

...manow for Thursday
 an, Mr. J. Dillon Croker, cultivation of Flax into Mr. Haslett, from the d. ar, seized by Michael laloe, were exhibited to ions, on Tuesday, which to be destroyed.

(in part of our last.) of the 3d, Buffs under
 -quarters, in this garriardians met to-day at admission of paupers.
 , presided. Number of discharged during week, house this day, 4,567.
ROBBER!—At the Po-named Griffin was sen-nt for robbing a countrychael Collins, of Drom-ash, who arrested the e inquiry before he rend last evening Timothy y Cork, who came to who robbed his house s the burglar, and this against him by the Manstable Nash had purent, who was about to he Jane Black. t, sailed on Friday for s.

han Society.

R, in aid of the above ll be held (D.V.) in the USE, ENNIS, the 13th children, 6d.
 t Stall.
 December 8.

ardwaremen,

of THOMAS MOONEY, ceive Proposals for the ons of it as may suit ge and general assortware, Iron and Metal may be viewed at the in.
 Dec. 5.

At Niagara, Captain Thomas Walter Jones, Provincial Dragoons, to Helen, daughter of the late Captain John James Hamilton, Deputy Judge Advocate General and Assistant Adjutant General, East India Company's Service.
 At Quebec, George M'Donnell, son of Mr. Maurice M'Donnell, to Mary, daughter of Mr. J. M'Gillicuddy, of Killarney.
 At St. Andrew's, John, son of Lieut.-Col. Donald M'Donald, to Margaret, eldest daughter of Alex. M'Donnell, Esq. Inch, Collector of Customs, Williamsburgh.

DEATHS.

Wednesday night last, Mr. Matthew Collins, of this city, Professor of Mathematics—one of the best scientific scholars in Munster.
 At his residence, Grove Hill, county Cork, John Caulfield
 Irvine, Esq. in his 63th year.
 At Killencool Rectory, county Louth, Anne, wife of the Rev.
 Alexander George Stuart.
 At Belfast, Wm. Andrews, Esq. nephew of the Mayor.
 At Ennistymon, the daughter of Mr. Edward O'Dwyer.
 At Braccá Castle, county Westmeath, Jane, wife of Thomas Hackett, Esq.
 At an advanced age, in Clonmel, Mr. Michael Davis, tanner.
 At Brusna House, Shinrone, Master Thomas Lucas.
 In Dawson-street, Denis James Mahon, Esq. aged fourteen years, son of John Mahon, Esq. of Thornfield, county Galway.
 George Osborne, son of Mr. George Osborne, South Great George's-street.
 Suddenly, at the Freemasons' Hall, Commercial Buildings,
 Sarah, wife of J. C. Thompson.
 At Delgany, Charlotte Mary, daughter of Allan K. Boyse, Esq. M.D.
 At Fitzwilliam-square, West, Catherine Jane, wife of John Collum, Esq.
 At his residence, Francis-street, Mr. Anthony Ryan.
 At Ventnor, Isle of Wight, Henry Osborne Seward, Esq. jun.
 only son of Henry Osborne Seward, Esq. Lee Cottage, Cork.
 At Exmouth, aged 80 years, Sir Edmund Carrington, formerly Chief Justice of Ceylon,
 In Nottingham, aged 16, Mary, only daughter of Captain Armstrong, late 10th Hussars.
 At Edmonton, aged 81, Captain Thomas Swan Waters.
 At Glasgow, aged 85, the sister of Sir R. Gordon.
 At Llangollen, aged 73 years, Charles Worthington, Esq. formerly of Liverpool.
 At Poole, Dorset, the Rev. Thomas Durant.
 John Todhunter, Esq. of Tavistock-square.
 At Maidstone, Commissary General Sir Charles Dalrymple.
 Frederick G. Griffiths, of Epping.
 Mrs. William Marchant, of Bishopsgate-street.
 At Brighton, the daughter of John Aird, Esq.
 Josiah, son of Sir Henry Martin, Bart.
 At Chester, William Hayes, Esq.
 At Barton Mere, Bury St. Edmund's, William Hollingworth Quayle, Esq. a bencher of the Middle Temple.
 At Stonehaven, North Britain, in consequence of a fall from a carriage, the Rev. James Harington Evans, of Hampsteadheath, Middlesex.
 At the Vicarage, Hatfield Peverell, Essex, the Rev. Sir
 Coventry Payne, Bart.
 In Upper Brook-street, William T. Redmayne, Esq. only son of Leonard Redmayne, Esq. Deputy Lieutenant of Lancaster.
 At his residence, Argilt-hill, near Barnsley, Ebenezer Elliott, the "Corn-law Rhymer."
 At his residence in Brompton-street, Thomas Gunning, Esq.
 Inspector-General, Army Medical Department, aged 74.
 At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Elizabeth, the widow of the late Lieut.-Colonel James Tuite, Irish Brigade, aged 89.
 In Port Philip, Captain Roderick Mackenzie, late of the 96th Regiment, son of the late Sir Kenneth Mackenzie, of Ross-shire.
 At New Orleans, Morto Kelly, a native of the county Kerry.
 At Algiers, near New Orleans, Surgeon William Long Jam-son, of the city of Cork.
 At Kingston, Canada, the Rev. A. H. Burwell.
 At Montreal, Mr. James Turner, Veterinary Surgeon, a native of Edinburgh.
 The Rev. John D. Hurst, Incumbent of St. Catherine's, Dublin.
 At Roundfort, Mayo, aged 90, Mrs. Fair.

CARPI
 Red Pine, per Yellow Pine,
 Deals, per eac
 Stones, per cu
 Sand, per cub Nails, of all si
 Combs, per do
 Iron Spoons, p FOR Perfect Slight Perfect XX T
 Perfect X Tin
 Solder per lb.
 Wire, No. 13,
 ST.
 Letter Envelo
 at per 100.
 Printing Enve Pott Paper (to Blue Wave Fo
 Thick Post da
 Middle Post d
 Thick Cream-l
 Middle Cream-Thick Cream-l
 Middle Steel Pens, be Quills Pens, P Quill Pens, Or
 Quill Pens, Pi
 Quill Pens, Pi
 The Guardians will, c ders from the local jo Union business for the
 By Orde

Board Room,
 Dec. 8th.

SCARIE
THE Board of Guar TUESDAY, the proceed to Elect the foll
 ASSISTANT MASTER for Auxiliary, at £20 per ASSISTANT MATRON do
 ASSISTANT MASTER for Auxiliaries, £15 do., Applications will be r p.m., on the previous da personally on the day of ant Masters will be requ
 two sureties for £100, £50, with like sureties, duties required, and th name the proposed sure received after the hour
 Dec. 8.