

one month in gaol with hard the property of the trustees of Cremin and Patk. Meehan, labour, for deserting their ame a burthen to the union. ed against Henry Drew, for Massy, Esq.; against Daniel e house of Mary O'Neill; Molony, John Cotter, Mau-Collins, and John Hanly, for property of Mrs. O'Donoghue. er escaped from Borris-in-Thursday night, whilst the into a slumber.

oner for trial at Rathkeale ied in the bridewell of that sease and destitution.
y with the Cork, Blackrock, xtend the line to Monkstown. he death in the parish of f the name of "Sybie Glyn," traordinary age of 109 years! ease on Wednesday last, she her faculties, remembered curately occurrences of 80 re the Master of the Rolls, ty who complained that a sale under the Incumbered cted by the Commissioners of Chancery for distribution his honor stated that the ve both misunderstood the ion of the legislature; as if lated to hand over the duties ancery Court.

d a verdict for £100 against ern Company, damage done the Mullingar train.

, late High Sheriff of Mayo, f Castlebar gaol, is awarded return under an execution Sub-Sheriff, Mr. Peter Burke,
. It appears that Gallogly for a south western county of the Law Advisers of the Monday morning running

, with a new born infant, parent. An arm and leg e body.

from Martin's timber yard nd some months ago, sent from California.

ful in market this day, and

At Lucknow, Arthur Davies Dickens, Esq. Interpreter and Quartermaster 38th N.I. son of the late Lieut.-Colonel Henry Charles Dickens, 34th Foot, to Catherine Sophia, daughter of Henry Cloete, Esq. of Westorford, Cape of Good Hope.

At Rathfarnham, Samuel G. Getty, Esq., of Cromac Park, Belfast, to Emily, daughter of the late Captain Crossley, J.P., County Inspector of the Londonderry Constabulary.

DEATHS.

This morning, at his residence, Shelbourne House, after a short illness, Robert Gabbett, Esq. youngest son of the late Daniel Gabbett, Esq. of Strand House—to the profound regret of all his highly respectable friends and relatives. He was a young gentleman of the purest honor and integrity—affable, courteous, and friendly in his intercourse with all ranks of society—benevolent and charitable to the industrious and sick poor, whose welfare he uniformly promoted, and who, by his premature and much lamented death, have lost a liberal benefactor and zealous advocate. His remains will be interred in the family vault at Cahirconish Church on Tuesday morning.

Jane, third daughter of the Rev. Mark Perrin, of Athenry.
In Ennis, Mrs. Leech, relict of the late Mr. John Leech, of Church-street. As by her life she "adorned the doctrine of God her Saviour," so her "end was peace." Beloved and respected by all who knew her—her memory will long live in the grateful recollection of relatives and friends.

At Newington Terrace, Rathmines, Louisa, wife of Maurice Collis, Esq.

In Clonmel, Mrs. Wallace, wife of Mr. John Wallace, watchmaker.

At Clonsart, Kilcock, Mrs. Colgan, relict of the late Laurence Colgan, Esq.

On Wednesday, at Ballymurphy, Mary, wife of Mr. Patrick Fitzgerald, steward and gardener to the Rev. G. Peacocke, Holycross.

At Barley-hill, county Mayo, Margaret, relict of John Shower, Esq. apothecary to the forces at Malta.

At Lower Dorset-street, Miss Grace Heron, daughter of the late George Heron, Esq.

At Lower Rutland-street, Miss Sidney Pasley, aged 86 years:

At Castlering, county Louth, aged 78, Richard Bolton, Esq.

At Dungannon, Mr. Thomas Ryan.

In London, Mrs. W. Eburne, widow of the late Mr. William Eburne, coach builder, Rathbone-place.

At Bath, Maria, eldest daughter of the late Samuel Townsend Wright, Esq. of Luriga, county Cork.

Mr. Holder, late Comptroller of Customs, Liverpool.
James Garnett, Esq. of Mill-house, Bradford.

At Windsor, aged 71, Calverley Riley, minister of the Wesleyan methodist connexion forty years.

John Alexander Galloway, Esq. C.E.

At Wytham Lodge, near Oxford, in consequence of a fall from her horse, Alicia Ellen, only daughter of the late Captain John Peter Wilson, E.I.C.S. and niece of Rear Admiral Sir Francis Beaufort.

At Farnham Royal, Bucks, George Bellis, Esq. son of the late Lieut.-Colonel F. W. Bellis.

At Norland-square, Notting-hill, Samuel Thurtle, Esq. late of the Admiralty, aged 76.

At Wimbledon, aged 19, Louisa, daughter of Captain William John Williams, Inspector of Prisons.

At Britannia-gardens, Marylebone, on the 10th inst. Catherine O'Fiaharty, aged 110 years, a native of Claremorris, co.
Mayo.

At Weymouth, W. M. Aitchison, Esq. eldest son of Captain Aitchison, R.N.

On board the ship Severn, on her passage from Ceylon, Edward, son of Lieut.-Colonel Grantham, Royal Artillery.

At Calais, Dr. Kirby, M.D. aged 76.

In California, Samuel, son of Mr. Joseph Dudgeon, postmaster of Stewartstown, county Tyrone.

On the 16th inst., in Merrion-square, North, Frances Diana, wife of Maurice Collis, Esq. and daughter of the late Venerable Edward Herbert, Archdeacon of Aghadoe.

At Madeira, Lieut.-Colonel John Mac Mahon, originally of the Clare Militia.

Board of Guard case may be, wil on the above-na

By order
N

Board-room,

25 CO
A REMEDY
tism—Cari

Swelling—Gene
"Having men
strumous diathes of corroborating tollled the use of general. In pers
sider this as a va
Dr. Graves, Dub

"I have presc cases of tubercul stages, which hav tice during the h until I used the p most useful reme oil has so far surp in beneficial oper acts by a virtue p

"I would state
ence, confirmed b of action, that th cod, is more bene consumption than regiminal that ha

"This remedy continued gout a cachetic diseases fula. Hence it h coston caries, di enlarged mesenter of the skin."—D of Medicine, in t

COD LIVER OI taste or smell, so most delicate sto directions for use

Byss

N

132, G

BYFIE

Aromat

This Aromatize
purest and best C Aromatics which the Oil, so that i Persons of Delica