

at Tervoe House, took place of the labourers and their substantial dinner of beef and a plentiful supply of plumb pudding. Lady Anna Maria Monsell, the Earl of Dunraven, the Earl of ... Rev. Mr. O'Rourke, P.P. Monsell's friends, ministered to the guests. On grace being said Lady Anna Maria Monsell, by one of the tenants, accompanied by her husband and company by heartfelt gratitude to their landlord, and the knowledge of the Christian benevolence of the healths of Mr. Monsell's Lord Arundel, were also invited to. Dancing commenced almost without intermission during the evening. The national jigs, and other amusements, in which Lord

The following prices yesterday in Thomas-street:—Profit rent £240; Rice, £10 per ton; Carrots, £2; White do.,

WESTERN RAILWAY.—This line from Mallow to Blackpool, will be opened by the Lord Lieutenant on the 1st inst. Citations have been issued by the Lord Lieutenant to the gentry, merchants, traders, and others, to be given the same evening at 8 o'clock. Though the line will be opened, mail will arrive by the usual time to this city, until the 6th inst. On the forenoon Dublin will arrive at a quarter before six and half past eight o'clock. A carriage is to await the arrival of the mail at Blackpool, for the despatch to and from the Post-office. The same will be the case for the different towns in the county, which will be reached at so early an hour as to be of great service.—Constitution.

The accommodation of Coach and Stage, of which Tuam has been de-termined, will be at the Post office. A well appointed omnibus is running every second day between Tuam and which afforded much amusement. The third was a hurdle race. Won by Mr. Roe's Maid of Honour.

ENNIS UNION.—The weekly meeting of guardians was held on Friday, at the Board-room, Sir Lucius O'Brien, Bart., M.P., in the chair. The board were occupied investigating charges preferred against Major Ball for having only paid one-third instead of two-thirds of the expense of sending a number of emigrants from his estate, and that some of those alleged to have been sent out had never left the country. On full inquiry it was found that Major Ball had stated in the account he furnished to the board, a correct detail of the number he had sent out, and the expense attending their emigration. A resolution was unanimously adopted that Major Ball had expended in a proper manner the sum given to him by the board. Mr. John Shaw was declared contractor for Indian meal at £7 9s. 8d., and oatmeal at £9 18s.

The rates struck for collection are as follows:—Ennis, 3s. 10d.; Inagh, 5s. 6d.; Dysart, 2s. 6d.; Kilmaly, 3s. 6d.; Templemaley, 2s. 6d.; Quin, 3s. 6d.; Killoan, 3s. 10d.; Clare, 3s.; Bunratty, 2s. 6d.; Ruan, 3s. 10d.; Inchicronan, 3s. 10d.; Clouna, 3s.; Newmarket, 2s. 6d.; Feenagh, 3s.; Kilkenny, 1s. 6d.; Kilchreest, 3s. 10d.; Clondigad, 4s. 6d.; Clonlea 3s. 6d.

A sealed order has come to the Vice-Guardians of Galway, apprising them that the Poor Law Commissioners have struck the electoral division of Outerard, and almost the entire of the electoral division of Killanin, out of the Galway Union, and which, with portions of the Clifden Union, are to form a separate Union, to be called the Outerard Union.

A new poor law union has been struck out, composed of electoral divisions, taken from the Bandon and Skibbereen Unions, and called the "Clonakilty Poor Law Union." Mr. Hungerford is the chairman of the guardians.

Honora Hickson, (alias Ivis) wife of a farmer residing at Nautenant, in this County, died suddenly on Friday night, after returning from Rathkeale.

Government have availed of the Act for the Prevention of Crime and Outrage, to establish a separate police station at Ferbane, the scene of the murder of Mr. Gage, the expense to be borne by the townland where the revolting crime was committed.

A large reinforcement of Constabulary were sent off yesterday from Dublin to the King's County, by express, when accounts were received of the two murders and other outrages committed there last Sunday.