzgerald, turn-g declaration :—
As I am to appear before God for day, I wish to declare solemnly that de by some of the witnesses on my re was a sinful intimacy existing e female, Catherine Dillon, is false ;
in my life, even had a bad thought t respect.'

"JOHN FOGARTY."

on made no verbal or written g been adjusted, the fatal bolt was few minutes the three victims were rnity. Frewen died in great agony, ward manner in which the noose of behind his ear. Fogarty expired struggle, and the world closed on two or three convulsive heavings.—
she beat her breast twice, imploring
the drop fell, she could be distinctly wd, exclaiming, "Lord have mercy have mercy upon me."

Fogarty, a very old woman, was a cution, and did not shed a tear, but deeply moved. The uncle of Frewen w of the County Infirmary, opposite on his knees to pray when the fatal

e, under Sub-Inspector Williams, front of the prison during the exeat multitude of persons had assem-

Catherine Dillon was given to her taken down from the drop.

PROFITABLE INVESTMENT
PERSON WILLING TO LEND £300 or £400.

on annuity for life of a most healthy able person, aged under 40 years, argeable upon Property held for lives
r, yielding nearly £500 a-year profit
his County ; original lease of same ar 1713.

ve discharged all Rents up to the last

NO WANTED, £1,000,

y an assignment of a mortgage of r cent. interest, regularly paid, on y well circumstanced as above.

apply to Messrs. DELMEGE & FER-Gloucester-street, Dublin, or Rathmerick ; to SAMUEL UPTON, Esq.,
y Limerick, or to MICHAEL M'MA-Litchelstown.

August 11.

TEA!

respectfully invited to make trial of the TEAS of

ina Tea Company,

on Sale by their Agents—

Italian Warehouse, 43, George's-st.
DER, do. 26, Patrick st., Limerick, ly receiving Fresh Supplies at the following

duced Prices :

OU TEA, 3s. 8d. per lb.
AKFAST do., 4s. 0d. " (mended) 4s. 8d. "

re all of the most useful kinds, and ackages, the character of the Com-ee to the Public for their Genuine

JOSHUA BEWLEY, Actuary.

DEATHS.

On Sunday night, at Carrignahon, quite suddenly, Madame O'Grady, wife of O'Grady, Kilballyowen, in this County.

Yesterday morning, in Clare-street, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with christian patience, Philip Creagh, Esq. aged 65 years, sincerely regretted.

At Ballina, county Mayo, after a few hours illness, Elizabeth wife of Francis Knox, Esq.

At Queenstown, of cholera, Edward Hungerford, Esq. aged 20 years, son of Thomas Hungerford, Esq. of Cahirmore.

On Monday, in Cork, of cholera, John J. Galwey, Esq. Town Councillor.

At Mardyke Parade, of cholera, in his 74th year, Edward Keily, Esq. for a number of years Comptroller of Customs in Cork.

At Singland, of fever, sincerely regretted, Mr. Patrick Fitzgerald, a respectable and industrious farmer, whose demise is a source of deep affliction to his family and relatives.

In Market Alley, Mr. Thady Duhigg, Victualler.

Walter W. Harris, Esq. M.D. Cork.

At Richmond Barracks, Dublin, Lieut. Samuel Snelling, of the 40th Regiment, aged 41 years.

Of cholera, W. M. Browne, Esq. of Cork.

At her residence, Albert-place, Cork, Elizabeth Clewlow, relict of the late Sam. R. Perry, Esq.

At Ballyard, Tralce, Arabella, relict of the late David Fitzgerald, Esq. Solicitor.

At Cork, of an attack of diarrhoea, Margaret, wife of Henry Sheane, Esq. of Banagher.

Of dropsy, at the residence, of her sister, Mrs. D'Arcy, Drumcondra Terrace, Emily Augusta, eldest daughter of the late William Handcock, Esq. of Rathmoyle House, Queen's County.

At Wellington-square, Cork, of cholera. Christopher, son of Mr. Francis Minton ; and next day, Caroline, his wife.

At Grand Parade, Mrs. John Macnamara.

In Barrack-street, Nenagh, aged 13 years, Anne, daughter of Mr. Edward Gleeson.

Of apoplexy, at his residence, Booterstown, Henry Lanauze, Stock Broker, aged 63 years.

At Nile-street, Cork, Mary, relict of Mr. John Moynihan, butter merchant.

At Shandon-street, Catherine, wife of Mr. Jeremiah Murphy.

At De Vesci Place, Monkstown, in his 79th year, Samuel Bell Labatt, Esq. M.D.

At his residence, Wellington-square, Richard O'Donnell, Esq.
merchant and distiller of Kilkenny, and father of Matthew O'Donnell, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.

