

Mr. Mark Taylor, Belfast, Hat manufacturer, to Belfast, daughter of James Miller, Esq. Denton, Manchester.
At St. Helena, His Excellency Major-General Sir Pat. Ross, to the Widow Solomon.
Thomas Griffiths, Esq. to Miss Berry, Cape of Good Hope.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at his residence in Denmark-street, Michael, eldest son of the late Thomas MacMahon, Esq. of this City.
Captain Lyttleton Lyster, J.P. county Cork.
At Cahir House, near Ballinasloe, William, son of James Dillon, Esq.
At his residence in Ellen-street, Catherine, wife of Mr. Daniel Mara, gun manufacturer.
At Listowel, Margaret, wife of Mr. Charles O'Rourke.
At Keave House, Kilconnell, Arthur Woods, Esq.
In Ballinasloe, at an advanced age, Miss Ellen Kelly.
At his residence, Erindale, Carlow, Thomas T. Vigors, Esq.
D.L.
On the 21st inst. of consumption, at Alpha-road, the residence of her aunt, (Mrs. John Brown, late of this City,) Susan, the eldest daughter of Chas. MacDonnell, Esq. of Upper Canada, and great grand-daughter of the late Sir John Johnson, Bart.
At his residence, Prince's-street, Cork, Hatton Galwey, Esq. High Constable of the barony of Ibane.
At Portarlinton, Emily, relict of William Lennox Napier, Esq. of Littleton, county Westmeath.
At Queenstown, Elizabeth, daughter of John Thompson, Esq. of Clonfin.
At Richmond-hill, Monkstown, Eliza Pim, relict of Jonathan Pim, of Bloomsbury, Esq.
At his residence, Phibsborough-road, Francis H. White, Esq.
At Grafton-street, Ellen, wife of Mr. James Woods.
At Brighton Cottage, Rathgar, after giving birth to a daughter, still born, Anna, wife of James L. Farley, Esq.
Martha, wife of Mr. James Egan, of St. Andrew-street.
In Stephen's-green, Ellen Georgina, wife of William Deane Butler, Esq.
At South Main-street, Cork, Mr. William Beamish.
The Rev. John Leslie, of Summer-hill, and of Kineregie, co. Donegal, aged 89 years.
At the Franciscan Convent, Thurles, Brother John Ford, a native of Cork, in the 60th year of his age.
At Portadown, William, son of Thomas H. Carleton, Esq.
Mr. Thomas Cloney, of Graigue, better known as "General Cloney" in Wexford, during the rebellion of '98.
At Clonmel, Mrs. O'Donoghue.
In Carrick-on-Suir, Mr. Richard Hogan, and Mr. Patrick Kirby, late of Enniscorthy.
At Carlow, in her 19th year, Bessie, eldest daughter of Rev. John Holmes, Wesleyan Minister.
Suddenly, at his residence, Brewery House, Kilkenny, Mr. Charles Murison.
At Ardloher, county Cavan, Ellen Martha, daughter of Perrott Thornton, Esq. and sister to the late Captain Perrott Tristram Thornton, 12th Foot.
At Kinnegad, Mary Anne, child of Richard A. Gray, Esq. District Engineer.
John, son of Mr. Thomas Ennis, Grand Canal-place.
At Moynalty, county Meath, Mr. Samuel Plant.
Charles Alfred, only son of D. N. Wallace, Esq. M.D. Boyle.
At Forgeny, near Ballymahon, Captain William Atkinson, many years a Grand Juror of the county Longford.
At Fort Frederick, county Monaghan, Frederick Rowley, Esq. son of Thomas Taylor Rowley, of Maperath, co. Meath, Esq.
At Hastings, Colonel Robert Honnor, late 19th Regt. and of Lee Mount, county Cork, aged 81. Colonel Honnor commanded the Irish Brigade under Sir De Lacy Evans.
At Medina Cottag', Newport, Isle of Wight, Dickins Buckle, Esq. Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals, in his 88th year.
At Barnsbury-villas, Miss Katherine Ferrier, sister of the late Sir Alexander Ferrier, Consul for the Hague.
At Welwyn, Hertfordshire, Lieut. C. C. Powell, R.N.
Lady Lucy North, daughter of the Right Rev. Dr. Brownlow North, Bishop of Winchester, and sister of the Earl of Guildford.
The Rev. T. S. Grimshawe, editor of Cowper's works.
At Monmouth, in her 80th year, Rebecca, relict of the late Spencer Compton, Esq. of Brampton Abbetts, Herefordshire.
At Long Stratton St. Michael, Walter Carver, Esq. half-pay surgeon of the 4th Veteran Battalion, in his 75th year.
At Hastings, Christina Letitia, eldest daughter of William Charles and Catherine Frances Macready.
General Lord Aylmer, G.C.B. on Saturday last, suddenly, in his 75th year.
At the Manor House, Little Marlow, Bucks, John Ashley, Esq. of York-crescent, Clifton, and late of Jamaica.
At Brighton, Robert Dix, Esq. in his 77th year.
At Charterhouse-square, in his 79th year, Thomas Okey, Esq. formerly Captain of the Tower Hamlets Militia.
At Up-Park Camp, Jamaica, on 8th January, John George, the infant son of Lieut. Richard Doris, 1st W. I. Regt.
At Colombo, the wife of Captain Meaden, late of the Ceylon Rifle Regiment.
At Cork, Andrew, son of Doctor Ferguson, 26th.
The Rev. George M'Clelland, Presbyterian pastor, Aghogil.
Mary, daughter of James Bowman, Esq. manager of Provincial bank, Armagh.
At Cook-street, Miss Lydia Spaight.
At Ballyshannon, Sergeant Allen, of the Constabulary,

