

Country is covered, and an imperious and irresistible—these drawbacks, with tenants, and the poverty of the potato in many places, form a gloomy picture by the mysterious conspiracy of the humbler classes, and destruction. But so far from cause of pure and Scriptural should have the opposite. God only can rescue us. To Him, therefore, in come, by faith, will find through a darkness may be and. Deep humiliation for troubled exertions for the ex- Grateful recollection of ue, pestilence, and famine, on of "the perishing little heavenly Father. And the ng, by God's grace, who are principles. Many thus of truth will, by their pre- and to these appeals. Thus out their generous and con- ne rolled away," by more ir risen Lord revealed to thankfully acknowledges from Mrs. Harington; £2 and Miss Finley; and £1 David Fitzgerald, Esq., for the another contribution of or the Ladies Bazaar.

the Rt. Rev. Dr. Cantwell

still shut up against the of Castleconnell, appointed y, and the Roman Catholics d to have no Parish Priest wer, who has administered and for the Propagation of ceived from the 3d of Sep- r inst., £150.

Nenagh held a public meet- rath, Esq. in the chair, and demnatory of the Rt. Rev. of Rev. Mr. Kenny to that he Rev. Mr. Power, whose gh have been superior to e diocese.

railway Traffic for week engers, £180; goods and s. Total, £247.

Esq. of Harborne-park, near Birmingham.
At Hampstead, William Gordon, Esq. of the island of Ma- deira, to Emms, daughter of the late J. Fetherston, Esq. of Newbus Grange, Durham.
At Quebec, John Salisbury Davenport, Esq. Deputy Assis- tant Commissary General, son of Sir Salisbury Davenport, of Bramall Hall, Cheshire, to Anne Jane, daughter of the Hon. Sir Allan Napier M'Nab, of Dundurn Castle, Canada West.
At Madras, Gilbert D. Luttrell, Esq. to Anne, step-daughter of Colonel Young, C.B. Madras Army.
At Poonah, Henry Newton, Esq. to the daughter of Thomas Poole, Esq. of Mayfield House, Cork.

DEATHS.

On Thursday, the 4th inst. at the Glebe House, Ardcanney, the Rev. Samuel Jones, for 33 years Rector and Prebend of the Parish of Ardcanney, aged 79 years.
At Brookville, Sallymount, of heart disease, Neptune, son of William Collier, Esq. and grandson of the late Neptune Blood, of Applevale, county Clare, Esq.
Of fever, at Tarbert, on Michaelmas day, Mrs. Margaret M'Mahon, hotel-keeper, aged 64 years—universally and deeply regretted by all who knew her.
Mr. Wm. O'Brien, of Lisard, father of the Rev. John O'Brien, C.C. Drom and Inch, and of Miss O'Brien, a Nun in the Pre- sentation Convent, Limerick.
At the Middle Ghanmire-road, Cork, Miss Anne Haynes.
In Dublin, where he had gone for medical advice on a chronic disease, the Rev. Mr. Dixon, P.P. of Crook, Waterford.
In Dungarvan, Melian, wife of John Coman, Esq. M.D. and daughter of Arthur Quinn, Esq. M.D.
Fanny Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Thomas Homan Mulock, Esq. of Bellair, King's County.
At Lion's Den, county Meath, Anna Maria Caroline, wife of Captain Hoener de Mamiel, Garde du Corps of his late Majesty Charles X.
At Kilkenny, Robert Purdon, Esq.
In Dublin, Mr. Whitty, of the Post-office, brother of the Rev. Dr. Whitty.
At Clara, near Rathmelton, Samuel Morrison, Esq. Surgeon in the Royal Navy.
At Kensington Terrace, Bathmines, Martha, relict of William Yeates, Esq. of Reynoldstown, county Dublin.
At Usher's-quay, Mr. James M'Evoy.
At Dalkey, of fever, Mr. Thomas S. Rivett, for many years Officer of Mace.
At his residence in Thomas-street, Mr. Michael Cosgrave, formerly of Ballitore.
At Hollywood, Mr. George Harrison.
At Donaghadee, Emily Honora, widow of Daniel Toler Curtis, Esq.
Eliza, wife of James Wilson, hospital sergeant of the Royal Hibernian Military School.
In Liverpool, James, second son of Lieut. Christopher Atkin, of Ballyruane, county Wexford.
At Birkenhead, Mr. Wm. Pratt, brother of the Rev. Ralph Pratt, and the late Rev. John Pratt, founder of St. Werburgh Church, Birkenhead.
In London, Henry Wm. Bayley, Esq. of the Admiralty.
At Bellé-vue, Reading, Colonel David Williams, aged 82.
Major Robinson, Royal Marines.
At North-end, James Edwards, Esq. M.D. of Canterbury.
At Redland Lawn, near Clifton, Emily, wife of the Rev. Pakenham George Despard, daughter of the late Major Coffin, and niece of the late Admiral Sir Isaac Coffin, Bart.
At Brooklands, St. Helier's, Jersey, Henry Fage Belson, Esq. Commander. Royal Navy.
At Amiens, Sir Samuel Scott, Bart. of Sundridge Park, Kent, aged 77, the eminent London banker.
At Cawupore, the Hon. Spencer St. John, son of Viscount Bolingbroke.
At Madras, Sergeant-Major P. Quinlan, 7th Light Cavalry, a native of Limerick.
At Quebec, Captain James Quinn, of the barque Atalants, a native of the county Wexford.

Cork railway, and Horses, is why they young, and in fine co work up to the prese Hartigan begs le dealers who will be a above sale, therefore Hunters, Chargers, C for family purposes, as soon as possible, a October.

Sept. 22.

RAILROAD Coach

TO be immediately at KNOGGAN miles of the towns of Quay of Lisheen.)

GROSS G consisting of Ash, El Larch, Alder, Scotch over 50 years growth Railroad and other

If not taken at a valuation, the entire day to be named, in

Apply to JOHN Co anira, who will show VILLE, Gort.

TO

From the 1st day of pos

PART O

CAR

THE Estate of th late in the poss containing 66 Acres, tation measure.

The above farm is Oula, 5 of Pallas Gr there are Railway stat

The land is of first with Limestone for b It will be let for the v

Application to be m Esq. Mallow.