At Kingstown, Mr. Hugh Joseph Maguire.

At Russell-street, aged 14 years, Felicia Hemans, daughter of the late James Steele Huston, Esq. M.D. Surgeon, 22d Foot.

At her residence, Lower Camden-street, Jane, wife of Ralph O'Halloran, Esq. aged 32 years.

In Leinster-road, Bathmines, of consumption, in the 26th year of her age, Maryanna, daughter of the late Rev. James George Purcell, Vicar of Warminghall, Bucks.

Aged 56 years, Anne, wife of James Kerr, Esq. of Dublin.

At Kingstown, of cholera, G. D. Webster, Esq. of Nottingham.

Aged 90 years, at his residence, Dorset-street, Wm. Drury, Esq. late of the Customs.

At Ross, near Manorhamilton, Thomas, eldest son of Major Armstrong, aged 24 years, late chief pay clerk under the Board of Works.

James Kenney, Esq. many years a respectable medical practitioner in Sligo.

At her residence, Upper Gardiner-street, Mrs. Duff, widow of the late Michael Duff, Esq. of Drogheda, in her 70th year, of disease of the heart.

At Sydney Avenue, Mrs. Ellen Tomkinson.

At Caroline-row, Mr. Richard Fearnley.

Of cholera, at Belfast, James O'Neill Falls, Esq.

At Warrenpoint, Arthur Palmer Mayne, of Rathbran Lodge, county Meath, Esq.

At Abbeyshrule, Longford, Mr. William Coates.

At Raphoe, Moses Wilson, Esq. Solicitor.

After a short illness, at the Downs, Clifton, Mary, wife of Edward Savage, Esq. of the county Down, and sister to J. J.
Willington, Esq. of Killooskea Castle, county Tipperary.

At the family residence in St. James's-square, the Countess of Dartmouth.

At Devonport, of cholera, Captain and Brevet George Ogle
Moore, 82d Regt.

At his residence, Carrow Cottage Shepherd's Bush, in his 42d year, Capt. John Francis Grant, late of 1st West India Regt.

At Southsea, Elizabeth, widow of Capt. G. Tupman, R.N.

Maria, wife of Oliver Anderton, Esq.

At Camberwell, Mr. Henry George Stahlschmidt, Accountant
General's Office, Post Office.

At Morden, Surrey, Rosa Mary, wife of J. C. Rutter, Esq.

William Tyrie, Esq. of St. Catherine Hall, Cambridge.

At Jermyn-street, Henry Burton, M.D. senior Physician of St. Thomas's Hospital.

At Cambridge Terrace, Hyde Park, Philip Winsor, Esq. R.N.

At St. Peter's Parsonage, Hackney-road, Susanna, wife of the Rev. J. G. Packer, Incumbent.

At the Barracks, Dundee, Annesley Charles, youngest son of Major DeRenzey, Barrack-master, aged 14 years.

Mildred, widow of Francis Pope, Esq. 34th Regt. and late of Princes Rishorough, Bucks.

Shortly after his return from the Mauritius, Captain William Robert Lewis, of the 12th Regt. son of the late T. H. Lewis, Esq. of Norland-place, Notting-hill.

At Waterford, Captain Thomas Richard Derinzy, late of the 83d Regt. Staff Officer of Pensioners, aged 34.

At his father's residence, Wellington-square, Cork, in the 17th year of his age, of cholera, Peter, eldest son of John Bernard, jun. Esq.

At Kilkenny, Richard O'Donnell, Esq.

ing, Horses, Glass
also a Sett of Irish lands, a small quan
Cases only of Cham
Sale at 12 o'Clock
and removed in one

J. B. has been about 1500 vols. of catalogue is in co
can be seen, but m
the time of sale.

CORON

COUNTY OF CLARE,
to wit.

JOHN COSTELLO,
Plaintiff.
RICHARD FLOYD,
Defendant.

her Majesty's Writ
me directed, viz. :—
About
" "
" "

One Horse, Donkey
ness, Hay, Turf, a ture, &c.

Knocknaskeha is
and within 2½ miles
JOH

August 15.

22

FOR DIRECT

(Wind a
On or about
The Double
UNITED ST

Of New York, 45

THOMAS CURT

This established to Limerick, after received on board h
after a passage of 2
of life. Capt. C
humane, attentive, Emigrant Ship, we respectable Passeng

The superior acco
TREAL," such a
Cabin, State Cabi
sisting of 10lbs. of Vinegar, and an a each Passenger, an ment from the C
appears in the Am
the Passengers, sh ducement to at on and favourite Ship

Ryan,
General Emigra
Office, I