DEATHS.

This morning, at his residence, Nelson Place, Hugh Massy Ryves, Esq. of Newgarden, in this County, and Captain in the King's County Militia. He was a gentleman of most affable address and courteous manner—of the nicest feeling of honor—and by a large circle of friends will be long regretted, for his hospitable qualities and kindly nature. Mr. Ryves was most affectionately regarded in the domestic and social circle.

On the 6th inst., in London, Edward Raleigh Moran, Esq. many years connected with the Globe newspaper, and formerly of this City.

At Clonmel, after a short illness, Mrs. Scully, the beloved wife of Matthew Scully, Esq. Her decease has thrown into the deepest affliction an affectionate family and friends, to whom her amiable disposition and excellent qualities had endeared her.

At Bradford, Canada West, of dysentery, on 2d September, Margaret, the beloved wife of Joseph Evans, Esq. and daughter of the late Robert Ross, Esq. M.D. of Cottage, in this County.

On Sunday last, at his residence, near Pery-square, Mr. James Coomey, aged 66.

At his residence, Ower, near Headford, county Galway, John Burke, Esq. J.P. in his 70th year. He was Lieut. in the 38th Regt. at the battle of Corunna, and received the war medal.
