DEATHS.

At Taunton, Somersetshire, on the 1st inst. Charles Vereker, Esq. second son of the late Major John Vereker, of this City, and several years Captain in the 27th, or Inniskilling Regiment, in which he served with great distinction through the Kaffir war, at the Cape of Good Hope.
 At his house, in William-street, on Thursday morning last, after a few days illness, of typhus fever, Edmond Quinlivan, Esq. corn and flour merchant, brother to the Rt. Worshipful the Mayor of Limerick. The premature death of this gentleman, in the vigour of life, has cast a sorrowful gloom over his family and friends, to whom he was endeared by those gennine virtues which testify the affectionate husband, sincere friend, and generous benefactor. His remains left town this morning for interment at Kilaasoola Church, Newmarket-on-Fergus, attended by a most respectable and numerous cavalcade.
 At Corbally, on Wednesday last, Jane, relict of the late Francis H. Bindon, Esq.
