MURDER.—John Ryan, a respectable farmer, residing near Cappamore, in this county, was brutally murdered convenient to his own house, on Saturday night. Next morning the body of the unfortunate victim was found by his family on the roadside, dreadfully mangled, the head having been nearly severed from the body, with a reaping-hook. Deceased, who was reputed wealthy, had the character of a usurer, and the only assignable reason for the perpetration of the foul deed is, that he had proposed for five acres of land from which a defaulting tenant named William Gavin had been removed. The police having arrested Gavin on suspicion, spots of blood were observed on his clothes, and he has been committed for examination. An inquest was held on Sunday, when a verdict of wilful murder was returned against some persons as yet unknown.

By the second annual report of the Poor Law commissioners for Ireland just issued, there were on the 30th June last 786,902 persons on the out door relief lists, and 214,867 in workhouses. The poor law unions of Munster owed at the above date an aggregate sum of £249,224, Connaught £143,746, Leinster £47,090, and Ulster only £16,088.

ENNIS UNION.—The weekly meeting of guardians was held on Friday, Sir Lucius O'Brien, Bart. in the chair. A communication was received from the auditor, Mr. Simms, relative to the sums with which he had debitted the various chairmen respectively, in consequence of having ordered relief to parties not legally entitled to it; and pressing his demand. Mr.
 Thomas Keane said that he had seen a property at Cloney the day before on which there were 16 tenants, and 11 of these were receiving relief (hear). Their land was well cropped, yet there were 3 rates due on it, tho' the rate collector himself lived on the spot, and held part of the land. There was £1,000 of property on it at present (hear). The chairman remarked that it was a good specimen of the manner in which the new Poor Law works (hear.) It was then decided by a majority of 23 to 5 that the tenders for rye and barley meal should not be opened, but that the board should adhere to their original contract with Messrs. Russell, who had lost £3,000 by their former contract with the union, and Mr. R. Russell subsequently struck ten per cent. off the contract price, for which the guardians thanked him.

The vice guardians of Ennistymon have declared a rate of 4s to 6s 2d in the pound in the electoral districts of the union.

All the electoral divisions of Killarney union are rated 3s. in the pound, poor rate.

There was not a single death among the inmates of Dingle workhouse last week.

Cahiriveen, from having been an extremely dirty town, has, under the sanatory arrangements carried out by the Vice-Guardians and Poor Law Inspector,
