

a more peaceable state. This auxiliary ed an additional tax upon the county of ar., and in the present distressed state of he did not think they ought to be put to a ng of unnecessary expense. The usual d to them (400 men) was quite sufficient all the duty which would be required in the l, therefore, he thought they ought to with his Excellency on the subject, and to re-consider the matter.

he magistrates present, among whom were Whitty, Mr. Bindon Blood, and Mr.
not think it would be judicious to remove er of men at the present time from the on the eve of the harvest, and at a period or relief would be almost totally stopped ous unions, and it was to be feared there increase of crime which would render this ary. Archdeacon Whitty remarked that at deal to do as a magistrate, he did not in his district they had a single policemen erald observed that those who did not additional force could be dispensed with,

n the memorial.
orial was then read to the meeting by Mr.
ad was subsequently signed by a large
he magistrates present.

petty sessions, on Wednesday; a car driver as was prosecuted by a gentleman for iving on the road from Kilrush last Satur-ntinuing to do so against all remonstrations, set another passenger car into a dyke on The magistrates fined the offender 10s.
mprisonment, and complimented the gen-aving brought the fellow before the bench, le to others.

of a farmer named Thomas Grant, of King's County, was attacked on Wednesby four armed men, with their faces they beat him with guns, demanded fire carried off a bank book.
belonging to James Daly, of Grogan, near King's County, was burned by incen-Thursday night.

of weighmaster, Cork, is vacant by the Delany.
erary Sheriff evicted forty families off a Killoscully, on Wednesday. The proced to Mr. Crozier Molony, but is now in a Master in Chancery.

morning, at an early hour, Mr. Gason Loughorna, within two miles of Nenagh, housed about one hundred individuals.—
is in the meshes of the Court of Chancery.
named Thomas Hogan, who was in despon-the emigration of his family, flung himself at Clonmel, on Saturday last, and was Gerald, of Kilshavana, near Edenderry, e farmer, in comfortable circumstances, left on Thursday morning, with his gun to fields, and in about two hours after, his und suspended from a tree, the misguided put a period to his existence by stranguhis own pocket handkerchief, which was the neck. Deceased has left a wife and five lay the body of a man (aged 66 years) nel Banon, who resided near Lisaduff, was ngle of a field, within two hundred yards ng, in a mutilated state. There were seven ounds on his head, inflicted by stones.

Jordan fair the quantity of stock offered not as large as on former occasions, and inferior description. The demand was ir being but few buyers,

DEATHS.

