

Limerick Militia, at the first for- Ireland. That corps soon after itself under the command of my friend, the late Lord Gort—my Lt.-Col., and largely partici- ble career. The connection which ty and my family, therefore, bears me. Nearly two centuries and a half the first interchange of these ings arose in the person of my ough, Bishop of Limerick, whose ay an honorable repose in your do not think it idle to refer to tions, because they are an incite- nce of good deeds, and to the hat reputation, which every ust desire to hand down them, and I pray that to a successful General, upon in Limerick so flatteringly be added an epithet which I even oute of unswerving rectitude of e good and honor of my Sovere- and my profession.

I gratefully acknowledge the good- is Power who, by His Divine tish India to that high position ds, and by a crowning victory ng the war in the Punjaub, thereby arance ensured the great bless- more so, because surrounding well as the most warlike of them elf) that it was not by one simple itish supremacy has been estab- oughout a series of most trying ipline, indomitable courage and ant troops under my command, umphant, despite the numerous ired to oppose us.

nced in both houses its sense of rmy. Her Majesty has also been upon my recommendation, to of its most distinguished officers , most grateful to the feelings of s fourteen times led them to vic- elf, a further mark of Her appro- a career of fifty-six years in the y, in which I have expended unre- atmost extent of my ability, the GOUGH.

Simla,

Black Castle, Simla, Sept. 7, 1849.

Permit me to convey the expres- sions for letters of the 23d May. ratifying Resolutions and Address which having been forwarded presented my sooner acknowledging remembrance there by men of opinions, is most flattering, as sion that my humble exertions in ntry are justly appreciated; and a body of men, must, whilst essentially grateful to me.

Yr Sir, very sincerely yours,

At Gibraltar, Richard Spear Lane, Esq. Assistant Surgeon to the Forces, to Eliza Emily Anne, daughter of Thomas Francis, Esq. Revenue Department.

At Calcutta, Lieut. Galiffe, late 29th Regiment, to Miss Campbell.

DEATHS.

On last evening, at the age of eighty years, Ellen, relict of the late William FitzGerald, Esq. of Geraldine, near this City.

Last evening, at his brother's house in George-street, Joseph Worrall, Esq. M.D. Surgeon H.E.I.C.S., Bengal presidency. After a service of 20 years in India, he returned with his family to his native City; hoping here to find rest from the labours of a tropical climate. It was otherwise ordered.—Impaired health, the usual consequence of so protracted a residence in the East, has at length deprived an afflicted family of a husband, father, and brother—in whom were combined many amiable quali- ties rarely found in a single individual. His professional career in India endeared him to his brother officers, who loved equally the physician and the man, and who testified in the most flattering manner their regret at his retirement from the service.

At Ballybrack, Kerry, in his 87th year, Maurice O'Connell, Esq. Captain in the Irish Brigade, and nephew of the late Baron O'Connell, Chamberlain to the Emperor of Austria.

At his residence, Dollymount, in the 75th year of his age, Richard Grace, Esq. the eminent bookseller, of 45, Capel-st., and late Alderman in the city of Dublin.

Yesterday, at his residence, Augustine Place, Mr. Thomas Miller formerly of the Royal Horse Artillery, and latterly pro- prietor of the White Horse tavern.

At the residence of his son, Thomas J. Tully, Esq. Rathfaran, Loughrea, Thomas Tully, Esq. at an advanced age.

At Market Alley, Bridget, wife of Mr. Edward Hickey, Vic- tualler.

On Saturday last, at his residence, King's Terrace, Queens- town, Thomas Hungerford Orpen, Esq. M.D.

At Clonmel, Mr. John Murray, Head Constable, aged 34.

At Kingstown, of aggravated small pox, Charles Sam. Bate- man, Esq. eldest son of the late John Bateman, Esq. of Bally- laken, King's County.

At Moynalty Glebe, county Meath, the residence of his bro- ther, the Rev. William Kellett, Captain John Kellett, R.M.

At her father's residence, Ollitrim M'ls, Moneygall, Mary Anne, daughter of Jeremiah Tuohy, Esq.

Mr. John Fitzgibbon, Douglas-street, Cork.

In Carlow, Mr. Philip Deighton, Clerk of the Magistrates at Petty Sessions.

At Kingstown, James Rooney, Esq. late of Rathmines. The son of Lieut.-Colonel Vicars, Royal Engineers.

At the Lower Castle Yard, Elizabeth, wife of Thomas Keck, Esq.

Mr. Thomas Maher, of Carlow, butter merchant.

At Sutton Place, Kent, Sophia, relict of Robert Bellew, Esq. of Ballindinart, county Cork, aged 83.

At Lawn-v'la, Bognor, Elizabeth, relict of the late Rev. B. Middleton, Sub-Dean of the Cathedral of Chichester.

Clark Hillyard, Esq. of Thorpeland, Northampton, aged 83, President of the Northamptonshire Agricultural Society.

At Stafford-row, Buckingham-gate, W. Toone, Esq. aged 74.

At Twickenham-green, aged 75, Lieut.-Col. A. W. Durnford, late of the 1st or Grenadier Guards.

At his house in Hill-street, the Right Hon. S<sup>r</sup> John Bracke Pechell, Bart.

At Weston-super-Mare, Somerset, Alison, daughter of the late George Skene, Esq. M.D. of Aberdeen, and sister of the late Andrew Skene, Esq. Solicitor General for Scotland.

In Bryanston-square, Thomas Biggs, Esq. At Edinburgh, James Stuart, Esq. Inspector of Factories, and by whose hand Sir Alexander Boswell fell in a duel.

In Bruntsfield-place, Edinburgh, at the age of 80 years, Mr. A. Smellie, an intimate acquaintance of the poet Burns.

At Ashburton, Mr. Potts, late Quartermaster of the 25th Regt.

At Hong Kong, of fever, Lieut. M'Donnell, Ceylon Rifles, son of Rev. Luke G. M'Donnell, Rector of Glaukeen, Cashel.

Adèle, relict of John Shine, Esq. Trinidad.

At Baden Baden, Robert M'Farlane, Esq. Attaché to the Embassy at Naples, son of the late General Sir Robert M'Far- lane, K.C.B.

On board the ship Pakenham, on a voyage from Plymouth to Adelaide, South Australia, Alicia Jenks, wife of William H. James, for many years Assay Master at the Knockmahon Mines, and late of Waterford.

At Gozo, near Malta, John David, Esq. of H.M.'s Commissa- riat Department.

At Hong-Kong, J. L. C. Tetley, Esq. Deputy Storekeeper, Ordnance-office.

Custom House of November,

22 IN

In the matter of Mary Flem Pet

Charles O'Brien Resp

John Humphreys & Corbett, Assignees of Humphreys, Peti

Charles O'Brien Resp

Thomas John C

Charles O'Brien Re

And the Act of the 6th Wm. the 4th, and 3rd and 4th cap. 105.

plantation measure Keane, subject to be computed from the Dated this 31st J

The Tenant will by Recognizance, and particulars apply to for Petitioners Ist to THOS. WALSH, ton Quay, Dublin.

23 In

In the Matter of JAMES DOYLE A Bankru hereby informed, that the Pound has been the same may be rece CAMBRIDGE GRUB Stores, Richmond- 8th day of Novemb Dated this 30th RIC Agent to the Comm Walk, Dublin.

Nov. 7.

NEW C

To

THE Board of will, on T