

profit to those poor girls of only two pence per day—a price alas! but too indicative of an amount of destitution too painful to describe. These articles are so very light as easily to be had by post; and those kind-hearted ladies who can feel for wretchedness, and sympathise with their Christian brethren and sisters, struggling to alleviate a famine-stricken people, are solicited to extend their patronage to this humble effort in their behalf. It is combining, what never should be separated, unless for special purposes—Industry and Charity.

A meeting of the Roman Catholic parishioners was held in the sacristy of St. Michael's Chapel on Sunday, Rev. James Synan, P.P. in the chair, for to devise means to raise funds for repair of that edifice, and committees were appointed to solicit subscriptions from the public.

Office and High Mass were celebrated at St. Michael's Chapel yesterday, for the late Wm. Leake, Esq. sub-sheriff of this county.

The Roman Catholic chapel of St. Peter and Paul, Clonmel, was robbed of altar ornaments, &c. Three of the fellows who committed the outrage is arrested.

Bridget Dorney was committed to Ennis Gaol on Friday, by T. Whitstone, Esq. charged by verdict of a jury at an inquest held same day at Liscannor, on the body of Mary Drony, her daughter, aged about 24 years, with having inflicted several wounds, accompanied with fractures in the head and several contusions on the body, of which she died on Wednesday last. The prisoner made a full confession of all the facts, though repeatedly cautioned against saying anything that might criminate herself. She said whatever the consequences would be she would tell the truth. She heard the deceased had been in the habit of stealing potatoes, and that it was for that