August 11th, at Dover, after a long and painful illness, the Rev. William C. Purdon, Vicar of Loxley, Warwickshire, and second son of the late William Causabon Purdon, Esq. of Tinerana, county-Clare.
On Wednesday morning, at No. 3, Glentworth-street, Limerick, Mrs. Rebecca Christie, aged 87 years.
On Sunday, at his seat, Tullygarron, near Tralee, very sincerely lamented, Francis Chute, Esq. Magistrate and Grand Juror, county Kerry.
At Tramore, after a short illness, Amy Irwin, daughter of the late Judge Chamberlain, and wife of the Archdeacon of Ossory.
On Tuesday evening, of fever, to the inexpressible grief of his fond wife and dearly beloved brother and relatives, John O'Donnell, of Kilbreedy, Esq. in his 59th year. As a constant benefactor of the poor and labouring class of the neighbourhood, Mr. O'Donnell's death will be long felt and deeply deplored.
Of cholera, in Cork, Mary Anne, daughter of Philip Connell, Esq. of Fethard; Alexander T. O'Driscoll, Esq. of Norton Cottage; John Healy, Esq.
At Kinnitty, King's County, the residence of her son-in-law, James W. Walsh, Esq. M.D. Jane, relict of the late John Smyth Willcocks, Esq. of Janeville, Fermoy, county Cork.
At Wellington-square, Cork, of cholera, in his 18th year, John William, only son of A. K. Fox, Esq. County Inspector of Police.
At Cahir Barracks, in her 58th year, after a short but severe illness, Mary, wife of W. B. Frizell, Esq. Barrack Master at that station.
The Rev. Alexander Mahony, P.P. of Blackrock, of cholera.
Dr. Meredith, House Surgeon, South Infirmary, Cork, of cholera.
In Ballina, of cholera, Elizabeth, relict of Patrick Kemple, Esq. of Blackhall Parade, Dublin.
At St. Luke's Place, Cork, of cholera, Bridget, relict of Jeremiah Callaghan, Esq. Springville, Kanturk.
Of cholera, Margaret, eldest daughter of Philip Mullins, Margaret-street, Cork.
At the Presentation Convent, Doneraile, of fever, Mrs. Mary Charles O'Brien, in her 43rd year, and 20th of her religious profession.
At his residence, Millview, Bantry, of cholera, P. Kingston, Esq. aged 50 years.
At Cloyne, Mrs. Kenealy.
In Upper Gardiner-street, the Dowager Lady Bibton, in the 94th year of her age.
At Mountjoy-square, the Hon. Sophia Henzell, aged 79 years, only surviving sister of the late Lord Boyne, and relict of the late Rev. Bigoe Henzell.
Aged 80, at Woolwich, Lieut. General Alexander Watson, Royal Artillery. He served with distinction at Flanders, the Holder, Cape of Good Hope, Monte Video, and Buenos Ayres.
John Healy, Esq. of Beresford-street, aged 45 years.
In Lower Baggot-street, Mlle. Maria B. Germet.
At Killanly Glebe, county Sligo, the Rev. James Burrowes, Vicar of Castleconnor and Kilglass, at the age of 81 years.
At Donaghmore, county Tyrone, of disease of the heart, Parnell Neville, second son of the Rev. Michael Kearney.
At Upper Dorset-street, Mrs. Eliza Clinch, relict of the late James Bernard Clinch, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.
At Moyne Glebe, Samuel Hume, son of the Rev. Samuel Ferguson.
At Mountjoy-place, Miss Eliza Rorke.
At Kingstown, Mr. Francis Donnelly.
Mary, wife of Mr. William Herbert, of Upper Dorset-street.
After a few hours' illness, Mary Ann, second daughter of George Papworth, Esq. Marlborough-street.
At Cushendall, Randal M'Donnell, Esq.
At Belfast, Adam M'Clean, Esq. aged 83.
At Beachey House, Guernsey, the residence of J. P. Armstrong, Esq. Elizabeth, relict of Wm. Bigoe Armstrong, Esq.
of Garry Castle House, King's County.
In London, Edmund John Moylan, Esq. late of Cork.
In her 83d year, Charlotte, widow of T. Seymour Hilde, Esq.
Major Northampton Militia, Assistant Master of the Ceremonies, and Marshal in the household of the Queen.
At South View, Isle of Wight, Georgianna, wife of James Cope, Esq. aged 82.
At Tynedale-place, Islington, Mary, relict of Mr. Zachariah Bunnell, in her 86th year.
At Buckingham-street, Adelphi, Andrew Duncan, Esq.
Mr. Joseph Jupp, of Regent-street.
At New York, Mr. John Delmege, aged 44 years, native of the county Limerick.
Sir John Reade, Consul at Tunis.
In the East Indies, G. J. Cassamajor, Esq. late of the Madras Civil Service.
At Geneva, Adolphus Turner, late Charge d'Affaires to the Republic of Uruguay, son of the late General Sir Hillgrove Turner.
At Raja's Choultry, on his way to Bangalore, Lieut. W. G.
Cassidy, of her Majesty's 51st Regt.
Of cholera, at Dungarvan, Mrs. Baker, Mr. B. Dyer, postmaster, Miss Ellen and Miss Carbery, Mrs. Parks, Miss Shea, Mr. Paid, Mrs. Hearn, Miss Brown, and Mrs. Uniacke.
At Ballina, Charles Atkinson, Esq. Coroner; the wife of Dr.
Delvin; Mrs. Studdert, Mrs. Rutledge, of cholera.
At Kingstown, after a few hours' illness, the Rev. William Jerard Roper, Rector of Monaghan, eldest son of the late Very Rev.
the Dean of Clonmacnoise.
At Portsmouth, of cholera, Captain Robert Smith, R.N.

Old Malt
of Drawers
Harness, B
Furniture,
Delph, Tal

HAS THE HE
TO S
On Tues
AT No. 7,
ABOUT 35
A CORN,
vonshire CID
two do. Old SHERRY (in three Chests o
2
8 Barrels of Copper Meas
Casks, Stillio
Gross of Wi
Glass-case and
do. and set of Chimney and Etchings, 3 S
Work Table.
Chairs, Iron E
tresses, Carpet
Meat Safe, Sm
of Dinner Wa
canners, Tum
Bath, Gun C
Sideboard, Set
2 American Clo
Tables, Books
Toilet Glasses
Clothes Horse,

August 18.
The Mer
3M
ASSU
5, CHAT

And Incorporat
Guarantee

John Mac
Quarles Harris
Jeffery Smith,
The principle
Society is found most fair, just,
is, therefore, the Advan
Policies Indis
Ample security
on premiums.
Tables prepar
The whole profi
surances on a si
ships. Assurat wards. Annuit dowments. Su secured for chil
Prospectuses
LIMERICK—S
licitor, 5, Glen
THOMAS B
worth-st. Medi