

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at Fairy Hill, Bray, county Wicklow, much regretted, Anne, wife of Peter Warburton Jackson, Esq., Barrister-at-Law, mother to John Westropp, Esq., of Attyflin, and Lady Dillon Massy, of Doonas House.

In Dublin, Juliana Catherine, daughter of Barry Drew, Esq. of Flower Hill, co. Waterford.

Henry T. Meagher, son of the late Henry Meagher, of Cloone House, county Tipperary.

At his residence, Douglas Road, Cork, on Thursday last, after a prolonged illness, Timothy Collins, Esq. Solicitor, who, as a professional man, maintained the highest character for integrity and intelligence.

At Parsonstown, the infant daughter of the Earl of Rosse.

At his residence at Castle Cottage, county Clare, Nicholas Burke, Esq. late of Glanafosha, county Galway.

Sunday, the 17th, at Templemore, Mr. John Wright, late of Liverpool, watch and clock maker—leaving a large young family without provision.

At Ballyduvane, Hester, wife of Edward Henry Herrick, Esq. and daughter of the late Jasper Evans Lucas, Esq. of Richfords-town.

At Newtown Sandes, Listowel, the Rev. Thomas L. M'Donnell, P.P. in the 40th year of his age, and 13th of his ministry.

At Watergate, Bandon, Margaret, wife of Edw. O'Brien, Esq. Officer of Inland Revenue.

At his residence in Mallow, aged 70, Mr. John Ahern.

At Warren's Place, Elizabeth, wife of Michael Rogers, Esq. of Lotamore, county Cork.

On the 17th inst. at Fort View, Sandymount, Henry, the beloved son of Richard Thornton, Sandymount.—Sincerely regretted by his sorrowing family.

In Broad-street, at her son's residence, at the age of 72 years, Mrs. Johanna O'Connor.

At Market Alley, Mr. Patrick Healy, Victualler.

Captain George Delany, late of Ballyspellan House, county Kilkenny, at the age of 73 years.

At her father's house, Patrick's-street, Cork, Camilla Anne, only daughter of Mr. John Gordon.

At Westbrook House, county Wicklow, Lieut.-Colonel John Weatlake.

Atabella Emma, only daughter of Frederick Beswick, Esq. Adjutant of the Depot 38th Regt. stationed in Castlebar.

In Belfast, Ann, daughter of the late Thomas Bell, Esq.

Captain Arthur Russell, Harbour Master, Belfast.

Charlotte Grace, wife of William Conner, Esq.

In Bridgefoot-street, at the advanced age of 98 years, Patrick O'More, Esq.

At Merrion-square, of decline, Georgiana Frances Caroline, youngest daughter of the late Sir Richard Levinge, Bart.

At Ballinastraw, county Wexford, Andrew Hay, Esq.

At Glenone, aged 87 years, John O'Neill, Esq. solicitor.

Jane, eldest daughter of Robert Hassard, Esq. of Parkmore, county Antrim.

At St. Joseph's, Portland-row, Sister Maryanne Rose M'Mahon, prioress of the third order of St. Dominick, aged 81 years.

At Ranfurly Terrace, Dungannon, Anna Maria, daughter of James Galbraith, late of Rascary, county Tyrone, Esq.

At East Road, North Lotts, David B. Ryan, Solicitor, aged 70 years.

At Birkenhead, Ellen, wife of Richard Battersby, Esq. of Oakfield, near Carrickfergus.

At Chelsea, aged 80, Jemet Brown, Esq. of Riverstown, co. Cork.

At Cromer, Norwich, Margaret, relict of the late Mr. Robert Miles, of Ballyliffin, county Tipperary.

In London, Mr. William Carson, ship-broker and timber merchant, of Sir John's-quay, Dublin.

At Clapham-rise, aged 81 years, Lady Synnot, relict of Sir Walter Synnot, Bart. of Ballymoyer, county Armagh.

At Bodegroes, Carnarvonshire, Major L. M. Bennett, late of the 4th and 64th Regiments.

At Drummond-place, Edinburgh, Lieut.-Col. Archibald Kerr, late of the Madras Cavalry.

Frances Sybella, daughter of Mr. Jacob Harvey, Torquay.

At the Vicarage, Biddenham, Beds, the Rev. Thomas S. Grimshawe, A.M. Vicar of Biddenham, and late Rector of Burton Latimer, Northamptonshire, aged 73.

John Mirehouse, Esq. Common Sergeant of the City of London.

At Edinburgh, Angela Cumming, only child of the Rev. Robert Lorimer, Chaplain of the Royal Lunatic Asylum.

In London, John Clarke, Esq. formerly of the 4th, or King's Own Regiment.

