

New, York for the Boston.

order for confinement of Duke of Wellington spirit of insubordinate orders, it to dispose of his t.—London Sun.

plain to the Bishop of Rugby school.

ians met to-day at in the chair. A s ordered for the ary establishments.

for admission, the ed to their alloca-

inmates; deaths

d off hall-doors on t the gentlemen cont will be punished.

may be inflicted for

Last night several

F hall-doors in the s being made ame-

, by professed gen-

ed to be), deserves

nton and dastardly

the perpetrators to ward." It is hoped justice.

were committed to

r. Gibson. On the

of 23s. was found in

y bits! The presivernor should retain impostor, who is to

with whatever dainties

Patrick Kennedy was arrested by Sergeant

tion, was remanded;

the quays, 21 days

an urchin who was

, was sentenced to 3

whipped; James En-

k Murray were fined

ment for drunkenness.

NT,

Pounds,

NT.

or, 17, Thomas-street,

Dec. 22,

W. Randolph, 34th Regiment, son of the Rev. J. H. Randolph, Rector of Sanderstead, Surrey, to Caroline Mary Victoria, daughter of Major-General Sir Robert Gardiner, Governor.

At Bermuda, William James Heney, son of William Heney, Esq. Lower Dorset-street, Dublin, to Frederica Georgiana, daughter of the late John V. Seymour, Esq. of St. Vincent's.

At Mussoorie, Charles William Lennox, son of Major W. G. Lennox, 43d Bengal Native Infantry, to Mary Rosalie, daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel J. Oliver, 55th Bengal Native Infantry.

At Belgaum, Hugh Barnett Lockett, Esq. Civil Service, son of the late Colonel Abraham Lockett, to Mary Jane, eldest daughter of Captain P. Grehan, 78th Highlanders.

Henry Conybeare, son of the Very Rev. the Dean of Llandaff, to Anne, daughter of Colonel Moore, Auditor General of the Bombay Army.

Capt. Phipps, 63d Regt. to Emma, widow of J. T. Winnington, Esq.

DEATHS.

On the 2d ulto. at Deesa, Bombay presidency, of low remittent Ghuzerat fever, aged 46, Elizabeth Cole Sidley, the beloved wife of Major De Burgh Sidley, of the 86th Regt. and sister of Mrs. Pryce Peacocke, of this City.—A lady very much lamented.

This morning, at his house, Harstonge-street, the affectionate and beloved wife of the Rev. William R. Bluett.—A lady most deservedly regretted.

At Mountshannon, county Sligo, the Rev. Richard Olpherts, of Charlestown, county Louth.

Thomas Herrick, Esq. of Belmont, county Cork.

At Kilmurry Rectory, Shinrone, Mrs. Mary Young.

At New Brighton, Monkstown, Edmund Robert Ball, Esq.

At Killiney, Christopher A. Nicholson, of Balrath, near Kells, county Meath, Esq. D.L.

At Tritonville Avenue, Sandymount, William Ed. Irwin, son of the late John Irwin, Esq. of Waterford.

At Killaloe, Miss Anne Molony—a young lady deservedly regretted.

At Albany, Monkstown, Miss Agnes Baker.

At his residence, Lower Mount-street, after a few days' illness, James Parkinson Boyle, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.

At Belleview, near Donnybrook, Loftin, son of Geo. Victor, Esq. of Portsmouth.

At her residence, Souvenir Cottage, Harold's-cross, Miss Eliza Archbold.

At River View, Fermoy, Kate, wife of Mr. Roderick O'Flanagan.

At the South Terrace, Cork, Miss Lyons.

From a fall overboard of the Victory steamer, on his passage to Liverpool, Mr. Thomas Spæwart.

John Briscoe, of Summer-hill.

At Greenford, Middlesex, the Rev. John Tomkyns, late Captain, King's Dragoon Guards.

Mr. David Ewart, of the Stock Exchange.

Captain William Henry Carrington, late Barrack-Master of Weymouth, and formerly of the Royal Marines.

Benjamin Sewell, Esq. of Blackheath-park, in his 76th year.

At Copt Hall, Luton, the Rev. William M'Douall, nephew of the late Patrick M'Douall Crichton, fifth Earl of Dumfries.

At Hepworth Rectory, Suffolk, Frances, wife of the Rev. E. R. Payne.

At Coytrahene, near Bridgend, Glamorganshire, Edmund, eldest son of M. P. Traherne, Esq.

James Adam, Esq. of Barr, Renfrew, a celebrated engineer.

At Aberdeen, aged 77, Duncan Davidson, Esq. of Tillychesly and Inchmarlo, Deputy Lieutenant for Kincardine.

At the Château la Colinais, near Dinan, John Surtees, Esq. of Newcastle-on-Tyne, brother of the late Countess of Eldon, aged 92.

Of cholera, at Gibraltar, James Sheils, Esq. M.D. Surgeon 67th Regiment.

In Boston, Dr. Eugene O'Neill, son of Eugene O'Neill, Esq. M.D. Mitchelstown.

Harriette, wife of Lieut. Burns, of the Bombay Army.

At Nassick, Lieut. J. Malcolm, 28th Native Infantry.

stands, solid silver, mounted canters, Toast Rocks, Spirit tles, Branch, Table, Card, and heavily mounted, Snuffers & Bread & Cake Baskets, Coffee
Spoons), Epergnes and Sala
Table, Desert, and Tea Spoo ters, Wine Coolers, Tea an styles, &c., beautiful Gold Albert and other Pencil Case
Brass, Steel, and Bronze F
Steels, Brasses and Fire I Knives and Forks, Sets of Table Steels, Cash Boxes, Pa
Brass-piped Bellows, Brass
Coal-boxes, Scoops and Tea Boxes, Toys, Meerchaum and Table Lamps, Imperial Silve dlesticks, Double and Single-Brass Candlesticks, Inkstan
Papier Mache Tables, Wor Albums Inkstands, Card-cas
mon Tables and Men, Baga
Several Long and Short Dir French China and Delph) a patterns. A variety of Des sortment of Morning and Ev small Tea Sets, a quantity of and Tea Pots, Sugar Boxes a Muffineers and Muffin-plates
lot of Odds and Ends, magn
in Porcelain and Glass, Boh and Candlesticks, Hot-water dance, Marble and Compo Powder Flasks, Screws, Boc Richly Cut Glass, Quart
and Salad Stands, Dishes
Sugar Bowls, Butter Coolers
Wines, Goblets, Pickle-D
Custards, Jelly Glasses,
Desks, Work Boxes, Chi
Mirrors, Toilet Glasses a Frames and Stands; numer Patterns.

Tickets to view the above
Sale, can be had only on ap
This being a positively attendance is respectfully se must be disposed of within No Goods can,
moved 'till first settled for,
or exchanged. The room Ladies accommodated with Sale each day prec
M

7, Thomas-street, and