

The Bishop of Down has appointed the Rev. Henry Johnston to the living of Drumgath, vice his brother, the H. Walsh, Bart., resigned.
The Lord Bishop of Ossory will hold his visitation at Kilkenny, on the 9th October.

To Parents and Guardians.

MISS M. SULLIVAN takes leave to announce to the Gentry and respectable Inhabitants of Limerick and its Vicinity, that she gives Lessons in MUSIC AND DRAWING to Young Ladies, either at her own residence or at their houses, at hours suiting convenience.
She would find it practicable to devote a portion of her time to a few Families near the City, to give instructions in the above much-admired accomplishments.
Having studied her profession under Masters of superior merit, and having obtained considerable experience in teaching, she hopes to meet encouragement in her native City.
TERMS MODERATE.
Commands addressed to her, 15, Upper Cecil-street, will be punctually attended to.
Sept. 15.
