

Nov. 3.

TO THE EDITOR

Of the Limerick Chronicle,

SIR,

HAVING seen an address to me signed by several of the Grenane tenantry, beg, through the medium of your valuable paper, to return them my warmest thanks for their kindness, which I feel to be only due to my brother, who has been uniformly kind and attentive to their condition and wants. The good feeling of the tenantry towards myself, and a mind conscious of rectitude, will, I trust, through God's assistance, bear me through the many trials Irish agents have to contend with.

I have the honor to be your obedient servant,
JOHN MANSERGH.
Grenane, Tipperary, Nov. 2.