At his residence, Myddelton Cottage, New River Head, Clerkenwell, Richard Saywell, Esq. in his 75th year.

At Malvern, Lieut. Henry Quin, R.N.

At Cambridge, Louisa, daughter of the Rev. John Lewis, Rector of Ingatestone and Rivenhall, Essex.

At Midford Castle, Charles Thomas Conolly, Esq.

At Jersey, Mary, wife of George Dawes, Esq. R.N.

At Gayton House, Northamptonshire, Fitzroy Colin, only child of Lieut.-Colonel Campbell.

Mr. Samuel Webster, Revenue officer, at Liverpool.

At Florence, Elizabeth Jane, wife of Richard Childers Saunders, Esq. M.D. and second daughter of Ralph Westropp, Esq. of Meadstown, county Cork.

At Fort William, Quartermaster T. Boyd, 70th Regt.

At Ellichpoor, J. J. Stokes, Esq. Acting Superintending Surgeon to the Nizam's army.

Of fever, Robert Gildea, Esq. of Beechgrove, county Mayo.

Esther, wife of Dr. Aquilla Smith, Lower Baggot-st.

Bright Brilliant Ceiling Lustres, in Ormolu; 4 Arm Chairs, 40 Swiss Chairs, Curious Oak Centre Table, 3 Rosewood Sofas, in Crimsom Brocade; Occasional Tables, Grand Piano-forte, by Collard and Collard, 6½ octaves of surpassing Tone and finish.

THE WINE CELLAR

contains a Hogshead of delicious Old Golden Sherry, with about 80 dozen of Bottled Wines of famous brands, viz., Champagne, Claret, Moselle, Madeira, Malmsey, Sherry, Paxaret, French and Cherry Brandy, Mareschino, Cyder, &c.

THE SLEEPING APARTMENTS, 60 IN NUMBER,

The principal ones, including that of

HIS LATE MAJESTY KING GEORGE THE FOURTH, are superbly furnished, most of them in Tabaret, Chalis, and Brocaded Satin. They contain every requisite, combining elegance with comfort and luxury. THE STUDY AND MANY PRIVATE SITTING ROOMS, &c. are well furnished with Turkey and Brussels Carpets, Book Cases and Secretaries, Sofas, Loungers, Easy Chairs, Work and Sofa Tables, many curiosities, Slate Billiard Table, Balls and Cues complete, some few good Paintings, Portraits, Busts, several Double and Single Guns, by London makers, Pistols, Tarpaulins, Carpets for corridors, Matts, Hall Bells, Window Seats, Vapour Bath, Clocks.

MISCELLANEOUS PROPERTY.

London-built Britska, 2 horse Break, Fire Engine, Treshing Mill, Boiler, Steaming Apparatus, Patent Mangles, Laundry Utensils, an immense quantity of Coppers, House Presses, Copper Still and Worms, Garden Chairs, with a choice and varied collection of the "Rarest Green-house Plants, Shrubs, &c."

PROGRAMME OF SALE.

Thursday, the 14th March, first-day—The contents of Dining Parlour, Ball-room, 2 state Bed-rooms, and 6 medium do.

Friday, the 15th—The Drawing-room, Boudoir, Library, Cellar, George the IV Room, and ten other Bed-rooms.

Saturday, the 16th—Billiard Table, Vehicles, private Sitting Rooms, and remainder of unsold property.

Sale each day at 12 o'clock punctual.

The Castle will be open for view on Wednesday, the 13th March, by tickets of admission only, to be had at Messrs. SADDLER'S Office, 5, Great Denmark-street, Dublin; Mr. BOURKE, Mitchelstown; Mr. Henry O'Hara, Cork; or of the Auctioneer,

JAMES MARSHALL.

Feb. 23.

THE ATTRACTIVE AUCTION

At Ballinamote House, Upper Glanmire, Cork.

BY MR. JAMES MARSHALL,

Commences on WEDNESDAY, the 27th instant, and continues until all the CHATTEL PROPERTY is disposed of.

SEE CATALOGUES.

Feb. 23.

THORO' BRED STALLION

FOR SALE.

TO BE SOLD by Private Bargain, the celebrated Stallion,

"Sordid."

(The property of Mr. James Healy, of Manish, county of Clare.)

He is now ten years old, but as fresh as a foal, bred by the late Marquis of Sligo.

He is got by Economist, his dam Soot, by Humphrey Clinker. Long prices have been obtained for many of his produce, they are invariably of the right sort.

Application to JAMES MARSHALL, 96, George-street, Limerick; or to the Proprietor.

Should he not be sold, he will stand at Manish for the season.

Feb. 23.