

of themselves—which England, whence these ificent centre piece, which ss at a bazaar in London.
 Even infants have been ovely babe will crow and
 , who brings it home a es ever seen, lined with y with Berlin wool, as to n will have less reason to rent neglect. The most roidered vests for dress—
 and must buy somewhere, y of rank, made after the oo will be seen smoking might have worn, when of the witching weed, he e Russias, and threw the r the Hungarians devoted of science, old and young, taste for what is really
 e exquisite entertainment, Bazaar by an amateur of dness to this cause of s of the Bazaar there
 olving Views, Chromatops Philosophical Buildings,
 charity, to commence w permitted to see this are in raptures with it.
 without seeing this lovely e only 1s. to grown per-
 . The refreshment stall
 e promises of contribu-this sale no departure from rectitude can occur, no compulsion, or annoyance.
 military men, rally round
 n Wednesday and Thurs-
 for admission, for refresh-hem remember that every of an institution: which,
 they, who know it best, blessed by the Lord of the r thankfully acknowledges hans, £2 10s. from Mrs.
 5 collected by E. S. E.

Treasurer of County Tip-Society has received from President of the Society,
 one of the Vice Presidents, tton, Esq. £2.

to Mary Augusta, daughter of George Rainey, Esq. of Raasay, Isle of Skye.
 In St. George's Church, Charles Gordon Ashley, of Beetcombe Court, Somersetshire, and Derrycashel, county Roscomnon, Esq. to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of James C. Cottingham, of Russell-street, Esq.
 At Clitheroe, Lancashire, M. Emilie Braun, Secretary of the Archaeological Institute of Rome, to Anne, daughter of James Thompson, Esq.
 Commander Clavell, R.N. son of the late Capt. John Clavell, R.N. to Jane, daughter of the Rev. Robert Taylor, Rector of Clifton Campville.
 At the British Embassy, Paris, George A. Croft, Esq. son of Admiral Croft, of Hillington, Yorkshire, to Clara, relict of Thomas Alexander Oakes, Esq. of the Madras Civil Service.
 In Haywood County, Tennessee, United States, Mr. J. S. W.
 Caldwell, to Miss E. Virginia, only child of Major E. Richmond; and Major E. Richmond to Mrs. E. L. Caldwell, sister of the ex-President J. H. Polk.

DEATHS.

On 22d, in Mecklenburgh-street, Dublin, Mrs. Frances Piers, wife of Richard Piers, Esq. brother of Sir Henry Piers, Bart.
 At his residence, Gardiner's-place, William Nicholas Roche, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, and formerly Stipendiary Magistrate.
 Francis Edward, son of the Rev. Robert Spread Nash, of Fermoy.
 In Jail-street, Ennis, at an advanced age, Mr. George Palmer.
 At Baker College, Galway, Mr. William Cahill, in his 28th year.
 At Tramore, Mrs. Barry, wife of Mr. Robert Barry, hotel-keeper.
 At Merino Mills, county Kilkenny, Elizabeth, relict of the late Robert Archdekin, of Kilree, Esq.
 Mr. Thomas M'Nally, late of North King-street.
 Mary, wife of Peter Murphy, Nicholas-street.
 At Denzille-street, Mrs. Elizabeth Gray.
 John, son of John Lamley Conn, of Ballyhealy, Esq. county Wexford.
 In Wexford, Mr. Martin Howlin, builder.
 Lieut. George Bury, R.N. of Newtown-House, co. Kildare.
 Mr. Patrick Murphy, of Nicholas-street, boot and shoemaker.
 At Graigue, co. Kilkenny, Michael Murphy, Esq. M.R.C.S.I.
 At Hilltown Glebe, the Rev. Richard Archer, Vicar of Clon-tiff, diocese of Dromore.
 At Belfast, Isaac Thompson.
 At Hollywood, the Rev. Henry Simpson.
 Mr. Green, official assignee in Mr. Commissioner Goulburn's Court.
 At Hammersmith, Henrietta, wife of Major T. Bonner, late of the Ceylon Rifles.
 At Brook Park, Flintshire, Captain Dawson, Adjutant of the Royal Flint Rifle Corps.
 At Newent, in his 74th year, the Venerable Archdeacon Gadow, Vicar of Newent, Gloucestershire, and Rector of Stoke Newington, Gloucestershire.
 Suddenly, at Hyde Park-street, John Fullarton, Esq.
 At Torquay, Major General J. P. Dunbar, E.I.C.'s Bombay Establishment.
 Captain H. H. Haviland, R.M. of Frenches, Burwash, Sussex.
 The John Dashwood King, Bart. of Halton, near Bucks.
 At North Brixton, Mr. J. M. Belcher, late of the Bank of England for 45 years.
 At Naples, Lieut.-Colonel John Brooks, 2d Bombay Light
 Infantry, son of the late Benjamin Brooks, Esq. of Lincoln's Inn.
 At Toronto, Mr. Robert Marchant, and Anne, wife of Mr.
 George Hayes.
 At Cadiz, the wife of Francis Lonergan, Esq.
 Wednesday, in William-street, Bridget, wife of Mr. Patrick Hayes, proprietor of the bakery establishment.
 In Dublin, Lieut. Joseph Doolan, Tipperary Militia.
 At Bath, Captain J. N. Nott, R.N.

AUC
Of Household
Eight-day Clock, Piano-forte,
Feather Beds, Bedding
Requisites, &c., &c., &c.
M'AULIFF
WILL Sell by UNRESERVED
 No. 1, ANNE-STREET
DAY next, the 29th October, precisely, the following useful Articles, Tables, Secretary, Glass Cases, and Hearth Rugs; Sideboards, Falling Leaf Table, Round Tables; Chimney Glass, Bedroom Chairs; Sofa, Looe
 Table Cutlery, Piano-forte, Curtains, Chest of Drawers,
 Palliasses; Dressing Table
 Stands and Chamber Wash-stands, Airers, Cupboards, Feather Beds, Kitchen Requisites, &c., &c.
 M'AULIFF
 7, Thomas-street,
 Oct. 27.

18 POSTPONED
AUC
Of Superior
M'AULIFF
HAS the honor to announce the inclemency of the weather
 the Sale of 200
 OF VERY PRIME
At Cregane, near Drogheda was Postponed
THURSDAY NEXT,
When it will be positively Proprietors of valuable this Sale will be found worth the Hay is the very best made up in winds, and suit attending buyers.
 COMMISSIONS PUNCTUALLY
 Sale precisely at 12 o'clock
M'AULIFF
 7, Cregane is within 2 miles
 of Croom