CA.

erit of being ut medicine, mes its cost pepsia (indind sickness her circumstension, hed liver compasms, headotice of our nd bladder, ption, debi-BARRY'S ch is easily esert, is the as it never t imparts a restores the to the most on of Lord con Alexan-nervousness; th; Captain - Walk, Lit-

rews, R.N.;
, Esq, Bar, who, after
has regained
he upon this
of Winslow,

years dys-

he Rev. Thocure of five vomitings; ors Ure and dney-terrace,

Regiment—
Athol-street,
eral debility;
ave sent the
nd Co., 127,
of the extranas been resliet, after all
many years,

above com-

At the Police Court on Thursday, Thomas Cahill, and Thomas Lloyd, drunk in the streets, were fined each 2s. 6d. or 48 hours in gaol. Into actions were ordered against Mary Ann O'Sheater actions were money in an officer's quarters. Bridget Resugh, and four in family, were remanded for imposing on the Poor Law Guardians. Six vagrants were transmitted to the workhouse.

An inquest was held on Monday by John Bennett,

An inquest was held on Monday by John Bennett, Esq. coroner, at Monabeg, beyond Annacotty, on the body of John Carty, aged about 4 years, who was found in a deep bog hole.

The jury returned a verdict of "found drowned."

Monday night a fine ewe, the property of Lord Ashtown, was stolen from off the land at Ballingarry, and a ram, the property of Castor Jennings, Esq., was stolen from off his land near Cloughjordan.

On Saturday a rockite notice was posted on a house at Knockna, the property of Mr. George Roe, threat ning with death any person who would till the land from which tenants had been evicted.

On Thursday a maiicious attempt was made to obstruct, at Dromard, the mail train from Dublin. Some rullian laid several large stones on the rail, and drove a large iron wedge into the joint of two, so as the front wheels should come in contact with them. Fortunately, the guard observed the obstruction, and in a few minutes after the train passed by.

Amongst the large winners of the Epsom by Lord Zetland's Voltigeur, G. Ormsby Higgins, Esq., of Mayo, has netted a considerable amount—report says £40,000.

The salary of the Mastership of Dungannon royal school, in the gift of the Primate, is £400 a-year, and the fees from pupils are considerable. The Rev. Mr. Darling, late master, has retired with a fortune.

The sum total raised by the Free Church of Scotland for the year ended 30th March last was £306,857. The total debt on houses of worship built by the Free Church is £152,587, beside £68,606 for manses.

Archbishop Cullen has received a letter from Rome on the subject of the Government Colleges. According to the interpretation this letter gives to the late Rescripts, Roman Catholic clergymen cannot hold office in, or be instrumental in advancing the Queen's colleges. Its contents are to be officially communicated the Bishops, who are to instruct the laity against sending youth for education to the colleges.

The state of the harvest throughout the Canadian provinces is very favourably reported of.

Lord Elgin has made a reduction of£2000 in the ex-gentlemen; but the master recommendation by two gentlemen of known competency, one to be selected cordingly, Robert Hunt, Esq. of John Christie, Esq. of Fort Uniconsent appointed. They examine soil minutely, made up their report on the 3rd of April, to the Receive would not agree to it, although I ments to satisfy all rents due to 1849, according to the valuation of retained tenant. This valuation difference between the proposed value set upon the lands by the trasted with the valuation made.

acre, or £230 upon 240 acres of more than Messrs. Hunt and Ch course, this encreased rent could only alternativ was to give up agreed to do at once, but a great occepation of tenants, the receive recourse to ejectments. In vincents firmed and agreed to, was dissent character, I am obliged to have of explanation, and it is needless tinued tenant at the valuation of Christie, I would retain possessi I am, Sir, your obedien

HOUSE OF LORDS

PATI

The Bishop of LONDON move of the Ecclesiastical Courts Apexhorting the House to lay aside of temporal legislation, and to a great christian community, went of the objections which might measure. It had been said for arisen solely out of a late decision but though that decision had for urgently on the minds of serious such an appeal as that provided been felt by the church. With had been made the subject of the ration by the bench of Bishops, the House with the approbation episcopal brethren. The right ceeded to explain his view by decrees of Councils and ecclesis declaring that the Crown had right of the church to be her own of doctrine; and concluded by

He who had committed to His