nated in their non-appearance at the instance of their lawyers, who to the Queen in Council. Judge refused to sit on the trial of the par

Last evening as the Limerick La bert, master, was coming to her be the Wellesley bridge, and having 2 cable out, with anchor, in conse gush of wind coming, suddenly the her anchor home, and the bowsprit the Limerick side of the battlement vessel lost her jib-boom.

A five oared gig of Mullock & S nearly swamped yesterday morni Strand, from a large hole punched end of a oar. The malicious dam night before, and only discovered w to pull down the river.

The Duchess of Kent, steamer, f an India corn vessel, bound for You and which immediately foundered.

Government purpose giving ad Land Improvement Act for the buildings in Ireland.

The following appeared in pa Lord Albert Denison, brother Conyngham, is to be made a Peer

We are happy to learn that our made such arrangements as will en for the new western entrance to th the works immediately after the as a timely relief for the poor labour are now so much in want of emplo

Three times was Miss Haves ca tain at the Theatre Royal, Hawkin night, and enthusiastically cheered

The anticipated retirement of M from the Board of Guardians of th regretted by the rate-payers, for w all times evinced a devoted earnest citude for the poor, long experience c law, and general information on ever with its operations, conduced in ar the benefit and advantage of all cla

The following new unions for th been declared by the Commissione Tulla, Corofin, Ballyvaughan, Ki tion of guardians for these unions 2d April. In the meantime the charged by ex-officio guardians.

The Rev. R. W. Jennings is pre age of Clondulane, Cloyne, and Re incumbency of Passage.

The Rev. George Scott is presen of Banagher, and Rev. Wm. Ross Dungiven, both void by the death

The descent at the corner of deal yard in Carr-street, and to market, is the most dangerous in t any town in Ireland. There is not hear of the falling of horses and ca nothing has been done by the pa to prevent those disasters. This and cars loaded with turnips, were the day, a third car, loaded with when a child narrowly escaped bee

Lieut.-Col. Bunbury, 80th, has Lewis is appointed Lieut.-Colonel to be Major, and Lieut. Holdich

Lieut. Morphett, 53d, is dismiss Capt. Taylor, 87th, has sold o Adjutant Bailie, gets his company

Lieut.-Col. Inghis, Lieuts. Ric Clapcot, and Straubenzee, 32d, hav absence to England,