

£300 a year to Sir Wm. J. der of his life. Counsel then o show that Sir Charles Shaw amount of £5763, and that frequently requested a settle- s Shaw neglected to give, and Charles resigned the office of led by Mr. Bessonnett. The ought for the recovery of the kept the accounts of the office ir Charles Shaw, was the only l for plaintiff, read receipts for suppressed items" passed by Sir ney received. The first for £88 Charles Shaw from Mr. Simon was a receipt to Mr. John O'Dell ted 1st November, 1849, for £84, rron, Esq.; a receipt dated 22d aid by Richard Feuge, Esq.; a ember, for £88, paid by Harris receipt dated November 5th, for rron, Esq.; and a receipt dated 7, paid by William Toole, Esq.— ne amount of these suppressed od.

made an able address to the court amined no witness. i a verdict for the plaintiff of es and 6d. costs on the general d. costs on the special counts, to been taken.

ck cottage, Corbally, has a field of t high, and which will be fit for week.

ll railway steam engine was pla- hal boat yesterday morning for am engine tender this day.

William White were fined 2s 6d risonment at Nenagh petty ses- on Anne Leonard, a depraved Rev. Mr. O'Leary was cutting nce arose from her struggles to e abhorrent to womanly feeling, er hands. Rev. Mr. O'Leary d by the magistrates.

ointed apothecary to the Ennis om of Mr. Reidy elected to Tralee. eing imported to Galway, for land Great Western Railway.

appeared in part of last impression:)

Esq. Stipendiary Magistrate, is re- ale to Ballymena.

man was robbed of his watch and the railway terminus on Saturday ho infest that neighbourhood for ee.

his port, cleared out yesterday for 3 cabin and 122 steerage passengers.

Anne Emily, eldest daughter of George Gordon, Esq.
At Chicago, Mr. William Nalty Stokes, of Montreal, son of the late Doctor George Day Stokes, Dublin, to Anne, daughter of Mr. W. Kirk.

DEATHS.

On the 16th inst. at the house of Per son-in-law, Thomas Usher, Esq. Upper Hartstonge-street, Richarda, relict of the Rev. Edward Price, late Archdeacon of Killaloe.

At his residence, Waterloo, county Tipperary, Ambrose Going, Esq. aged 88 years.

At Bellegrove, Charlotte, daughter of the late John Adair, Esq. of Rath, and sister of George Adair, Esq. of Bellegrove, Queen's County.

On Thursday, at the Rectory, Tashinty, county of Longford, of malignant polypus, Samuel Zobell, Esq. late Barrack-master of the Linen Hall Barracks, Dublin, and Captain in the 66th Regt. Captain Zobell saw much service both in the 5th and 26th Regts. and commanded in the Peninsula the Grenadier company of the 66th, for which he received the war medal and two clasps.

At Castlebar, Jane, daughter of Lieut. A. W. Dickson, 17th Regt.

At Braehead, Londonderry, Robert Ramsay, Esq. Lieutenant R.N. Agent of the Board of Emigration at that port.

At Castletown, county Fermanagh, Charlotte, wife of John Brien, Esq. and daughter of the late Rev. William Dawson, Vicar of Clontibret, county Monaghan.

In Castlebar, John, eldest son of Captain M'Carthy, Staff Officer of Pensioners.

On Thursday, in Mary-street, Mr. Thomas Howard, spirit retailer and clothes-broker. He was a strictly honest man, and his death is regretted by the inhabitants of the Old Town.

Alicia, widow of the late Mr. John Humphrys, Ballingarry. The infant son of the Rev. J. C. Walker, of Ballinasloe.

On Thursday last, Mr. Timothy Foley, of Ellen-street, Vic-tualler.

At Waterford, the Rev. Laurence Hogan, O.S.F.
At his residence, North Mall, Cork, Mr. James C. Holland, Apothecary.

At single, at the age of 80 years, Mr. Jeremiah O'Connor, for 40 years a time waiter.

At Templemore, at an advanced age, the Rev. Denis Maher, for many years Parish Priest of Upper Church.

At Waterloo-road, Dublin, Anna Maria, daughter of the late Rev. John Ellison, of Killymard, county Donegal.

At Boyne Hill, the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Colonel Gerrard, Mrs. Margaret Garnett, aged 82 years, relict of the Rev. George Charles Garnett, of Williamston House, Meath.

At Ballymena, Catharine, relict of the late Mr. Archibald Cumming, in the 77th year of her age.

At Newington-hall, Elvira Anne, the wife of Joshua Williams, Esq. of Lincoln's-inn, and daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Phipps, of Oaklands, Clonmel.

At Hackwood-park, Lord Bolton, in the 68th year of his age.
At Thurloe-place West, Charles Thomas Irvine, Esq. of the Admiralty, Somerset-house.

The son of Sir Darcy Irvine, Bart.
At Beverly, the wife of Counsellor Todd.

Aged 77, Eliza, wife of Mr. Francis Partridge, of Blooms-bury.

At Sandgate, Thomas Fowles, Esq.
At Ridgeinout, Hampstead-road, Captain G. Butler, R.N.

At Tunbridge-wells, A. Somerville, Esq. Deputy Commissary General to the Army.

At Seymour-street West, the Rev. Josiah John Pike, in his 81st year.

At Pentonville, Alexander Aulsebrook, Esq. many years one of the officers of the Court of Queen's Bench.

At Oak Hill, near Liverpool, Thurston Dale, Esq. formerly Major in the 4th King's Own Regiment.

At Bayswater, J. E. Morris, Esq. formerly Captain in the 38th Regiment.

At Hampstead, William Pike, Esq.
Suddenly, John Weld, Esq. of the Long Room, London.

Thomas, the only child of the late Joseph Munden, comedian.
At Toronto, John Wetenhall, Esq. late Commissioner of Pub-lic Works in Canada.

Mr. James Barclay, late Serjeant of the Royal Artillery, and Warden of the Military Prison, Quebec.

At New South Wales, the widow of John M'Arthur, Esq.